MAKING WEDDINGS

Make This A Practical Xmas.

Why not make this Christmas PRACTICAL CHRISTMAS? After all, it is the practical gifts that really count in the long run, and it is the practical gift that our friends will appreciate most. Why not give HER a good looking dress this Christmas, or a coat? The children also would love a new coat this Christmas, and you will be surprised, but they will enjoy it as much—if not more—than some toy.

At 599 Hudson Avenue you will find a very charming shop which caters exclusively to the smart women and to the Junior and small Miss. Mr. Keiner and his charming wife will help you select that practical gift, and if you want to find the very best we would suggest that you drop in and see them. The prices are nearly 50 per cent lower than in the downtown districts due to location, over-head, etc.

One of the very nice features of Mr. Keiner's shop is the fact that you can pick out your dress, coat, etc. and by paying a small deposit down Mr. Keiner will hold them until Christmas for you.

Just a word in regard to the coats which are especially attractive. Brown is one of the most pleasing colors, and it is a color that nearly everyone can wear.

The good-looking winter coats are trimmed with lovely soft Beaver fur, and also other kinds of fur. The line of sport coats is very complete, showing the new plaid materials being worn so much this season.
