BEAUTIFUL FALL FLOWERS

The name Max stands for Flowers. Flowers for all seasons of the year. Just now the late summer and fall flowers are growing in profusion at the Max greenhouses.

The chrysanthemums are just now at their loveliest. They come in any shade that you may wish, pink, rose yellow white and lavender. These large and stately flowers always make a fine showing in a bouquet and are nice to send to the "ill." There are all the other flowers of this season too, that you can choose from and if you call them on the telephone they will quote you prices, etc.

This company will furnish short notice placards for funerals, pieces, also flowers for baptisms, confirmations, weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, etc. Have your center piece for Thanksgiving made up by Max. You will be sure to be pleased with it. Telephone Glenwood 715.

Production Of Coal Decreases

The reduction of 50 cents a ton in the price of domestic anthracite, which went into effect April 1st, had no appreciable effect on buying. In fact, production of anthracite this year up to August 9, was about 7,000,000 tons less than the production in the first seven months of last year.

The anthracite mining companies are producing, and hold in reserve, great quantities of coal. The Commissioner of Markets of New York City in a statement urging early buying says that there are 150,000 cars of coal on the tracks awaiting orders. Apparently householders are delaying their orders regardless of the fact that later in the year there will be a rush for deliveries resulting perhaps in delays and possibly in the buyer paying higher prices.

Although the supply is more than ample, it should be obvious to every one that transportation and distribution can not supply a demand that comes all at once. It is in such circumstances that consumers pay premiums for their coal although the mining companies do not raise prices.

Readers are urged to send their orders at once to The McGarvey Coal Company offices at Reynolds Arcade. Telephone Main 3841.

Psychologists report that an elephant, tried out for his reaction to music of an orchestra, almost laughed. It laughed, just possibly, at the fellow in the orchestra who thought he was doing some real trumpeting.

DAME FASHION DECREES!

The tunic is proving more attractive than ever. Dame Fashion herself could have hoped and so Cooper tells us that they can be made with little effort and great effect at his shop in East Avenue. Imagine if you will a Georgette in black with flaming poppies to be worn over a slip of black, or a tunic of beige with a design of pink roses! These things may be made of any of the prevailing materials crepe de chine, panne velvet, faille and other rich stuffs of silk.

Cooper is designing daily for the person who wishes to be exclusive, in white evening gowns. One which was of the ever popular lip and in georgette, one is made of evenly blue taffeta, a plain sleeve bodice portion and skirts deep circular ruffles. Nearly every person may suit their taste and style by letting Cooper design a gown just suited to them. Sport and utility wear is not forgotten and materials in the many lovely shades of brown and red are at hand ready to be cut into lovely creations. One of the gayest of the new abbreviated suit creations is richly embroidered, designed to offset melancholy days, and is at least twelve inches from the floor!

The New Motor Vehicle Law
Save Lives says the veteran motorist: On October first there went into effect throughout New York State the "New Motor Vehicle Law."

It has been put on the statute books to save lives, protect property and make motoring generally safe and sane—a pleasure and not a menace, a delight and not a terror. We know the law is fair and just. We are sure it will be fairly and squarely administered. We feel certain that it should materially increase the present appalling fatality of the highways—nearly 14,000 persons killed in New York State alone during the first eight months of 1924. This is something to think about.

As Commissioner Charles A. Harnett has so well said: "With proper administration of the law, plus the sincere co-operation of the public, there can be no question as to the success of our new venture. We are ready and anxious to do our part. It may be your wife, mother, child or other relative who will be offered on the altar of unsafe or careless motor vehicle operation tomorrow. Let us all unite in an effort to prevent that very thing happening."

At Fred J. Enders gas and service station, the best of gas and oil to keep your motor going smoothly can be obtained. A smooth running motor will help prevent accidents. "It Pleases Fred to Please You."
