Weekly Calendar Of Feast Days

Sunday, Feb. 18. - St. Simeon, Brother of St. James the Less, was a nephew to St. Joseph and the Blessed Virgin and therefore a cousin of the Saviour. He governed the Church of Jerusalem about forty-three years.

Monday, Feb. 19. - St. Barbasus, Bishop, was born in the territory of Benevento toward the end of the pontificate of St. Gregory the Great. He became Bishop of Benevento and did much to root out remnants of superstition in that state. He died in 682.

Tuesday, Feb. 20. - St. Eucherius, Bishop, was a member of an illustrious family of Orleans. He became Bishop of Orleans upon the death of his uncle Suavicus. Later he was banished by Charles Martel because he reproved that ruler for stripping the churches of their ornaments to defray military expenses. He died in 748 at the monastery of Sarchinium.

Wednesday, Feb. 21. - St. Severianus, Martyr, Bishop, was martyred in about the year 452 because as Bishop of Scythopolis, he resisted the Eutychian heresy.

Thursday, Feb. 22. - St. Peter's Chair at Antioch. By many Saints it is attested that before going to Rome, St. Peter founded the see of Antioch which was then the capital city of the East. St. Leo says we ought to celebrate the chair of St. Peter with no less joy than the day of his martyrdom, for as in this he was exalted to a throne of glory in heaven, so in his chair he was installed head of the Church on earth.

Friday, Feb. 23. - St. Peter Damian, born in 988, after studying at the University of Parma, joined the monks at Font-Aval-lana. He was an adviser of seven Popes and was created Cardinal Bishop of Ostia. He withstood Henry IV of Germany and labored in defence of Alexander II against the anti-Pope, whom he forced to yield and seek for pardon.

Saturday, Feb. 24. St. Matthias, was elected to take the place of Judas to complete the number of the Apostles. He was noted for the rigor with which he practiced mortification of the flesh.

Unanimous. In one of the towns of the Pacific coast a distinct earthquake shock was felt recently, and when the municipal building rocked perceptibly the city fathers, then in session, left without bothering about the usual formula. The clerk, a man of rules and regulations, was hard put to it to give the minutes the proper official tone. Finally he evolved this masterpiece: "On motion of the city hall, the council adjourned." - The American Legion Weekly.

WASTE OF TIME AND MONEY

Why One Young Chicago Matron Has Had Her Phone Taken From the Party Line.

The inconvenience of a party line telephone was amusingly illustrated in the home of a young couple in the suburbs not long ago, relates the Chicago Journal.

The telephone instrument for some reason was located in a large closet. A hard shower came up suddenly while the six-year-old son was at kindergarten, and as it was near closing time and Bobby was all unprepared for rain his mother went to the telephone to order a taxi to call for him.

She heard the receiver at short intervals, only to hear: "Then take in a slow oven . . ." and "No, this recipe never fails. I always use it . . ." but was finally rewarded by hearing the final "Goodbye, call me up again when we can have time for a long visit." After at last giving her order to the taxi man she emerged from the closet hot and cross, only to find that the sun was shining brightly. Ten minutes later up drove Bobby in state, all smiles and enthusiasm at his unexpected treat. That was the last straw. The telephone still remains in the closet, but the party line is no more.

POOR REWARD FOR BRAVERY

Evidently the Polles in Some Parts of France Have Queer Notions and Are Not Strong on Common Sense.

Passengers on the Bordeaux-Cette express in France were saved from a holdup by a masked bandit owing to the pluck of a railroad man who happened to be traveling on the train. Feigning sleep he waited until the bandit was leaning over him. Then suddenly he pulled a revolver and covered the outlaw, who was then disarmed and arrested by the passengers.

The latter were surprised to learn next day that this smart act is being rewarded by a fine of one franc and the confiscation of the revolver—the local police authorities having found nothing better to do than prosecute for the possession of firearms without a license. To this must be added a sum of about fifty francs for the legal costs of the case.
