

A little thought for your Eyes

Whether you expect to travel or stay at home during the spring months, your eyes and your glasses should be kept up to the standard.

If you contemplate a trip, you should, by all means, have more than one pair of glasses. Imagine the inconvenience, if an accident should happen to the one pair you possess.

An important downtown errand.

Writing from Rome, Italy, under date of February 18, the Rev. George F. Kettell, well known Rochester priest, who is studying at the American College in Rome, speaks of the ceremonies attending the death of the late Pope Benedict and the coronation ceremonies of Pope Pius.
