

In vain will you find missions and build schools, if you are not able to wield the offensive and defensive weapons of a loyal Catholic press.—Pope Pius X.

CATHOLIC JOURNAL

The Catholic Family Newspaper

35th Year, No. 40.

Established 1889

Rochester, N. Y., Friday, July 3, 1925.

N. C. W. C. News Service

Nun Meets Death As Bootleggers' Car Smashes Auto

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Washington, June 23.—The life of the "Angel of Providence" Sister Cephas Becker of Providence Hospital here, was ruthlessly crushed here Tuesday when a speeding bootlegger's car struck the automobile in which she was riding.

Sister Cephas, who was in charge of the marketing for the hospital, was on her way downtown to do the day's buying. With her in the hospital car was another nun, Sister Agnes, besides the chauffeur, Robert Ladson. Sister Agnes was virtually uninjured, but Ladson was seriously hurt.

The nun's car was proceeding at a leisurely rate toward the shopping district.

As it reached a corner, a big Packard auto, travelling at 60 miles an hour with its cut-out wide open, hurtled out of another street. Close behind it came a police car, giving chase.

There was a terrific crash as the racing Packard struck the Sisters' frail sedan. The smaller car was hurled up on the sidewalk, snapping off an iron lamppost as if it were a match stem.

Sister Cephas was catapulted through a plate glass side window to the sidewalk. The driver plunged through the windshield, while the other Sister suffered only bruises.

Father John C. Moore, of St. Peter's Church, nearby, heard the crash and rushed to the scene. He administered the last rites of the Church to Sister Cephas at the hospital, and she died with a smile on her face a moment later.

The driver, unconscious, was taken to Providence hospital. It is feared he suffered concussion of the brain.

A colored man and woman who were in the car which caused the accident were arrested. The policemen said they had chased the Packard for several blocks at breakneck speed, and that the woman had hurled far after far out of it. These facts the police say contained liquor.

Sister Cephas was 63 years old and had been on the staff of Providence hospital for 30 years. She was one of the best-loved nuns at the institution. She was a native of Baltimore, where she took the veil when a young girl in the order of Sisters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

London Paper's Slur On Irish Rescuers Is Promptly Refuted
(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Dublin, June 22.—In connection with the rescue of the crew of the American ship Reliant, off Donegal coast, when the exhausted men had been drifting helplessly for four days after the loss of their ship, a wild story was put in circulation by a London newspaper of strongly anti-Irish proclivities, asserting that when they landed the villagers would do nothing for them.

This has been completely refuted by precise inquiries. When the men drifted in the small boat were sighted, Captain Doherty of the trawler Orient Star, immediately went to their assistance and towed them to Bunbeg on the Donegal coastline, where they received untiring attention and kindness from Dr. Carr, the medical officer of Gweedore, and one of the principal local residents, Mr. Daniel Coll, as well as from the people and the local clergy. In the false account published it was implied that because some of the shipwrecked men were Protestants they got no comfort or aid!

French Town Erects Statue To Patroness Whose Aid Was Asked
(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Paris, June 17.—In 1918 the inhabitants of the town of Corbie, which lies just in front of Amiens, made a vow to erect a monumental statue to Saint Colette, patroness of the city, if they were spared from enemy occupation. The barrage was then raging only a few miles away.

The vow was answered. The city was damaged by bombardment but it was not invaded.

The people have faithfully kept their word. At the entrance to the city, on the side of the road, a large and beautiful statue has been erected by public subscription. It was unveiled recently in the presence of three bishops with magnificent ceremonies. The city was gaily decorated with blue and white flags and banners and the houses were hidden by draperies and garlands of leaves and flowers. Triumphant arches had been erected along the lines of procession of the historical pageant, which was one of the features of the celebration, while every where banners floated with the words "Glory to Saint Colette." Starting from the house in which Saint Colette was born, the procession of prelates and clergy passed through the city to the Collegiate. The pageant of the saint was delivered in the open, in front of the statue.

Popular Cartoonist Ordained Priest, Says First Mass

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

New York, June 25.—Joshua Witson Brady, for years one of the most popular cartoonists in America, said his first Mass as a Catholic priest here Sunday in the church of the Paulist Fathers, where fifteen years ago he was received into the Catholic faith. He was a convert from the Episcopal confession.

