Lack of Employment In Ireland Offers Many Temptations

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, March 10.—In their moral stock-taking for the Lenten season the Irish Bishops reviewed nearly every interest and activity. As to the material outlook they were convinced that the leanest years were just ended and that as soon as the causes restraining trade in many countries were removed, Ireland would enter upon a period of prosperity.

Bishop MacNeely of Raphoe especially observed: "It is important to note that outside are not unwilling to risk their money in industrial and commercial enterprises in the Catholic portion of Ireland. It stands to sense that if Irishmen do not seize opportunities others will. And one more 'plantation' will be added, for better or worse, to Ireland's story—this time an industrial 'plantation.' The necessity for work, as one of the great correctives of temptation, was a point on which almost all the prelates enlarged. If business is at present insufficient to absorb all the energies of the young people, the authorities are, the Bishops considered, justified in stirring public work on a widespread scale, seeing that since 1914 very little reconstruction has been done in the country. Work is a guarantee of order and contentment.

Wild Rush For Pleasure

Passing from this subject the Bishops dealt with the "wild rush for pleasure." Dr. O'Donnell, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of All Ireland, declared: "Excessive amusement sometimes seems merely a venial fault—but it becomes wicked selfishness if it takes anyone from an appointed charge or wastes on constant play the life and energy that God gave us for constant work. Modern people are unduly bent on amusement and not sufficiently reconciled to steady uphill toil." In a natural sequence the hierarchy then commented on the craze for dancing—"an amusement which, once in a way, may be reasonable." It became a menace to the moral standard when it caused gatherings to continue till a very late hour. "Requiring the young dancers to return in the darkness, unaccompanied by parent or protector." Against such decay of parental control the Bishops entered a strong protest. Dr. Byrne, Archbishop of Dublin, emphasized the terrible responsibility of the proprietors of dance halls who failed to maintain due safeguards. That Sunday could primarily be "a day of rest and devotion" was a fact on which particular stress was laid by Dr. Downey, Coadjutor Bishop of Ossory. Many were making it more and more a day of pleasure and relaxation. They filled it with sport, which sometimes included diversions that profaned their national and religious instincts. Merely to hear Mass was not, in his view, due observance. A sermon should be listened to. Evening devotions should be attended. The mind should be turned towards Catholic things by an interval of Catholic reading.

Catholic Newspaper a Necessity

In regard to the question of Catholic reading, several of the Bishops remarked that the presence of Catholic publications was always a good sign of a Catholic home. They reminded their flocks of their duty towards the Catholic Press. Every Catholic adult was advised to buy at least one Catholic paper each week. "Parents", Bishop MacNeely stated "should include a Catholic weekly paper or magazine among the necessities of the household."

French Artists Construct Model Village Church

Paris, March 7.—Thanks to a subscription opened by a Catholic Review, the International Exposition of Decorative Arts, which is to open in Paris in April, will possess a "village church." This church, built in a new style, and by modern methods exclusively, will be the work of the Architect Drex. It will be in the form of a Greek cross, dominated by an open bell tower, the face of which will bear a carved figure of Christ, covering the full width of the belfry.

The four principal groups of Catholic Barlisan artists will share in the decoration and furnishing of the church. The left chapel will be furnished and decorated by the Catholiques des Beaux-Arts. The Ateliers d'Art Sacre, or Workshops of the Sacred Art, which are under the direction of the great painter Maurice Denis and Georges Desvallieres, will have charge of the central chapel. The right chapel will be assigned to the Artisans de l'Auteuil (Artisans of the Auteuil) and is to be moved, after the exposition closes, to a reconstructed church in the region of Solsons. The ceiling and the belfry will be decorated by the group of "L'Arche."

The work of private exhibitors will be grouped in the corners separating the chapels. The center of the church will be reserved for furniture, such as pews, seats, stalls, etc.

It is probable that Mass will be celebrated in this chapel.

