

SPECIALIZE ON CHINCH BUGS

Particular Reason Why Farmers Should Act to Protect the Bobwhite Quail From Hunters.

Every shot fired this season at the bobwhite that is wintering in your field is a shot at your pocketbook...

While you fight the chinch bug, remember your efforts to increase bobwhite quails...

To protect the bobwhite the most effective plan is for several farmers to cooperate to publish a notice in the county papers...

Protect the quails; they will fight your bug battles for you—winter and summer.—Our Dumb Animals.

OPPORTUNITY WAS TOO GOOD

How Justice Story Got a Laugh at the Expense of Two Highly Distinguished Americans.

President John Quincy Adams was one of those uncomfortable persons who are up at work by some ungodly hour of the morning...

Now, Story was a notorious bon vivant. He got up late and in other ways acted like a civilized person.

With a twinkle in his eye Story turned to the boys and remarked: "Gentlemen, behold the ghastly results of intemperate rising!"

"Army" Tests for Collegians.

That the results of regular academic tests do not clash with the results of psychological tests...

Brazilian Air Lines.

Brazilian senators have reported favorably upon a bill proposing the establishment of two aviation lines between Rio de Janeiro and Porto Alegre...

Retrieved That Gold Piece.

While in the station in Brussels in Belgium, my friend was intent upon getting tickets for the Waterloo battlefield...

PROFITABLE DEAL IN FOXES

Treasury of the United States Bought and the Value of the Breed Increased.

In the spring of 1921 the bureau of biological survey directed attention to the fact that the blue foxes on some of the Aleutian Islands are deteriorating through inbreeding...

All the foxes were received at Unalaska in good order and were promptly placed on the islands under lease to the various persons concerned...

The amount received for the eight foxes was $704.90; $5 was allowed for the cost of the Pribilof Islands for each fox secured...

SOME MERIT IN SUGGESTION

World Would Certainly Be More Colorful if Woman Would Dress as This Article Desires.

"If some women are so anxious to dress like men why don't they imitate the masculine styles of a lovelier day and age than the present one?"

He pointed out the lack of beauty of the existent garb for men and then he recalled the silken dandies of Shakespeare's day.

"Well, let them revive the fashions of old when a tailor knew how to dress a man. Let them wear the silken breeches and the silken coats...

Cats Paderewski a Giant.

No one can ever realize how hard Paderewski worked for his results. Sometimes one hears of the great heroism of the pianist who practices six or seven hours a day...

Petroleum Statistics.

The American Petroleum Institute's analysis of official petroleum statistics for December, 1921, shows an excess of domestic production and imports over indicated total consumption...

New Cape Breton Salt Bed.

The first rock salt deposit ever found in Cape Breton has been made near Whiteoak, Victoria county, where a thin upper vein of a salt bed has been pierced at a depth of 120 feet below the ground's surface.

Immense Demand for Furs.

Several hundred thousand pelts, including polar, grizzly and black bear skins, coyotes, buffalo, silver, red, cross fox skins, muskrat, beaver, sable, mink, were received by a fur company at Montreal to be sold at its winter sale.

"RETAIN THE LOVERS' LANES" BACKERS ARE KEPT GUESSING

Sentiment in Thousands of Hearts Pleads That They May Never Become Great Highways.

A little gray cottage stands on a hilltop. Below the hill runs the crossroad. There is not much travel on the road—it serves to connect two highways.

Often times the crossroad takes its way close to the foot of some deeply wooded knoll and sometimes it goes over a creek, gulvering under its icy cover. Then the two ends of the road meet by means of a little bridge...

The young folks call the crossroad "lovers' lane." The old folks used to call it "lovers' lane" when they were young and drove under the arched branches or jangled over the road in aleighs...

EASY TO TELL HIS THOUGHTS

Little Peculiarities of Theodore Vail Revealed Much to Friends and Business Associates.

There was nothing eccentric about Theodore N. Vail, but he had certain little peculiarities of manner. From his biographer, Albert Bigelow Paine, we learn that for one thing he was absent-minded.

Once, says Mr. Paine, when Mr. Vail was starting on one of his many trips to the Pacific coast and had invited his niece to accompany him he turned to her abruptly at the moment of departure...

