HOW

DISTRICTS IN OUTSKIRTS OF LONDON GOT ODD NAMES... Some districts in the outskirts of London, England, got their names in strange ways.

WORD FROM CHURCH HISTORY

Ecclesiastical Meaning of the Word 'Metropolis' Has Gradually Shifted to Political Idea... The word 'metropolis' comes straight from the pages of church history.

How Disease Creates Fear.

The formation of pearls in oyster shells is not, as has hitherto been supposed, due to an irritant, but to a peculiar disease which attacks the shells.

How to Fix Window Shades.

Unless the lower hem of a window shade is rather close-fitting, the flat piece of wood run in to hold it even will often work itself out at once.

WHY

Atmosphere Changes Have Effect on Twinkling Stars... There are several reasons why stars twinkle. One is that these bodies are so extremely distant that not even the most powerful telescope can show them to have a visible disk.

USE GOLD LEAF AS MEDICINE

Indian Natives Make Peculiar Use of Precious Metal—Refuse to Trade It... Curious and interesting facts regarding India's passion for gold, and the strange uses to which the natives put the precious metal, have been gathered.

Why We Raise Hand in Yawning.

There are a number of odd superstitions with regard to yawning. Most people remember having been corrected at some time or other for not placing a hand over the mouth to cover up a yawn.

Why I Sign is Used.

Originally both 'L' and 'lb.' meant the same thing, 'one pound' from the Latin word, 'libra'.

Why the Word 'Cigar' is Spanish.

The word cigar is Spanish, and is derived from cigarra, the Spanish name for grasshopper.

Why Does Watch Spring Break?

The spontaneous breaking of watch springs is believed to occur chiefly in the summer months.

The Poet's Corner

By CLARA DELAFIELD (© 1921 Western Newspaper Union)

HONEST MIKE SULLIVAN and his elderly frau lived in a quaint old-fashioned little cottage in an obscure nook of the great city.

SCIENCE AIDS IN ARMY DRILL

Loud-Speaking Apparatus on Motor Truck Enables All to Hear Orders Easily... If 250 lusty-lunged sergeants of the regular army should get together and shout 'Fall in,' in their best drill-ground style, the effect would scarcely equal that of the voice amplifier recently purchased by the signal corps.

Deuce of a Question.

A master in a large school called upon Smith, who stutters, to parse the sentence: 'The propinquity of the porcupine made pot-shooting at the hippopotamus virtually impossible.'

New Ballot Needed.

When 40 women met recently to form a musical club in W—, and were asked to write on slips of paper the name of their choice for president, the organization of the club had to be abandoned because the nominating committee found on the slips the names of 39 of those present.

Refused to Be Dampened.

Some of those American soldiers who stopped off in England for a time were so exuberant in spirits that they refused to have them dampened even by the well-known and much advertised foggy weather.

His Long-Neglected Task.

Nexdoor—Heavens! Is your house all right? Neighbor—Don't be alarmed. Just sent for the department to come and water the plants, that's all. My wife will be home tomorrow.

EUROPE HAS GAMBLING MANIA

Returning Traveler Says Speculation is the Ruling Passion in the Old World.

A discouraged returning traveler draws a dolorous picture of the Europe he left behind him. Over there, he finds, the ruling passion is the gambling mania.

Monument to Fabre.

A committee headed by General de Castelnaux, and including leading educators and officials of the French department of Aveyron, is arranging for the erection of a statue to Jean Henri Fabre, who wrote books about insects that were more interesting than romances.

Debt of Service.

There is debt of service due from every man to his country, proportioned to the bounties which Nature and Fortune have measured to him.—Jefferson