Two Martyr Saints Honored in Rebuilt Carthage Coliseum

(N. C. W. C. News Service)

Carthage, March 10.—The work of the Franco-American expedition engaged in unearthing the ruins of this ancient Capital of the Rhomans paused for a time today while the seventeen hundred and twenty-second anniversary of the martyrdom of Sts. Perpetua and Felicitas was observed on the very site which witnessed their martyrdom. This year's celebration of the anniversary drew a crowd of more than 6,000 persons. The crowd included Bawa Prorok and the entire staff of the Prorok expedition as well as forty American pilgrims en route to Rome.

The amphitheater which had crumbled into ruins, has been rebuilt as a memorial to the two martyrs through the efforts of Father Delaire, Archbishop of Carthage, with the aid of funds given by W. F. Kemy of New York. In the center of the arena an altar has been erected. At today's celebration a group of 250 White Fathers and Sisters from the Carthage missions marched into the arena chanting the cry of the ancient gladiators: "Mortui! Saluamini!" The Vicar General of Tunis celebrated Mass on the altar which coincides almost exactly with what is believed to be the site of the martyrdom of the two Saints and stands in the shadow of Mount Boukroun where the ancient Carthage was carried on their inhuman sacrifices of infants to their god Moloch.

Free State's New Aliens Order

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, March 9.—Americans visiting Ireland will be liable to the rules of the Irish Free State's new Aliens Order. It declares, in effect, that foreign visitors over the age of sixteen who remain for more than two months in the country must, before the expiration of that time, either report their movements to the police or else give the address of some Irish citizen (such as a bank manager or hotelkeeper) from whom information as to their activities can be readily obtained.

For permanent residence in the country police registration will be imperative in every case.

To Protect Catholic Interests In Radio

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Utrecht, Holland, March 7.—With the consent of the ecclesiastical authorities Catholic radio amateurs in Holland are planning to form an association in order to protect Catholic interests in this field. The object is to make sure that the radio service will not be monopolized by persons of indolent or even anti-religious tendencies, and also to meet this new discovery as an agency for making true Catholic doctrines more generally known. It is hoped, eventually, to establish a Catholic broadcasting station.

Bishop Shahan May Be Home By Holy Week

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Washington, March 13.—Authorities at the Catholic University here have received a communication from the Rt. Rev. Bishop Thomas J. Shahan, Rector of the University, saying that he and the Rt. Rev. Hugh Edward A. Pace, Director of Studies, hope to return from Rome by Holy Week.

Bishop Shahan's letter adds that he and Monsignor Pace have been very warmly received in Rome and that the work for the university which they have taken up there is progressing satisfactorily.

First Altar For Shrine Crypt

Washington, March 13.—The first of the fifteen altars which are to be placed in the crypt of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception here, has arrived in Washington and is being put in place.

The altar is of North African onyx and is the gift of James Ryan of Philadelphia.

English Catholics Combat Communists

London, March 9.—To combat communist teaching which is rife in the North, three Catholic societies in Liverpool have joined hands in an anti-communist campaign. The Catholic Truth Society, the Catholic Social Guild and the Catholic Evangelical Guild have arranged a joint program of lectures to be given by their members throughout the area. An official of the Catholic Truth Society states that many Catholics of the poorer class have been persuaded into accepting communist doctrines. Communists, he says, are active in expounding their teachings to Catholics who are not well grounded in their religion.

Debarment Of Many Irish Immigrants For Alleged Heart Disease, Puzzles

Protest Made By N. C. W. C. Immigration Bureau Which Has Investigated Many Cases With Remarkable Results

New York, March 14.—A strange four-month's flood of heart cases has arisen in the case of brought in to the United States. There has been a sudden boom in the number certified as having physical defects, and in almost every instance the diagnosis has been "chronic cardiac" or heart disease.

