The E. A. McGarvey Hat Shops Have Fine Creations

One of the thoroughly distinctive millinery establishments in Rochester is The McGarvey Stores at 298 Main Street and the one on Main Street directly opposite East Ave.

Not only will my lady find there a wide choice of millinery confections that at once please the eye and the worshipper of fashion, but also courteous and discriminating service and a wide range of prices. These stores are both in the shopping district and within easy reach of residents anywhere in the city. These shops invite your inspection. They have been the favorites in Rochester for years, as they combine that touch of distinction with chicness and good taste, and particularly attractively in both color and style. The new fall shades are beautiful, representing the autumnal shades of browns, oranges, red and yellow with many combinations of gold and silver. Small hats are very much in vogue. The black hat is as usual good. Although shades are being used the hats of brown and variations of brown seem to be the most prominent. If you are in the shopping district call at either of these shops and inspect their lovely creations. It will be well worth your while.

The Fall of the Year—Time to Have Upholstering Done.

If looking for the best place to have your upholstering work done, we would suggest that you try the Rochester Upholstering Company at 33 South Water Street. This popular concern has been in business for the past eight years, and have built up a trade that they are well proud of. Their reputation is unexcelled those who have taken their work there speak highly of same.

Mr. Lewis Colton is the proprietor, and has had many years of experience in this work. He supervises all of the upholstering and employs first class experienced men.

No doubt you have been long considering having that davenport or chair re-upholstered, and if you are desirous of having the very best work done together with the use of the finest material, just give this concern a try. Their prices are reasonable considering that the work done is good or better than any place in the city. The best hair and cotton combine the materials used, all done in double stuffed, which together with the fact that all work goes out with an A-1 guarantee back of it, makes this an ideal place to trade. A fine line of mohairs, cretonnes, tapestries, etc. are also carried at all times and we would suggest your dropping in sometime to see the fine grade of materials that they keep in stock.

Mr. Colton says that the Rochester Upholstering Company are working on the reputation that they have established during the past eight years not for money alone but for honor, and the satisfactory work that is being turned out by the concern proves this fact.

Call Main 5161 for an estimate on that piece of furniture that you are considering having done and they will be gladly furnished.

The Celebrated Prices of Hart's

Breaking the news to mother has some times meant breaking her heart. Price cutters are not heart breakers however. Hart's Self-Serving Grocery Stores which are located all over the city at convenient places for shopping, gladden the heart of mothers by giving her money. A new store at 658 Monroe Ave. has recently been added to the line of Hart's Stores. The following list is a fair example of the prices at Hart's:

Good Luck Puddings for 10c.
Clam Chowder for 10c.
Red Salmon for 16c.
Classic Soap for 4c.
Hart's Coffee for 37c.

You will find many other values that are surprising in their price. If you will make a systematic inspection at any one of the Hart stores, the method of self-serving makes it possible for the highest class of groceries to be sold at the lowest price. They eliminate the clerk and other helpers which other stores have to pay wages, and put that money into your pocket.

Look up the Hart Store in your neighborhood and patronize it. It will pay you big dividends in the end and make your household expense money last longer in the week. These stores are operated by Rochesterians owned by Rochesterians for the benefit of Rochesterians.

THE RIGHT THING AT THE RIGHT TIME
By MARY MARSHALL DUFFIE

PHOTOGRAPHS

A CHEAP, second-rate photograph proclaims itself of course by its finish and mounting, but just as much by the manner in which the subject is posed. If you are going to have your picture taken don't let a photographer make the picture look second-rate by posing you in the wrong way.

Have you ever looked in the photographer's window to see the poses of the young brides and grooms? One favorite pose shows the embarrassed bridegroom sitting stiffly in the photographer's posing chair, with the white-clad bride standing squarely beside him, one arm and hand placed definitely across his shoulders.

Now this is a most un-American pose, for the well-bred American male should never permit himself to occupy a single chair to the exclusion of a woman.

In a large family group mistakes in grouping are often made, but in general you should follow the same rule in the seating that you would in real life. Men and children should never be seated to the exclusion of women.

No Encore Wanted.
"And," concluded the Sunday school teacher, "if you are a good boy, Tommy, you will go to heaven and have a gold crown on your head."
"Not much," said Tommy. "I had one of these things put on a tooth once."

Bread on the Water.
Wayfarer (to the robber)—I haven't any money with me. I'm sorry to say, but I will be glad to advise all my friends and acquaintances to take walks along this lonely path hereafter.—Fitzgerald Blaetter.

No Chicken.
Wife (with sudden thought)—Dear, how would you like to have mother for lunch?
Hub—No, thanks. My digestion isn't what it used to be.

Old-Fashioned.
Girl (of the new school of notation)—"Come on, uncle—shall we do the six-beat-double-trunchon crawl, or the eight-beat-cisner-kick thrash?"
Uncle George—Thank you, my dear. I think I'll just have a swim.—Punch.
