

One-Seventh of Scots Catholics; Msgr. Noll Finds; Church Thrives

By Rt. Rev. Msgr. John F. Noll

It may be surprising to the average Catholic to learn that the percentage of Catholics in Scotland is one-seventh as great as in England...

Probably in no other country are the school laws so fair to Catholics as in Scotland, where the Government not only supports religious schools...

Catholic Outlook Good

There is extensive emigration from Scotland, particularly into Canada, because there is not sufficient work for all in the cities...

Non-Catholic Organ Eulogizes Germany's Catholic Chancellor

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Cologne, Aug. 23.—Germany had one Catholic Chancellor in the days of the Empire—the Prince of Hohenlohe—and since the Republic came, Chancellors Fehrenbach, Wirth and Cuno have been Catholics...

The "Koelner Tageblatt," leading Cologne democratic organ, has just published an article entitled "Wilhelm Marx, a German Chancellor." It is interesting to read this non-Catholic paper's characterization of Dr. Marx. It deals with the Chancellor at the London conference, and says: "Marx's valor must be found in something higher, and we may seek for it in the fact that the Rhineland and Cologne claim him as their own..."

Metz Erects Statue To Virgin On Square In Heart Of City

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Metz, Aug. 28.—A statue of the Virgin, the offering of the whole city, was unveiled on the Feast of the Assumption on one of the principal squares in the center of the city of Metz in the course of an unforgettable ceremony...

The erection of a religious monument on a public square marks the fulfillment of a vow made during the war by the Bishop of Metz. Metz, a city threatened with a siege, a bombardment and, perhaps, destruction, he made a vow, in the name of the population, to the effect that if the episcopal city were spared, a statue would be erected to Our Lady, Protectress of Metz...

Metz, he said, "on the frontier of two warring nations, with its triple belt of fortresses, with all the roads and highways which it commands, was the pillar of the resistance of the German Empire. One might have affirmed that never would the French be able to enter it without frightful battles in the course of which houses, monuments and churches would be battered down and burned and the population decimated..."
