Celery au Jus.-Remove the tops from two bunches of celery, wash and trim and scrape. Cook in acidulated water, boiling five minutes, then drain. Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter, add three tablespoonfuls of flour and a cupful and a half of the celery liquor. Season with sait and pepper and a few drops of worcestershire sauce; add the celery and simmer thirty minutes. Arrange the celery in the center of a hot dish, strain the sauce over it and garnish with finely chopped red pepper.

Orange and Nut Bread .- Sift together five cupfuls of pastry flour, one cupful of graham flour, one teaspoonful of sait, six teaspoonfuls (level) of baking powder and one cupful of sugar; add one-balf cupful each of candied orange peel and pecan meats. chopped; mix well. Beat one egg and add with one cupful of milk to the first mixture. Turn into a buttered brick bread pan and bake forty minutes in a moderate oven. Serve as sandwiches with marmalade and tea.
