Everybody Typewrites Nowadays

Yesterday the typewriter was just an office appliance but today it is surely the whole world's writing machine. Everybody, young and old, serious or frivolous, seems to be using a typewriter of some sort. Whereas a typewritten letter from a friend used to be an amazing event, nowadays it is quite the usual thing. And you must admit that there is a lot to be said for this new arrangement. It is easier to speed over the little white keys than to push a pen. It's speedier and cleaner too.

Probably it is the portable typewriter that has brought about the popularity of typewriting every day and in every way. It was the traveling men and the newspaper boys who first discovered the beauties of Corona and everyone else has been quick to follow them.

Corona is a wonder machine it must be admitted. If you were to call at the store where they sell them at 85 East Avenue they would tell you some of the machine's amazing adventures. During the war 75,000 of the little work hounds were used and abused and not one flunked. The other day in Texas they dropped one out of an aeroplane at a height of 1,600 feet. One part was broken and a few others were bent. The frame was good as ever. A few dollars put the machine in going order again. Some machine!

These are just a few of the things they told us in the store. If you drop in some day they will tell you the whole story and yet not importune you to buy. And they sell all kinds of machines including rebulbs. Underwoods, Remingtons, Royals and L. C. Smith's. They actually guarantee Coronas for three years and all rebulbs for one year.

We were forced to admit that there was no reason for not having a typewriter now you can get one for $5 a month. Maybe we shall all be carrying them in our vest pockets soon.

Your Choice Cuts Of Meats?

You can procure the best cuts of meat at the Andrews Market at 73 Front St. just off Main St. Why not run in there and inspect the line of meats Mr. Andrews carries? Why not order one of their home cured Hams for dinner, they are delicious and can be used so handily for the second meal as cold meat, and for lunches too. These hams are selected from young, tender, cornfed pigs, and they have that lovely mild flavor because they prepare them by their own special old-fashioned sugar cure.

They also carry all other fresh meats at all times and will be glad to receive your order for meat at any time. Examination will convince you that their meats are of the finest in the city and are prepared in one of the most sanitary and up to date markets in Rochester. They also carry poultry and all kinds of game in season. They are anxious to prove to you that they sell only the best. If this sounds like exaggeration give them a chance to prove it by giving them an order.

Call Main 2568 and order your meat for a very special dinner and we feel they will send you as nice a cut on meat as you have ever eaten.

Prayer of the Tree.

Upon a tree in Portugal a traveler read this appeal:

Ye who pass by and would raise your hand against me, harken ere you harm me.

I am the heat of your hearth on the cold winter nights.

The friendly shade screening you from the summer sun.

And my fruits are refreshing drafts, quenching your thirst as you journey on.

I am the beam that holds your house, the board of your table, the bed you lie on, the timber that builds your boat.

I am the handle of your hoe, your deer, the wood of your cradle and coffin.

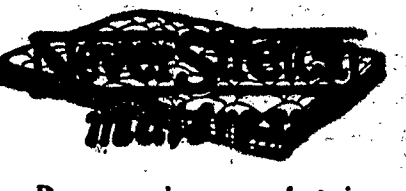

Ye who pass me by listen to my prayer: Harm me not!

These Watches Real Antiques.

A watch that is 200 years old has every right to be called an antique. But a watch that was an antique at the time of the French revolution and was well past the century mark when Louis XIV was adorning himself in satins, silks and velvets, that watch today is an antique in every sense of the word. Two such watches are owned by a man in Newark, N. J. They are French watches and both about 350 years old. When the Pilgrims set sail for America those timepieces were ticking away in French waistcoats, perhaps the pride of some village innkeeper of affluence.—Exchange.
