Real Stuff!

Dear Uncle—
As you all wanted to know what Parko is and what it will do, I will tell you. Mother says she doesn't have to keep her gloves on or hide her hands any more; she just uses Parko to remove the stains.
Dad swears by Parko as a shaving cream, it does soften his beard and does not leave his skin all dry and shiny.
Sister uses Parko to shampoo her hair and it has eliminated the dandruff.
Brother Charles uses Parko in the shop to clean his hands, just rubs it on and off. It saves him lots of time at lunch hour, Uncle Bill carries a can in his car to wash his hands without water.
I am not afraid of getting my clothes stained any more, as Mother takes the stains out with Parko.
As I have told you what Parko is and what it will do, my last word is, beware of the cheap imitation, the "same thing" if Parko is so good that it is being imitated, why take the cheap make-shift for the genuine?
You can buy Parko at all stores; get some—it sure great stuff.
Jack