Her prompt reply that she was going both startled and amused him. His thoughts seemed always to require some sort of physical outlet. When listening to anyone he had a habit of making small pencil drawings...

Scottish Gardeners Valued.

Scottish gardeners are being exported to all parts of the world. A notable instance of the value in which the Scottish gardener is held, is the engagement by a United States millionaire, of a Scotsman for his private grounds, at a salary of $5,000 a year.

Swells' Pride.

Mrs. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., made a graceful little speech at the opening of the Grace Lodge hotel in Washington. This hotel, which Mrs. Rockefeller helped to found, is exclusively for women. It has many novel features, among them elaborately equipped rooms where woman guests may laundress their own linen.

Water 30 Cents a Gallon.

Water isn't quite up to the price of liquor, but it is almost there at Cow Camp, the driest point on the Silver Peak range, near Tonopah, Nev. They are paying 30 cents a gallon for it, and residents are agreeing that it is cheap at the price.

Weekly Calendar Of Feast Days

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Sunday, April 23.—St. George, patron of England. He was born in Cappadocia and was a tribune under Diocletian. He rebuked the emperor for persecuting Christians, and resigned his commission. He was tortured and finally beheaded.

Monday, April 24.—St. Fidelis of Sigmaringen, born in 1577, a noble and lawyer, who, finding it difficult to be a rich advocate and a good Christian, entered the Capuchin Order. He preached against the Calvinists in Switzerland and after a sermon at Sevis was attacked by a body of Protestants, headed by a minister, and slain.

Tuesday, April 25.—St. Mark the Evangelist, who was converted by St. Peter and became secretary and interpreter of the prince of the Apostles. He founded the church in Alexandria. His graphic gospel is based on St. Peter's testimony. Mark, after governing his see for many years, was seized by heathens and put to death.

Wednesday, April 26.—Saints Cletus and Marcellinus, Popes and Martyrs. Cletus was the third bishop of Rome, reigning from 76 to 89. Marcellinus succeeded to the papacy in 296, in the time of Diocletian. He reigned eight years and is termed a martyr, though his blood was not shed in the cause of religion.

Thursday, April 27.—St. Zita, Virgin, a citizen of Lucca. On one occasion, having spent a long time in church, she neglected to make some bread. Arriving home, she found it already baked, an angel having performed her duty. She fed the poor and by her gentleness overcame the jealousy of fellow servants. She died in 1272, a bright star appearing over her attic to show that she had gained eternal rest.

Friday, April 28.—St. Paul of the Cross, whose eighty-one years were modeled on the passion of Christ. He enlisted in a Crusade against the Turks, but, warned by Heaven, abandoned this work to found the Passionist Monastery on Monte Argentario. On Fridays his heart beat with supernatural palpitation that scorched his shirt. He died while the Passion was being read to him.

Saturday, April 29.—St. Peter of Verona, Martyr. He was born in 1205, the son of heretical parents and at the age of fifteen was received into religion by St. Dominic at Bologna. He had special devotion to Our Lady. He was often cruelly calumniated and finally suffered martyrdom near Milan.

A Nuisance. Charles M. Schwab said at a dinner in Loretto: "Some men, retiring from business at fifty-five or so, take bungalows at Los Angeles and do nothing but sit on their front porches and listen to their arteries hardening. A bad thing."

On the Jump. "I reckon you had a right lively time in Kansas City?" inquired an acquaintance. "Tolable," replied Gabe Gosnell of Grudge, "but nothing like what I probably would have had if I wasn't considerably lively on my feet. You see, up in Kay See, if you meet a respectable-looking man after four o'clock in the afternoon anywhere the least bit off to one side, he's a holdup and robs you."

Would Have Helped Somewhat. Nick Slick, the latest acquisition to the town, had done the "heavy" in no half-hearted fashion. Smart, and glib of speech, he had found the townspeople of Littleville very simple folk and easy game. He had obtained credit right and left, and then he had flown gently away, without ever disturbing the dust or the pile of unpaid bills in his lodgings.

By gosh!" muttered Wilkins, the grocer, who was hard hit by the defaulter. "If I'd known he didn't intend paying, I'd have charged him double. I would!"—London Tit-Bits.

