Inspiring

It was a wonderful spectacle to look out last Sunday morning upon several thousand men in Convention Hall and, best of all, to reflect that each and every one of these men had, but a few minutes before, approached the altar and received Holy Communion in his own parish.

Thomas A. Killip

While he was unknown, practically outside of Monroe County, Thomas A. Killip exerted political influence outside this limited sphere.

Thomas A. Killip was a man. He has the honor to stand high out with those who knew him best. Many a man has received the approval of the multitude who in private had hardly a friend.

The University of Rochester enjoys the services of a fine body of government workers.

In Politics?

Writing in "Truth" about the bugaboo that the Catholic Church and the Pope seek to dominate the Government of the United States, Lloyd Keeler says: "Southern Presbyterian Missions Abroad" is the title of the yearly report of the "Executive Committee of Foreign Missions" for the Southern Presbyterian Church.

"Vanquished on the battlefield, the Church authorities have unconsciously plotted to undermine or control the popular government, embarking at every step, and bringing matters to this curious pass that while today over 95 per cent of the people call themselves Catholic, yet not one of the 312 members of the parliament is a Catholic, and few indeed are the members of the government who are not violently anti-Catholic."

Think of it! After all its "unconscious plotting," to come to this! Here on the same religious body of which we have been speaking hitherto, the sword and the cross, added to the splendid address of St. Bishop Hickey and Deputy Robin added whatever was needed to make the event one long to be remembered by every one present.

Catholics in Office

The other day an acquaintance, a non-Catholic, but not a Klansman, remarked, "The Klan charges that the Catholics, with about one-quarter or 25 per cent of the population, control 85 per cent of the elective officers, big and little, in the United States."

Our reply is (1) no, (2) the charge or assertion is not true Federal. A recent survey of the Departments in Washington, on this very line gives these illuminating figures: President and Executive officers—Not a Catholic in the Cabinet.

The National Catholic Welfare Council's news service is as accurate and complete in its line as the secular Associated Press.

A Protest

In 1915, when the Klan was not heard of, Rev. S. L. Postlethwait, a United Brethren preacher of Johnstown, Pa., was quoted as follows: "There is a class of Protestants who, though they would not adopt the policy of disfranchisement, are inclined to discredit the Catholic population. Their minds are full of suspicion, they are quick to credit any evil tale that may be told about the Catholics and to give it the widest currency. To me it is nauseating to note the eagerness with which some welcome and retail these stories. I am speaking now as one that is thoroughly Protestant and because Protestantism is debased and dishonored by such a controversy."

"Oh, my brethren, of all churches and denominations, what am I saying? To whom am I speaking? Am I speaking to men and women who believe in God the Father, who are known as the disciples of Christ? Must I speak with shameful face? I am standing here nineteen centuries after the angels sang peace and good will over the Judean hills, and I am trying to prove that religious people, those bearing the name of Jesus, can and should be friends. Alas! my God, has it come to this? If so, it certainly is time for us to put away every teacher who makes his appeal to prejudice and passion."

Refutation

While it may seem unnecessary to refer again to the "bogus Fourth Degree Oath" of the Knights of Columbus, nevertheless it is well to reproduce the facts in order that our readers may have them at hand for ready reference.

"Mottley Hewes Flint, 'Thirty-third Degree Past Grand Master of Masons of California, now Vice-President of the Los Angeles Trust & Savings Bank. 'Dana Reid Weller, Thirty-second Degree Past Grand Master of Masons of California, Los Angeles, 401 Union League Building. 'William Rhodes Hervey, 'Thirty-third Degree Past Grand Master of Masons of Scottish Rite Lodge, Judge Superior Court, Los Angeles. 'Samuel E. Burke, 'Thirty-third Degree Past Grand Master and Inspector of Masonic District, dentist, 1404 S. Vermont Ave., Los Angeles, Cal.'"

"I swear to support the Constitution of the United States. 'I pledge myself, as a Catholic citizen and a Knight of Columbus, to enlighten myself fully upon my duties as a citizen and to conscientiously perform such duties entirely in the interest of my country and regardless of all personal consequences. I pledge myself to do all in my power to preserve the integrity and purity of the ballot and to promote obedience and respect for law and order. I promise to practice my religion openly and consistently, but without ostentation, and to conduct myself in public affairs and in the exercise of public, virtue as to reflect nothing but credit upon our Holy Church, to the end that we may flourish and our country prosper to the greater honor and glory of God."

Kept Learning Alive

Canon Farrar, of the Episcopal Church, says in a lecture on "Christianity and the Race": "Consider what the Church did for education. Her ten thousand monasteries kept alive and transmitted that torch of learning which otherwise would have been extinguished long before. A religious education incomparably superior to the mere athleticism of the noble's hall, was extended to the meanest serf who wished it. This fact alone, by proclaiming the dignity of the individual, elevated the entire hopes and destiny of the race. The humanizing machinery of schools and universities, the civilizing propaganda of missionary zeal, were they not due to her? And more than this, her very existence was a living education. It showed that the excessive ages were not sporadic and accidental scenes, but were continuous and inherent acts in the one great drama. In Christendom the yearnings of the past were fulfilled; the direction of the future determined. In dim but magnificent procession, 'the giant forms of empires on their way to ruin' had each ceded to her their scepters, bequeathed to her their gifts. There was no cleft between Japan and Christian; no break between Jerusalem and Rome. The poetry, the patriotism, the tolerance of heathendom were incorporated with the holiness, the universality, the hopes of the True Faith. Life became one broad, rejoicing river whose tributaries, once severed, were now united, and whose majestic stream, without one break in its continuity, flowed on under the common sunlight from its source beneath the throne of God."

The go-getters after that $10,000 for the University of Rochester are optimistic and confident.

William Jennings Bryan and his brother Charles W. will not be so much in evidence for the next few months.

Northern Ireland's Parliamentary Unit Now All Protestant

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Dublin, Nov. 1.—The entire representation of the six counties of Northern Ireland in the British Parliament is now in the hands of the Protestants. Thirteen members in all are elected to the Parliament of Great Britain by the six counties. Practically the only opposition to the Orange nominees was that offered by the Republican Party. In Tyrone—Fermanagh, most of the Nationalists and Catholics abstained from voting. The total Republican vote was 6,812, whereas at the election a year ago the vote for the successful Nationalist candidate was more than 44,000. In these two counties, Catholics are in a majority. Already the Orangemen are misrepresenting the result of the election. They contend that the result shows that Catholics do not wish to be transferred from the jurisdiction of the Belfast Parliament to that of the Parliament of Dublin.

Santa Cruz Catholic Church Dynamited

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 12.—The facade of Santa Cruz Catholic church here was badly damaged and the front doors wrecked by an explosion of dynamite placed there by unknown persons. The Carmelite priests in charge of the church had just completed their vesper services and had retired to the convent in the rear of the church when the blast occurred. Local opinion inclines to the belief that the persons responsible for the outrage are the same as those who burned crosses on the hillside overlooking the town on the occasion of the installation of Bishop Gercke a few weeks ago. Two men were seen hurrying away from the vicinity just before the explosion, but police say they have no clues which might lead to the identity of the culprits.

Second-Hand Grid Games A La Mode

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 15.—When the redoubtable Marquette football team goes afield in quest of victories, the Marquette students body doesn't wait anxiously for bulletins or glue its ear to radio headsets. The Marquette Union, central student body, early in the year purchased a huge "grid-graph," on which divergent games may be visualized in detail. The graph is worked in the gymnasium, whether the student body goes to get its football second hand, but fresh, at that. Engineer For Christmas Monogram Stationery. Extra high quality.
