Rochester Millwork Company

The industrial, commercial and building interests of this city are indeed fortunate in having located here the Rochester Millwork Co. This firm stands pre-eminent in its line and has made good progress since entering the field. The company does a general millwork business in doors, sash, veneered doors, interior finish, stain work, and porch work, etc., maintaining a warehouse at 45 Warehouse St., Rochester, under the management of Daniel F. Jack. All the members of the organization are practical sash, door and mill workmen, having spent all their lives in the business, and Mr. Jack is a man who understands in detail the various features and problems that are constantly coming before a concern of this kind, and he gives every job his personal attention.

work and supervision of jobs in hand. An organization of the character of the Rochester Millwork Co. makes a direct appeal on merit to those in the market for high grade mill work and quick service in deliveries in a field where dependability is truly an asset.

Koven Fur Company

It is a universally well founded principle with the wise shopper to patronize established home firms. The Koven Fur Co., 65 Clinton Ave., north, is one of Rochester's well established business firms.

Mr. Koven is a native Rochesterian. He has been identified with the Fur business for twenty years, having been through all its branches from the raw hides to the manufacturing of the finest quality coats, wraps, and furs.

By spending a couple of days each week in New York City, Mr. Koven is able to keep in touch with the markets in the styles center of the world.

The ladies of Rochester get the benefit of these tips as he invariably brings back a few garments which he has been able to buy way below the regular market price.

Those desiring fur garments will do well to keep in touch with The Koven Fur Co., for some rare bargains are sure to be found as well as best of quality and correct styles.

Was the longevity of the ancients due to the scarcity of medical colleges for graduates? Certainly not!

Perhaps a widow finds it easy to get married again because she doesn't expect perfection in a man.
