New Home For Auburn K. of C.

The Knights of Columbus of Auburn will be installed in their recently purchased clubhouse property at 188 Genesee Street, formerly the Theodore Pomeroy estate next month. The building committee has asked permission to start at once to make the necessary alterations to house the Knights at the earliest possible date which has been granted.

The Knights of Columbus will only make such changes as will permit the organization to hold meetings and entertainments. Eventually the organization intends to convert the building into a modern structure with lodge room, dance hall and all up to date conveniences. The Pomeroy estate was purchased by the Knights of Columbus from the Col. E. D. McTeal estate for $40,000. The annual ball will be held at the State Armory on the night of February 19.

M. De La Sizeranne, Benefactor Of Blind, Dies At Age Of 66

Paris, Feb. 1.—An admirable life just came to an end, that of one of the greatest benefactors of the blind, M. Maurice de la Sizeranne, who died at the age of 66 years.

Maurice de la Sizeranne lost his sight as a child. He was playing with some other children when an arrow accidentally struck him in the eye. He became totally blind as a result. From that time on he had but a single thought—that of the distress to which all blind persons are condemned, and but a single vocation—that of devoting his life to the relief of his fellow men.

At the age of 25, in order to save the blind from their moral solitude and create a bond of solidarity between them, he founded a newspaper in Braille and organized the Valentine Haug Society for the welfare of the blind. With the aid of this association he succeeded in creating and organizing the Braille Library, which now has 80,000 volumes. These volumes are circulated all over France and bring joy to many sightless readers. The Valentine Haug Society also strives to teach the blind all trades which are compatible with their condition. Many musicians, tuners, etc. have been trained in this way.

Maurice de la Sizeranne was not content with pleading for the blind, in order that his propaganda in their behalf might survive him, he wrote many works appealing to the charity and compassion of the public at large. Among these works are "Les Aveugles, par un Aveugle"; "30 Ans d'Etudes et de Propaganda en Faveur des Aveugles"; "Les Soeurs de Saint-Paul", etc. In all these books the soundest erudition is combined with the most penetrating psychology.

Maurice de la Sizeranne belonged to a devout Catholic family. A few years ago he received the medal of the Societe d'Encouragement au Bien.

Central Trust In Its New Home

Under the name of Central Trust Company the former Central Bank of Rochester has opened doors in its new building at No. 25 Main Street east, a few doors from its old home in the Wilder Building.

One of the features of the new bank building is a telegraphic communication system, by which teller and bookkeeping department are in constant touch.

The vault is at the end of the building on the ground floor. It has several thousand boxes and a number of steel safes.

Two additional vaults are installed in the basement for books, records, cash and securities.

New Home For K. of C. At Hornell

The Hornell Knights of Columbus are to build a new home.

For many years the council has occupied quarters in the Federation Building, Broadway, but it has grown to a membership of nearly 500. Sufficient financial support had been pledged to make the undertaking a success and it is hoped to get the work started this Spring.

The committee consists of Francis M. Cameron, Louis Young, Robert Weir, William Kinney, Thomas Tolian, John Kinney, Earl Tucker, William Couz, John Keenan, Eugene Clancy, Francis Cassidy, Leo Coogan, Robert McCarthy and William Crowe.

National Catholic School Athletic Meet, March 27-29

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Chicago, Ill., Feb. 8.—Invitations were issued this week to a number of Catholic educational institutions to enter their teams in what will be the first national interscholastic meet among Catholic schools which will be held in the new Loyola University Gymnasium March 27 to 29.

Rev. Father Thorning, director of athletics at Loyola, Edward J. Daly, each at St. Ignatius and R. J. Erickson, secretary of the Catholic Athletic Union, were the organizers of the meet and perfected the plans at a recent conference here.

A board of directors and executive committee, made up of the heads of the Catholic boys' schools of Chicago and suburbs, and of prominent Catholics in private and official life are backing the venture. Although limited to Catholic schools, it is planned to have the meet equal if not surpass the meets at the secular colleges.

Cardinal Mercier To Celebrate His Golden Jubilee

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Brussels, Jan. 30.—Cardinal Mercier will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination on April 4 of this year. A committee has been organized, under the chairmanship of M. Cooreman, Minister of State, to present to the Archbishop some souvenir of the occasion as a testimony of the admiration and gratitude of the Belgian people.

The Duchess of Vendome, who was born Princess Henrietta of Belgium, sister of King Albert, has addressed to the French people a public letter in which she asks them to associate themselves in this manifestation by the tribute to the great prelate.

Advised of this project, Cardinal Mercier has requested that his jubilee be essentially modest and pious, and that no demonstration be made. Nevertheless, such a memorable date in the glorious career of the famous archbishop cannot pass without public gratitude being manifested in some suitable way.

The Dean of the Chapter of Malines, knowing that the Cardinal has long desired to rebuild the Great Seminary in the country, has suggested a subscription which will make it possible to realize this wish. The committee of which the Duchess de Vendome is chairman will, therefore, work to this end, together with the Belgian Committee and other groups which may be organized in other countries.

Madonna and Child Added To Cleveland Collection Of Art

Cleveland, Feb. 5.—A panel on which is painted the Madonna and Child will be added to the Holden collection in the Cleveland Museum of Art shortly. The panel is 23 1/2 feet high, with a cross-piece eight feet wide wrapped in cotton and oak. It is soaked in oil and erected and trenched at the Moody Bible Institute in a vacant lot directly opposite the Convent of the Sacred Heart, 104th Street and East 10th Street. The painting is described as of exquisite coloring and shows the Madonna and Child, adored by saints who kneel at either side. Behind the Madonna hangs a cloth of honor red, covered by a pattern of small black crosses. The entire group is set against a background of dull gold. In the triangular space above is a representation of the crucifixion. The picture will be an addition to the Holden collection presented to the Cleveland Museum of Art in 1902 by Mrs. L. E. Holden and regarded as one of the most remarkable collections of Italian primitives in the United States. The collection hung for seven years in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York.

Princeton Professor Would Have Fosdick Read Out Of Church

Chicago, Feb. 8.—The war of words between the Modernists and the Fundamentalists of the Presbyterian Church that has reached a climax in New York City, has been carried to Chicago. The Fundamentalists, entrenched at the Moody Bible Institute, have launched daily attacks against the modernists. Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick, should be read out of the ministry in the opinion of Prof. J. Gresham Machen, of Princeton Theological Seminary who said: "Modernists ought to be driven from the lot near a hollowout of the teaching ministry. The stump which had been used to hold wrong ought to have been undertaken years ago, but it is not too late. They are the first appearance of the Ku Klux Klan in Manhattan."

Fiery Cross Blazes In New York City

New York, Feb. 8.—A cross fifteen feet high, with a cross-piece eight feet wide wrapped in cotton and oak.
