

THE NATIONAL BANK of ROCHESTER

Organized May 17th, 1924

Capital and Surplus $1,500,000.00

The National Bank of Rochester is the outgrowth of the consolidation of the Traders National Bank and the National Bank of Commerce. The bank is transacting business at both of the former locations pending removal to the new bank building just erected at the corner of State and Corinthian streets which will be open for business on Monday, May 26. All present and former customers and friends of the old institutions as well as the general public, are most cordially invited to visit us in our new home—where every facility that years of experience can give, will be at the service of customers. The new bank is the only National bank in Rochester and has the united support of all the other banks in the city, as well as being a member of The Federal Reserve System.

Congress Directory Based On Religious Prejudice Is Issued

Washington, May 10.—A complete Congressional Directory in which are listed the religious and fraternal affiliations of each member of Congress, has been issued here for the purpose, it announces, of revealing the "records of National Senators and Representatives of non-partisan moral issues of vital interest to Protestant voters."

The booklet is published by "The Protestant" edited by Gilbert O. Nations. Mr. Nations came into national prominence for a time in February, 1922, when his publication declared that Hanford McNider, then National Commander of the American Legion, was a Catholic and insinuated that he was elected in furtherance of some of the alleged insidious designs of the Papacy to which The Protestant constantly adverted to fill its columns. At that time Colonel McNider in a public letter rebuked Nations and declared that while he is himself a Mason and a Protestant, he had the utmost confidence in the patriotism of members of the Catholic Church. Nations was forced to issue a delayed apology admitting that his paper had published a story which was untrue.

Mr. Nations' new booklet refers to Earle B. Mayfield, Klan-elected Senator from Texas, as a "militant patriot". Representative Upshaw of Georgia is characterized as an "eminent patriot."

Members of either House who have voted against prohibition here are known to oppose the Ku Klux Klan are listed as subject to "wet or Papal influence."

Catholic Girl is High In Forensic Contest

St. Louis, Mo., May 13.—Miss Josephine Bates, a senior high school student at Visitation Academy here, was one of the eight winners in the elimination contest for the National Oratorical Contest, the finals of which will be held in Washington, D. C., June 6. From the eight there will be selected the representative of the Mid-West zone in the national contest. Twenty thousand high school students participated in the preliminary trials.

Miss Bates was the only girl in the elimination contest. The subject was the Constitution of the United States, and the contest is calculated to increase interest in and reverence for the Constitution.

Elgar Once Humble Catholic Organist

London, May 5.—Sir Edward Elgar, who conducted the massed choirs at the State opening of the British Empire Exhibition, had practically no musical education in the ordinary sense. His father kept a music shop and was organist at the Catholic Church at Worcester. Young Elgar thus lived in the atmosphere of music, and succeeded his father as organist. Afterward he came to London and for a long time had little success. Then came "German" and fame.

Nusa Sour "Daylight Saving"; Rise at 2:30

London, May 5.—The Cistercian nuns are probably the only persons in England who do not observe "Daylight saving time" which came into force again a few days ago. According to their rule, they arise at 2:30 a. m. If, by adopting the new time called in England "summer time," they arose at 1:30 a. m., they would have to get up long before the beginning of day.

Detroit Vincentians Will Send 500 Poor Boys to Outing Camp

Detroit, Mich., May 17.—Five hundred poor boys of Detroit will enjoy the ecstasies of Camp Ozanam on Lake Huron, conducted by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, this season. It has been announced in a prospectus of this year's activities at the camp. Last year, when Camp Ozanam was started, 150 boys were accommodated.

A baseball diamond, tennis courts, swimming and other outdoor features will be found at the camp, where the boys will be rotated in five groups for two weeks each. The youngsters are the under-privileged urchins of the city, and many of them have juvenile court records. The object is to start them on the right path by giving them two weeks of wholesome out-door life under careful tutelage. New buildings have been added since last year, and the facilities will be ample. The boys are certified by presidents of parish conferences.

Money for the growing activity conducted by the Vincentians at Camp Ozanam is obtained chiefly through a clothes bureau.

Return of Exiled Ruhr Workers is Being Won

Cologne, May 5.—After long negotiations, a committee ordered appointed April 13 by the Christian Railway Corporation to treat with the Allied occupying forces for the return of their expelled from the Rhineland is obtaining results.

The Rhineland Commission already has permitted 4,000 of those expelled to return to their homes in the Ruhr. The plea for their return was granted unconditionally, and the railway workers are not compelled to enter the service of the Franco-Belgian Railway Administration.

Passion Players, Tour Not A Money Success, Go Home Second Class

New York, May 16.—Anton Lang, portrayer of Christus in the century-old Oberammergau Passion Play, left America yesterday for his humble Bavarian village home, with two other leading players of the Passion Play cast. The three traveled in second class cabins on the liner Albert Ballin. The others were Andreas Lang and Guido Mayr, who portrayed Peter and Judas.

There was no ceremony at the departure. The picturesque Christus explained simply that the second-class passage was necessary because the tour of the Oberammergau Play, undertaken for the relief of war sufferers in their little village, had not been a financial success. The players had sold their wood carvings and pottery. The sum of $30,000 had been realized, but much of it had been expended in traveling expenses.

Irish Pilgrims Given Privileges By Pope

Dublin, May 5.—The Pope has informed Monsignor Hagan, Rector of the Irish College in Rome, that he will be with the Irish National Pilgrimage to Lourdes "in spiritu et in corde." His Holiness grants the following privileges to the Pilgrimage: The Apostolic Benediction on all pilgrims and associates. A plenary indulgence, on the usual conditions, to pilgrims and associates every day they receive Holy Communion, from September 29 to October 19.

A special memento in the Holy Father's Mass during those days. An extension to the associates of all the spiritual benefits and privileges, enjoyed by the actual pilgrims.

Fr. Klute, Jubilarian Of Youngstown, O., Is Felicitated by Bishop

Youngstown, O., May 16.—A cordial letter of congratulation from Bishop Joseph Schrembs has been received by the Rev. John W. Klute, for 41 years pastor of St. Joseph's Church, here, in honor of Father Klute's golden jubilee of priesthood.

"Fifty golden years of priestly labors in God's vineyard are indeed a rich and bountiful harvest," Bishop Schrembs wrote. "No man estimates the value of such life. The thousands of grateful souls whose lives have been cheered by Father Klute's kindly ministrations will speak their congratulations on this glorious day; thousands more who have reached the safe haven of eternal bliss will speak Father Klute's name before God's throne, and heaven's benediction will crown this day with glory."

Father Klute was born in Westphalia, Germany, in 1847. He was induced to come to the United States by Bishop Amadeus Rappe, first Bishop of Cleveland, who made an appeal to young priests to aid in the work of this diocese. Father Klute finished his studies for the priesthood in this diocese and was ordained by Bishop Richard Gilmore in 1874. He is the sole survivor of his class of six. He holds the rank of dean of Mahoning county, and is the oldest priest in the diocese of Cleveland. The jubilee celebration is to be pretentious.