Father Brady in other years was widely known among newspaper men here, and scores of his former associates and friends were in the congregation Sunday.

Archbishop Dowling ordained the former artist to the priesthood in St. Paul, Minn., a week ago. St. Paul was his birth place, and it is there he will exercise his office.

Before he started studying for the priesthood, Father Brady drew a comic series called "Cross Wires" which ran in the New York "Evening Telegram" and the "Evening World." His baseball comics were syndicated, and he was a contributor to "Puck" and "Judge" and a staff cartoonist of "Life."

Father Brady's cartoons acquired much popularity in the World War, and were reproduced in French and English papers.

A brother of the new priest, the Rev. Charles H. Brady, is an Episcopal minister at Denver, and his step-father, the Rev. Dr. Robert W. Rhames, is rector of an Episcopal church in Kansas City.

Japanese Convert Priests To Found Religious Society

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Maryknoll, N. Y., June 22.—A newly ordained Japanese priest, Father Totusaka, has recently returned to Tokyo from Rome. He was a former pupil of the Marist Brothers at the Morning Star School and is the first of their pupils to become a priest. Father Totusaka was given a warm welcome when he returned to his Alma Mater. Before studying for the priesthood he had been a surgeon, and in his early years as a student at the Brothers' school, while yet a pagan, he took pleasure in throwing snowballs at a little statue of Saint Joseph, which was in a corner of the playground. He will now begin a foundation of a Catholic religious society which he hopes and believes will do much towards the conversion of his fellow-countrymen.

On June 6, another Japanese, Father Iwasaki, was ordained at the Cathedral of St. Mark in Venice. Father Iwasaki is the son of a prominent Japanese banker, and has been Professor of Philosophy in the preparatory department of the University of Kagoshima. He, too, is a convert and a former student of the Morning Star School.

Four More Priests Of Cleveland Diocese Become Monsignors

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Cleveland, June 23.—Advancement of four more priests of the Cleveland diocese to the rank of domestic prelate was announced on June 20 by Magr. Joseph F. Smith, vicar general. The newly honored are: Rev. Charles Boehm, pastor of St. Elizabeth's, Cleveland; Rev. M. J. Orzechowski, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Cleveland; Rev. John Klute, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Youngstown; Rev. N. J. Franche, chaplain at Villa Marie convent, Villa Marie, Pa. By a special arrangement made many years ago this institution is attached to the Cleveland diocese and many of the Sisters of the Humility of Mary, whose motherhouse it is, are engaged in work within its confines.

The number of domestic prelates now in the diocese of Cleveland numbers fifteen, the largest in its history.

New Bishop For Philippines

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Rome, June 25.—The Rt. Rev. Magr. Francisco S. Reyes, Vicar General of the Diocese of Nueva Caceres, Philippine Islands, has been elevated to the office of Bishop of Nueva Caceres; it has been announced here. The See of Nueva Caceres, Philippine Islands, has been vacant since the Rt. Rev. John J. MacGinley was brought from the islands to become the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. The transfer of Bishop MacGinley was announced in April, 1924.

Nueva Caceres diocese comprises the provinces of Camarines, Albay and Sorsogon, and the sub-province of Catanduanes and Masbate, with an area of 7,386 square miles. It has a Catholic population of 845,578, with 104 churches with resident priests.

Monsignor Reyes has served for many years as vicar general of the diocese.

Archbishop Mannix's Proposed Visit to Ireland Is Cause of Complication

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, June 23.—The intention of Archbishop Mannix to visit Ireland when he leaves Rome has given rise to a peculiar situation. On a former occasion when the Archbishop was expected in Ireland the Corporation of Dublin decided to present him with the Freedom of the City. Mr. Lloyd George's Cabinet, however, then prevented him from landing on Irish soil, and the proposed civic honor had to be postponed. That was during the height of the Anglo-Irish struggle. Since then the Dublin Corporation has been disavowed by the Free State authorities.

In view of Dr. Mannix's approaching visit, the men who constituted the Municipal Corporation before its dissolution, technically known as aldermen and councillors, recently assembled in the Dublin Mansion House and agreed to give effect to their resolution of a few years ago by conferring the Freedom on the Archbishop when he arrives. They therefore claimed that the Roll of Freeman and the ceremonial insignia should be handed to them for this purpose by the two Government Commissioners by whom the Municipality is now administered.

