

Herriot's Minister Of Marine Puts Navy Chapel To Other Use

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Herriot's Minister Toulon, July 31.—The Minister of Marine of the Herriot Cabinet, M. Dumesnil, has taken a series of measures which show, once again, the difference in the sentiments animating the new administration from its predecessors as far as relation with the Catholic faith are concerned.

1200 Anniversary of Benedictine Abbey in Germany Observed

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) By Rev. Dr. Wilhelm Baron-Von Cappeln, Cologne, July 24.—One of the most interesting ceremonies in Germany in recent years will be held August 12-15, when the 1,200th anniversary of the former Benedictine abbey of Reichenau is observed.

Pope Benedict's Tribute In Marble To Card. Rampoliz

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Rome, July 25.—Within a few days the large marble statue of Cardinal Rampolla will leave the Vatican and through the munificence of Pope Benedict XV will be placed in the Temple of Cardinal Rampolla's Cardinalship, the Basilica of St. Cecilia, as a monument to him.

Catholic Architect Of Anglican Edifice Is Made A Knight

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) London, July 28.—The great Anglican Cathedral at Liverpool, designed by the noted Catholic architect Giles Gilbert Scott, was consecrated during the past week.

Macon Knights Plan Big Celebration of 20th Anniversary

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Macon, Ga., August 8.—Macon Knights of Columbus are carrying out plans for a twentieth anniversary celebration on September 18.

WEEKLY CALENDAR OF FEAST DAYS

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Sunday, August 17.—St. Liberatus and six monks, martyrs, gave up their lives for the Faith during the reign of Huneric, the Arian Vandal king. They were condemned to be put in an old boat and burned at sea but when it was found that all endeavors to kindle the fire were vain, their brains were beaten out with the oars and their bodies cast into the sea.

Notre Dame Graduates Largest Brothers' Class In History

Notre Dame, Ind., Aug. 5.—Seventeen Brothers of the Congregation of Holy Cross received their degrees this evening at the Summer School Commencement Exercises of the University of Notre Dame.

Fr. Kirsch Named Head Of Capuchin College

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Washington, August 5.—The Rev. Father Felix M. Kirsch, O. M. Cap, encouraging but when consideration was given to the amount of work to be done, the large number of schools

To Say Field Mass On Mountain Top

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Orrtanna, Pa., Aug. 8.—The old Jesuit Mission in the Blue Ridge mountains, eight miles from here, will hold its annual Field Mass on August 16.

Archbishop Canavin Publishes Pamphlet On Meaning of Mass

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Pittsburgh, Aug. 8.—Most Rev. Regis Canavin, Archbishop of Pittsburgh, who resigned from the Bishopric of Pittsburgh three years ago, is not idling his time in seclusion.

Blind Boy Enters Marquette to Take Course in Medicine

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 8.—Clifford Haymaker, a blind student who was valedictorian of the senior class at Washington High School here this year, will enter Marquette University to make a special course in medicine next fall.

Youngstown Charges Hospitals for Water

Columbus, Ohio, Aug. 7.—Hospitals and other charitable institutions of Youngstown must pay to the city $3,263.10 water rental under a ruling contained in findings filed by state examiners with State auditor Joseph Tracy.

Catholic Congress Session Transferred To Switzerland

Zug, Switzerland, July 22.—The Fourth International Catholic Congress will be held at Lugano, Switzerland, instead of Venice, Italy, the International Catholic League announced at its headquarters here today.

Nine Nuns Complete Work for Degrees At Summer Session

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 8.—Marquette university's most successful summer session, which had a total enrollment of 602, has come to an end with eleven students, nine of whom are finishing their required work toward their degrees.

Father Gasson Sent To Montreal College

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) New York, Aug. 6.—The Rev. Thomas J. Gasson, S. J., former Dean of the Graduate School at Loyola University, Washington, has been assigned to Loyola College, Montreal, where he will cooperate in a program made for Venice which will hold plans for the extension of Catholic university education among the English-speaking Catholics of Canada.

Banker Leaves $500 To Sisters of Poor

New York, Aug. 8.—The Little Sisters of the Poor of St. Francis are beneficiaries to the extent of $500 under the terms of the will of the late Elkan Naumburg, wealthy banker and patron of music.

Cleveland Children Raise Fund to Give Nun Trip To Ireland

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Cleveland, Aug. 8.—Sister Mary Lella, of the Ursuline community here, a teacher at St. Elizabeth's school attended by children almost entirely of Hungarian parentage has gone on a visit to Ireland to help in the observance of the golden jubilee of the entrance of her aunt into the same community.

Fr. Kirsch Named Head Of Capuchin College

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Washington, August 5.—The Rev. Father Felix M. Kirsch, O. M. Cap, encouraging but when consideration was given to the amount of work to be done, the large number of schools

Lourdes Bishop To Erect Statue To Bernadette

Lourdes, Aug. 1.—Mgr. Schoepfer, Bishop of Tarbes and Lourdes, has opened a subscription to erect a statue here to Bernadette Soubirous, the shepherdess to whom the Blessed Virgin appeared in the grotto of Massabielle.

Catholic Congress Session Transferred To Switzerland

Zug, Switzerland, July 22.—The Fourth International Catholic Congress will be held at Lugano, Switzerland, instead of Venice, Italy, the International Catholic League announced at its headquarters here today.

Father Gasson Sent To Montreal College

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) New York, Aug. 6.—The Rev. Thomas J. Gasson, S. J., former Dean of the Graduate School at Loyola University, Washington, has been assigned to Loyola College, Montreal, where he will cooperate in a program made for Venice which will hold plans for the extension of Catholic university education among the English-speaking Catholics of Canada.

Banker Leaves $500 To Sisters of Poor

New York, Aug. 8.—The Little Sisters of the Poor of St. Francis are beneficiaries to the extent of $500 under the terms of the will of the late Elkan Naumburg, wealthy banker and patron of music.

Cleveland Children Raise Fund to Give Nun Trip To Ireland

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Cleveland, Aug. 8.—Sister Mary Lella, of the Ursuline community here, a teacher at St. Elizabeth's school attended by children almost entirely of Hungarian parentage has gone on a visit to Ireland to help in the observance of the golden jubilee of the entrance of her aunt into the same community.