A CHRISTMAS PHONE MESSAGE

By Jeanette Cadwalader
in Farm Journal

HELLO! Hello! What's the matter?
This old phone makes such a clatter!
Hurry Central, please be quick,
I want to speak to good Saint Nick.
Is this old Santa at this phone?
Now listen—are you all alone?
I want to whisper in your ear
So low that no one else can hear.
Did you ever get my letter?
(Phoning 'tho' is so much better.)
Dear Santa there's the sweetest gift
I want sent down the twenty-fifth.
Among your presents have you got
A teeny, weeny little tot
With golden hair and eyes of blue,
Who laughs and crows and says "coo-coo"
I'm so lonesome, dear old Santy,
Living with my old maid aunty
Who only has a cat to purr,
I want a baby girl for her.
You better send the smallest size
So I can hold her if she cries.
What color have you now in eyes?
They ought to match the bluest skies.
Is money ever scarce with you?
If not, then Santa please send two.
I'm almost sure that Aunt Van Aby
Will not let me hold her baby.
Come closer to the telephone—
Bring one for me—my very own!
Now Santa Claus what makes you laugh?
How old am I? Six and a half.
I'm plenty big enough all right
To hold a little baby tight.
You'll not forget to send me two—
The smallest kind, all pink and new?
Then I will love you till I die,
Dear Santa Claus—by-by, by-by.

Winter Fruit

By CHRISTOPHER G. HAZARD

(©, 1924, Western Newspaper Union)

ONE tree is filled with winter fruit,
And up among its boughs
Affection sings when birds are mute,
And love fulfills its vows.

The shining baubles on that tree
Its twinkling blossoms are,
Its gifts are very fair and free,
Surmounted by a star.

That star, still beaming, guides the wise
To all the loveliest things,
And those who to it turn their eyes
Are numbered with the kings.

May all the year be glad for this,
But most on Christmas Day,
May fruitage of the Christmas Tree
Warm all thy cold away!

Be Merry

By Katherine Edelman

LET shining holly deck the walls,
Let Christmas candles shine,
Let mistletoe hang high above,
In your house and in mine,
Hang up the stockings by the fire,
The big ones and the small
Let laughter ring, let children sing,
Be merry, one and all.

Funny Sprites for Tree

A funny sprite for the Christmas tree—looks as if he were dressed in a chrysanthemum. He stands guard over a little box whose contents are a sweet secret.

Wire wound with crepe paper makes his long arms and legs and supports his head of painted cardboard—and crepe paper provides his rakish cap and outstanding skirt. He will suggest other grotesque and amusing figures—to be made in the same way.

To Adorn Tea Table

Figured silk or bright cretonne and gay ribbon are used to cover and finish off this pretty tea cozy. Every hostess hopes one of these will be among her gifts of little housefurnishings—that Christmas time is relied upon to bring. They are easy to make—fashioned of two pieces joined at their curved edges.