The Commissioners maintain that they themselves are legally the Municipal Corporation; and that as the Roll of Freeman can be signed only in the presence of that body, it is for them to take the initiative in extending the honor to any individual.

It will be recalled that on the dissolution of the Corporation Mr. Laurence O'Neill, the widely known Lord Mayor of Dublin, declined to surrender the symbols of his office to the Commissioners, and he has continued up to the present to occupy the Mansion House. In view of the present crisis, the Free State Government has publicly announced that his tenure as Lord Mayor ceased from the date of the order dissolving the Corporation. It is even hinted that his further occupation of the Mansion House will be disallowed.

The next step, as far as the members of the old Corporation are concerned, is awaited with much interest. In one quarter it has been suggested—though the course seems improbable—that they might prepare a special parchment on which the Archbishop could write his name as a Freeman of Dublin. Of course it has yet to be seen what the Archbishop himself has to say on the matter.

Before leaving Australia on his journey to Rome, Archbishop Mannix made a speech dealing with Irish affairs, in which he expressed his desire to see an Irish legislature unhampered by any oath of allegiance to an outside sovereign. He added that he did not propose to speak in Ireland on matters which the people themselves were quite competent to settle.

Father Fox Warns Against Accepting Bills On Their Names
Milwaukee, Wis., June 26.—"Give a bill or a movement a good name and thousands will endorse it without investigation," declared the Rev. Albert C. Fox, S. J., president of Marquette University, in a recent talk on "Reformers and Conformists" before the Marquette Women's League of Milwaukee.

The Maternity Bill, said the Marquette president, is an instance of a bill which has received support because it has a good name and not because it has been investigated and studied. The Child Labor Amendment is another, he added.

"Organizations of every kind urge their leadership upon us," declared Father Fox. "Never in the world's history has propaganda of all kinds been so rife. There is in Washington an organization known as the Women's Joint Congressional committee which has one of the most powerful lobbies in that city. It claims to represent 12,000,000 American women and undertakes to bring enormous pressure on congress.

Among the most influential women in this organization is Florence Kelley, a socialist, former president of the Intercollegiate Socialist League, and a member of other radical groups, who has declared that 'We are now organized with a thousand ramifications and have more interlocking directorates than business has.'

"Our women's organizations in America must come to realize more the responsibility of being led," Father Fox said. "They must hold those who assume to speak for them strictly to account."

Concordia Priests Receive Doctorates

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

St. Mary's, Kas., June 25.—At the annual commencement of St. Mary's College here, the Rev. John Henneberry, Chancellor of the Diocese of Concordia and Rector of the Cathedral, and the Rev. Arthur J. Luckey, president of the Diocesan School Board, were awarded the degree of LL.D. in recognition of eminent services in the field of letters and education.

Lightning Strikes New York Cathedral

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

New York, June 24.—Lightning struck the cross of St. Patrick's Cathedral this afternoon, during the most destructive storm of the year, tearing off the left arm, a section weighing several hundred pounds, which struck the sidewalk several times in its fall and broke into fragments when it reached the ground.

Other fragments, dislodged from the spiral fall of the roof of the main body of the cathedral, struck the Union Club, across the street, but none in the burning crowds of pedestrians on Fifth Avenue was struck.

Some 200 worshippers who were in the Cathedral when the bolt struck were badly scared, but all escaped injury.

Freethinkers in N. Y. Defeat Part Time Plan

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

White Plains, N. Y., June 22.—The Freethinkers' Society of New York this week won out in its effort to stop the use of school funds for religious instruction of public school pupils.

Supreme Court Justice Alfred S. Beasly granted a permanent injunction restraining the school board of White Plains from expending school funds for religious instruction.

Lawrence B. Shaw, of New York City, a member of the Freethinkers' Society, brought the injunction suit, and Justice Beasly, in his decision, declared that the use of school funds for religious instruction was unconstitutional.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

Catholic Priests To Open a Central Bureau in Chicago

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Chicago, June 23.—The Catholic Priests of Chicago are planning to open a central bureau in the city to coordinate their efforts in the struggle against the use of school funds for religious instruction.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The bureau will be headed by Father John J. MacGinley, who is the first bishop of the new Diocese of Monterey and Fresno. It will have as its main object the securing of similar decisions in other parts of the State.