SEES POSSIBLE FALL OF MAN

Scientist Points Out How the Race May Sink to the Level of Lower Savages.

"Some millions of years from now an entirely new and more highly organized animal may spring from some ancestral stock now relatively obscure and rise, at first slowly and then more rapidly, to even greater heights of achievement than anything which lies within the capacity of the human species."

After tracing the geologic evolution of the earth so far as man knows it, Dr. Elliot Blackwelder of Harvard University, at the meeting of the geological societies of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, in Toronto, Canada, in these words suggested the possibility of a future usurper of man's pre-eminent place on earth.

"As our modern civilization becomes more and more specialized and diversified, our relations to our environment become more and more complex and our adjustments more delicate," Doctor Blackwelder said. "Eventually, after all the latest possibilities for advancement possessed by the human species have been exhausted, the race may conceivably sink back to the general level of the lower savages, which are but little above the other mammals."—Kansas City Star.

WITH A POINT.

Borrow often blinds people together.

True men are always truthful men.

Don't expect applause. Deserve it.

To do good is better than to be done good.

Softly fools gladly; they may be right.

Picking winners is usually a losing game.

Women forgive and remember; men forget.

Only when hope is dead do we cease to fear.

Easter Sunday Services In Dansville Church Are Impressive

Dansville, N. Y., April 21.—Easter Sunday—"the day which the Lord hath made," was commemorated at St. Mary's church, with sanctified solemnity and joy of heart in keeping with the most glorious festival of the year.

Within the church were treasures of holy imagery, treasures of sound and song, and treasures above all these of grace and inward gifts from God. Christ the Lord in all His majesty upon His altar-throne was there for Adoration during the solemnly symmetrical completeness of the august Eucharistic sacrifice.

The violet covered crucifixes and statues representing the privacy of Christ before His Passion were unveiled. The lighted Paschal candle, a figure of the body of the Saviour resurrected, shone forth in mystic beauty. The Way of the Cross that pressed so closely on the heels of Palm Sunday merry making throng and Calvary's top, that high noon of the First Good Friday, sorrowfully commemorated Holy Week, was superseded by the joy in the Resurrection, the proof of Christ's heavenly mission and His Divine character. The altars were radiant with the bloom and embellishments of the loveliest of flowers, and again and again was heard the grand Alleluia, Alleluia in the triumphant musical program of the choir.

In a simple un-labored clear flowing style the Rev. Leo G. Hofschneider in his sermons showed how the cross had become the symbol of victory and thereby the symbol of joy. Darkness and gloom were dispelled and every where shed the glory of the Resurrection. In exhortation he reanimated the faith of his parishioners in the truths of religion; showed them that the world is but a passing show and the loudest praise of men but "a dying echo from a falling wall"; that earthly happiness and real dignity do not depend upon the accumulation of wealth and honor; that there should be dedication to God of the whole kingdom of the soul with all its powers so that one can say with the Apostle, "I live now, not I, but Christ liveth in me."—faith in Him is the only means of Salvation. In conclusion the Rev. Speaker quoted fifteen authentic facts appealing solely to reason and fairness as a proof that the Resurrection is a fact beyond human power to effect.

The services closed with Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and the chanting of the Te Deum.—BY K. L. P.

Knights of St. John Commandery Hold Annual Inspection

Mayor Frank X. Schwab of Buffalo, accompanied by Rev. J. J. Pfiker, also of that city, reviewed ten commanderies Thursday night in Convention Hall at the annual inspection and drill of the 1st Regiment, Knights of St. John. Colonel Joseph H. Weiss conducted the inspection. An exhibition drill was given by the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Frank J. Koch, deputy commissioner of charities was chairman of arrangements. About 3,000 were present, either to watch the inspection and drill from the balcony or to enter into the dancing which followed.

Do not suffer with Asthma USE BRON CARDI

The Great Indian Medicine Bron Card Medicine Co. 104 Lake Ave. By parcel post or Ask your druggist

SAUSAGE of all kinds.

Manufactured by HUGO SCHREIER 38 Front St. Main 1695 Send us your Job Printing.