Radio to be Broadcast During the Summer Months.

Now that we are certain that Radio will be broadcast during the summer months in and about Rochester many Radio Fans are enthusiastically getting their Radio Sets completed.

Everything in this line can be obtained at the E. C. Sykes Company store at 12 Front Street. They have one of the largest and most complete equipments in the City of Rochester and as this firm has already built up a reputation as to its reliability and integrity we feel safe in recommending them to our readers as the best in town for Radio equipment.

As this is the time for housewives to go over the air house and that includes the kitchen they will probably find many knives that need sharpening, and at the Sykes store is the place to have this done. Their machinery and apparatus for this line of work is modern in every respect.

This company is also the best of electrical contractors and do a large majority of electrical installing in the city. If you are considering doing any of this work this spring or summer let this Company give you an estimate of what they will do for as their prices are right, their work is perfect, and when they accept a contract the owner is assured it will be filled to the letter. Try them out.

A Genesee Delicatessen Store.

The housewives in the vicinity of 356-358 Genesee Street will be glad to learn that Morris Krollick has daily a fresh supply of the choicest Delicatessen foods. He carries a complete line of only the best of this sort of food, try some and you will be more than pleased. These foods are so necessary and helpful to the busy working person who has no time to cook and bake and with the summer coming on it seems a blessing to be able to purchase these things, ready to serve with out slaving in a hot kitchen.

Mr. Krollick also carries a good supply of the best cigars, all sorts of confectionery, magazines, novels, stationery and school supplies.

Here also you can find ice cream and at any time if you order by phone, Mr. Krollick will deliver your order in the neighborhood. So just call Genesee 2494 and everything for your meal will be brought to your door.

Folding Beds Ancient.

Four thousand years ago the Egyptians boasted folding beds. What is more surprising, 4,000 years ago the dwellers along the Nile cherished folding beds.

This significant bit of news brought to the Metropolitan Museum of Art with a folding bed purloined from a tomb of Old Egypt proves that the folding bed was prized as a luxury which only the very rich who could build sumptuous tombs could afford.

The same archeologist brought back a bunk used on the boats of the Nile 4,000 years ago. The bunk differs in no particular way from stateroom berths of modern craft—Detroit News.

You never can tell. Many a man rises in his own estimation who hopes to be let down easy.

In spite of the fact that it takes 100 cents to make a dollar, lots of people have more dollars than sense.

New Boots for Spring.

Have you purchased your new Summer Shoes? If not drop in at the Genesee Bootery at 188 Genesee Street. This store has a special offering of all kinds of men's, women's and children's shoes. They range in price from $2.00 up and are of the very best quality and style. This store has also many special sales and they will be of benefit to you if you will watch for them and grasp the opportunity which they offer. They carry a full line of women's shoes at all times in the fanciest and plainest styles and in all color combinations as are now worn and which are so much in vogue.

The Genesee Boot Shop also carry a full supply of rubbers and sandals, for grown-ups and children as well. When you are in need of shoes drop in and look over the supply here. The service is excellent and only educated salesmen are in attendance.

ODD VARIETIES OF MEDICINE

Cobweb Pills Supposed Good for Ague, and Snake's Head Broth for Various Diseases.

The heads of venomous serpents have held an important place in medicine. A strong broth made from them and mixed with salt and spices, and one hundred other remedies, was employed under the name of thierac as a cure for every conceivable disease.

Curious survivals of this old belief in the efficacy of certain reptiles and insects as cures for human ills occasionally come to light, even in this advanced age. In New England, cobweb pills are supposed to be good for the ague, and in the South a certain knuckle bone in a pig's foot is a cure for rheumatism, if it be carried in the pocket or worn suspended from a string around the neck.

The spiderweb pill originated in China, where all species of insects have certain positive or negative values in medicine.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sacred Horses in Jap Park.

In the famed park in Nara, Japan, there is a sacred horse. This shaggy, undersized animal is said to be about the funniest thing in Japan. He is pure white, and has one blue eye and one pink eye. He is kept in a small stable with a square hole for him to poke out his head to eat the oats which tourists bring him. The third largest bell in Japan hangs in Nara park, which contains 1,250 acres, and throughout which more than 3,000 stone and metal lanterns are scattered. Six hundred tame deer roam at will in the park.

Also in Nara park there is one of the three gigantic bronze Buddhas, and the largest. The others are at Osaka and Kamakura. One of the most venerated of Shinto shrines—Kasuga no Miya—is the goal of thousands of pilgrims every year. It has existed for 1,210 years.

Considerate of the Bank.

An English sailor just home from a long cruise entered a bank in Hull and greeted the clerk with: "What cheer, matey! How's your business doing, hey?"

"Not very brisk at present," answered the clerk, "but I hope to see it improve shortly."

"That's 'ard!" said the tar sympathetically. He fished out a check for £100.

"How'll you have it?" asked the clerk.

The sailor hesitated a moment, then leaned over the counter and said in a hoarse whisper: "Well, matey, I don't want to be 'ad on ye. Give me ten pun' now and I'll take the rest a pun' a week."—Boston Transcript.

When He Remembered.

An absent-minded man came home one day after a heavy rainstorm, very bedraggled and wet. His wife met him at the door, and as he greeted her he made the remark that he had forgotten his umbrella.

She was surprised to think that he even remembered that he had forgotten anything, and asked him when he had thought of it.

With a smile of satisfaction he replied: "Why, my dear, when it stopped raining and I went to shut it."

What $10 will do--
 Release you forever from laundry bills or the drudgery of hard washing methods.
 Why delay? Every washday without Thor conveniences costs you far more than it should—time, money and energy.
 There's an army of Thor housewives—three-quarters of a million—who will tell you that they would never again do without a Thor.