A. O. H. Completes Arrangements For National Convention

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Atlantic City, N. J., June 26.—All arrangements have been completed for the great national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Ladies auxiliary to be held here July 22 to 26.

A solemn Pontifical Mass will be celebrated on the opening day of the convention after which the delegates will assemble for a four-day business session. The meeting will be held in the assembly hall of the Hotel Ambassador which is said to be the largest hotel in the world.

Present indications point to the largest gathering of Hibernians in the history of the Order. Special excursions from as far west as California, from Montana and Wyoming, and from Canada in the north have been arranged for the delegates and their friends.

The National Directors have completed their plans for nothing and marking by proper celebrations the outstanding events in American history in which men and women of Irish birth or ancestry have played so important a part. A calendar of events will be made by the Hibernians to preserve these records in their historical accuracy and thus to counteract the false and misleading propaganda now so widespread, the purpose of which is to distort and "color" American history.

The great Hibernian national pilgrimage to Rome for the Holy Year, which is scheduled to leave New York in two groups on August 14 and 15, is rapidly forming and is disclosed are that in largest gathering of Holy Year pilgrims to leave America above will go forth under the banner of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. It is expected that the Atlantic City meeting will add greater impetus to the pilgrimage and arrangements have been made for the booking of additional members during the week of which is to distort and "color" American history.

Ulster Paying Price Of Partition In Rise Of Communist Flood

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, June 23.—The consequences of Partition are being driven home upon the North East corner in the shape of unemployment, now the dominant problem of the Six-County Government. In the very small area of its jurisdiction there are close on 60,000 workers who are without a livelihood.

A number of the Belfast Parliament are beginning to speak with candid anxiety about it. "Discontent is rapidly growing in Belfast," Mr. Egan stated. "Professor Johnston put the case forcibly. 'I am afraid that this unemployment problem is not the temporary one which we expected, but is becoming a permanent one.'"

The Belfast Minister for Labor admitted the bleakness of the outlook. "The position cannot be solved except by a return of industrial prosperity, and by paying so I do not raise any false hopes."

The immediate outcome of this general misery is a rapid spread of extreme socialism, and in the city of Belfast alone there are now two largely attended communist schools, which have had to be officially recognized.

Steve Donoghue Aids Catholic Charity

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

London, June 23.—Steve Donoghue, the leading English jockey who rode the Derby winner, will take part in a "donkey derby" on July 1 at a garden party in aid of a Catholic charity. Other prominent jockeys will compete, also, on donkeys. Donoghue has given a silver challenge cup for the interesting contest.

To celebrate his success in the Derby "Steve" Donoghue this week gave a party for the 240 children of St. Mary's School, Warrington, which he attended as a boy.

Exchange of Priests With England

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

London, June 22.—Fr. Denis Lous, who worked some years in Texas until a breakdown in health compelled him to return to England, has taken up duties as chaplain to the convent at West Bridgford, in the Nottingham diocese.

A priest destined for San Francisco, Father Charles William Ashdown, has been ordained at Oscott College, Birmingham. This week he celebrated his first Mass at Tunbridge Wells where he served as an altar boy. Father Ashdown will go to the Pacific coast in September.

Freethinkers in N. Y. Defeat Part Time Plan

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

White Plains, N. Y., June 22.—The Freethinkers' Society of New York this week won out in its effort to stop the use of school funds for religious instruction of public school pupils.

Supreme Court Justice Alfred S. Beasly granted a permanent injunction restraining the school board of White Plains from expending school funds for religious instruction.

Lawrence B. Shaw, of New York City, a member of the Freethinkers' Society, brought the injunction suit, and Justice Beasly, in his decision, declared that the use of school funds for religious instruction was unconstitutional.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

The Freethinkers' Society, which is a non-sectarian organization, has been active in the struggle to prevent the use of school funds for religious instruction. It has succeeded in securing similar decisions in other parts of the State.

Freethinkers in N. Y. Defeat Part Time Plan

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

<