Mutual Credit Company

The Mutual Credit Co. have founded stores throughout the country offering credit and unusual values to worthy people. Their method is most commendable as it enables these people to dress well on a convenient payment plan.
 Clothing for the whole family may be found at their Rochester store, which is located at 104 State St. Due to the extensive buying power of the company, they are able to buy at a very great discount value and can therefore, give the benefit of this to their patrons. Most unusual bargains are offered and you are invited to take the benefit of their A. d. upon on this page

T. H. Marrion & Company

One of the old and well established concerns of Rochester is T. H. Marrion & Co. located at 478 State St. It was established in 1895 by Thomas H. Marrion, and engages in the manufacturing of and dealing in monuments, headstones and cemetery memorials.
 The name Marrion takes high rank in this community owing to the unusually fine workmanship in the turning out of monuments of distinction and fine designings. The business was taken over in 1914 by John A. Casey under the management of T. P. Eagon. One of the finest stocks of Italian marbles in this section is carried by this concern. The Quincy, Westerly and Barre granites are used by the T. H. Marrion & Co. and are the best the market affords. The name Marrion has been retained in the conduction of the firm's affairs owing to the unusual good will and value of this name to the business.
 The work and service of T. H. Marrion & Co. include both the marking of designs and the execution thereof as well as the proper erection and placement of monuments, headstones and cemetery memorials. The Company is serving some of the oldest families in this vicinity.

The color scheme is blue and white with a unique decoration and arrangement of orange blossoms which gives the place a very restful appearance.

In the Beginning,
 It was a beautiful New Year morning in the Stone age.
 "Hey, Strongarm," said Hairy Face "lend me your crowbar, will you?"
 "Watta you want with it?" asked Strongarm.
 "I wanta take it home," informed Hairy Face, "to turn over a new leaf."