The trouble rises when the cases go to Washington for review. There, basing its decisions on the diagnosis of the Secretary of Labor's Board of Review has repeatedly invoked the Immigration Law provision that any immigrant "likely to become a public charge" is not admissible. It is accordingly either deported or held in a demanding bond—often a hard thing for the new arrival to provide. The Bureau has persisted, despite any evidence submitted to prove the immigrant will be able to earn a living.

A strange phase is that most of those thus held likely to become public charges are strapping young fellows who gasp when told their ability to work regularly is questioned, protest they "never knew they had a heart", and testify they have never been sick and have always worked. One was a brawny young hooligan whose favorite sport was long-distance swimming. He was deported.

Another seemingly unaccountable fact is that Irish women in general encounter no such difficulties; there are virtually no debarments among them.

Becomes A By-Word

So numerous have the cases of the Irish men become that the phenomenon has become a by-word among immigration officials both here and in Washington. Recently a Jewish worker appearing in the immigrant's behalf laughingly remarked: "He must have caught it from some Irishman on the way over."

But it is no laughing matter to the Irish immigrant himself. Through the Board's interpretation numbers have been peremptorily clapped on board ship and sent back, their ambition to become American citizens shattered, to try to rebuild the homes they had disrupted to come; many have entered the new land under the shadow of $500 bonds—if they were fortunate enough to obtain them.

The N. C. W. C. Bureau of Immigration at Washington, which has taken up the plight of these starved young prospective "public charges," has done much for their relief. It has obtained entry for scores, arguing that it is ridiculous to say that these fit physical specimens are "likely to become public charges," presenting evidence of steady work previous to their leaving their homes, and of ready employment here; and above all obtaining bond that they will not become "public charges." In many cases it has been successful, although of late the Board of Review has, it says, several times even refused admission on bond when the decision was patently unjust.

Meantime, the Bureau has gone to the root of the trouble. Without hesitating an opinion as to the reason for the situation, it has come to the conclusion, as a result of a survey, that debarment of these Irish men on the ground that they are unlikely to be able to make a living in this country is unreasonable, inhuman, discriminatory, and unjust. It cites three points to bear out the conclusion:

First, it asks, why has there been this sudden rise in the number of the cases? In four years of its existence, handling all worthy cases it found, but only the worthy, the Bureau took up only 10 Irish heart cases. Now, in the brief space of four months it has been forced to take up 107. The number leaped from eight to 37 in one month. The Bureau's total of heart case appeals for all nationalities in four years was only 41; in four months the Irish proportionate, however, at has protested cases have run up to 145. As a matter of fact, the total number of physical defect cases of all kinds taken up for Irishmen in the four years period was only 21, but the Irish share.

As long as the Board pursued its first, or even its second policy, says the N. C. W. C. Bureau, there was a chance for the immigrant case to be decided justly. Under the present policy, however, it has protested that not only is great suffering brought about, but the United States is robbed of some of the best material for future citizens that comes to its shores.

Dick Whittington Story Fairy Tale Of The Sacred Heart

London, March 9.—The story of Dick Whittington and his cat is a fairy tale, said the Lord Mayor of London at a Catholic banquet in his honor.

Sir Alfred Bower apologized for robbing the public of one of its cherished allusions, and gave the facts.

Sir Richard Whittington, who served as Lord Mayor of London in 1397, was given the exclusive privilege of bringing coal to London, where up to that time, it had been forbidden to burn coal. In punishment of his trade Whittington had a fleet of boats, consisting of cutters, junks and cogs.

After Richard Whittington's death, the ballad singers sang of "Dick Whittington and his Cat." The term came to be misinterpreted. His "cat" was a boat, not the feline which figures in story-book pictures.

Novel "Help Wanted"

Paris, March 10.—As a result of the anti-Catholic attitude of the present administration, the following advertisement has been published in a French newspaper:

WANTED

From 2 to 500,000 persons without faith, without conviction, without religion to nurse the sick, to feed the aged and humiliated, to rear the orphans, to care for the insane and dress the wounds of incurables, etc.
