EASTER

The Lenten Season is at an end Tomorrow usher in the great and joyous feast of Easter.

We have traveled with the Saviour all along his journey to Calvary there to die on the Cross in expiation of the sins of the world in order that we might have life eternal and not be deprived of the light of God's countenance.

And now we stand beside the tomb of the risen Christ. He has broken the bonds of Death and soon He will return to his home in high where we, too, shall go in due time if we have kept the faith.

GOVERNOR OPPOSES

Governor Ben W. Olcott, of Oregon is not enamored of the Klax Klan and its program of anti-Catholic bigotry. Here is an excerpt from a statement by Governor Olcott in a recent issue of "Columbia."

Sad as it may seem, there is no public string so easily played up as the bow of the shrewd manipulator as the string of religious prejudice. No smoldering ember may be so quickly fanned into a deathly flame. It is the history of centuries that the crafty, manipulating evil genius of politics has used this prejudice and molded it to his own uses. What he meant it to him if dynasties rose and fell by this manipulation; if thrones were wrecked; if nations were thrown into the travail and bloodshed of internecine civil strife; if thousands perished on the block or under the faggot, as long as his own designing ends were served?

I have been frank in my declarations about this organization, because I trust our nation—my nation—will call a halt before it is too late. The rumblings are heard on every hand; east and west and north and south. I challenge this organization to stand out in the open; to rip off its mask; to appear in the garb of every-day citizenry. Let it speak its speech out in the open. It is largely a political organization founded for certain objects and purposes. Let it be specific. Let it throw down its gauge of battle in the open lists, so the tournament may be found under the eyes of all mankind. But above all let those men who make up the rank and file of this organization reflect that they are American citizens. Let their minds revert to the Argonne or Chateau Thierry, where Catholic, Jew, Negro and Protestant fought side by side against the guns of the common enemy, where the Catholic turned to aid his fallen Protestant comrade and gave to his dying buddy a drink of water; where the Jew fell dead under machine gun fire, and his body dropped over the inert body of the brother Protestant.

Let the men who make up the rank and file of this organization reflect on some of these things before they go headlong on their course.

TWISTED

Protestants and those who have become hard-shelled and devoid of sentiment or romance very soon show themselves narrow and degenerate to the level of domestic scoundrels. The real possessed of a judicial mind and a member of the community, whether he exercise his right of speaking the word is general because he

Between the critic and the school, is the position of the editorial writer of the "Nation," which advertises itself as an independent journal and when he writes of the late W. Bourke Cockran, as a man who "lacked stability of character, precise information and definite views, and as a result, he wobbled on great public questions."

We felt inclined to agree with a contemporary who writes:
"How an editor who knows—or is supposed to know—what he is talking about could make such a statement is inconceivable to us.
Such a distorted view of a great man practically amounts to a libel.
We suspect that the man who penned that contemptuous and contemptible squib is either a Britisher or an Anglo-maniac. It typifies the traditional British attitude toward everybody and everything Irish."

Bourke Cockran's memory will live with those who knew him, when the identity of the Nation Editor will have passed into utter oblivion.

NOTED COUNSEL

William D. Guthrie, it is announced, has been selected as Chief Counsel to oppose the Oregon anti-parochial school law, enacted by popular referendum vote last November. Assisting Mr.
Guthrie will be Garrett W. Mc-Enerney of San Francisco and Judge John P. Kavanaugh, of Portland Oregon.

As the senior member of the New York firm of Guthrie, Bangs & Van Sinderin, Mr. Guthrie has argued some of the most important cases that have come before the Supreme Court of the United States during recent years. The list includes the income tax, the California irrigation, the Illinois inheritance tax, the oleomargarine, and the Kansas City stock yards rate cases. In 1907-1908 he delivered a course of lectures at Yale and now holds a chair of constitutional law at Columbia University. He is the author of "Lectures on the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution" and the "Magna Charta and Oh-

Essays.
Mr. McEnerney is one of the most prominent attorneys on the Pacific Coast, a graduate of St.
Mary's College, San Francisco, a regent of the University of California, and has received the degree of D.C. L. from the Catholic University of America. In 1902 he represented the Archbishop and Bishops of California in the arbitration at the Hague between the United States and Mexico regarding the Pius Fund of the California. After the great fire and earthquake of 1906 he was responsible for the passage of the "McEnerney act" by the California legislature, which permitted owners of real property to restore their record titles which were lost by the destruction of public records. Judge Kavanaugh is attorney for Archbishop Christie of Oregon City.

UNUSUAL

From Brooklyn comes the announcement that three Catholic young women, sisters, are to enter the same religious order simultaneously. They are the Misses Katharine, Anna and Isabel Mc-Grath. Each is a woman of unusual intellectual and professional attainments.

Katharine McGrath, B. S., M.
D., is a graduate of New York University and of the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia.
For a number of years she has practiced medicine in New York and is well known at Long Island Hospital, St. Catharine's Hospital, and St. Mary's Hospital, Jamaica. She has been an instructor in the Post Graduate Hospital in New York and is leaving a large practice to consecrate her life to God.

Miss Anna McGrath has been doing school department work in P. S. 99, Flatbush, where she has established a reputation for her ability in winning the co-operation and affection of the pupils.
The third sister, Miss Isabel Mc-Grath, is a graduate of the Trenton Normal School.

They will enter the religious life at the motherhouse of the order, Holy Trinity Station, Cotton-ton, Ala. The order of the Missionary Servants of the Most Blessed Trinity has in recent years devoted particular attention to the care and education of Italian children in the United States.

The Lenten Season is ended and the joyous feast of Easter is upon us.
