

If You're Pressed For Time

Ask the Lady next door about the GAS RANGE and what it means to her as a time-saver, then 'phone us and our representative will call immediately. He will tell you, and we will stand back of his statement, that the GAS RANGE is a time-saver in the work of the home, and that you need not keep it if it does not prove itself a time-saver.

Prices $36 Up

Phone Us

We will send for your order at any time to suit your convenience.

Rochester Gas & Electric Corporation

MAIN 3960

Most Popular Shrine of The Wonder-Worker of Padua In The New World.

"St. Anthony's Corner" in the Monastery Church of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement at Graymoor is undoubtedly the most popular center of devotion to the Wonder-Worker of Padua in America, reckoned not by the numbers of people from nearby actually visiting the shrine, for it is located not in the crowded city but on top of a retired mountain; but measured by the petitions sent by mail to the Friars to be presented to St. Anthony every Tuesday (St. Anthony's Special Day), when a fresh Novena starts, and since these Novenas constitute an endless chain, extending through the weeks, the months, and the years, the Graymoor Novena to St. Anthony is called a Perpetual Novena. We give below a few of the many thanksgivings received for favors obtained:

Mrs. W. Iowa: "Please find money order enclosed in thanksgiving to St. Anthony. I made a Novena that I would obtain an increase in salary, which I needed very badly. Thanks to St. Anthony, I received the increase prayed for."

Mrs. J. E.: "Enclosed find Ten Dollars for Masses in honor of St. Anthony. An employee had many thousands dollars worth of furs stolen from a delivery car. He promised an offering for Masses if St. Anthony would find them. He did get them back in a short time and he asks me to send this offering."

Mrs. J. G. H., Clarksburg, W. Va.: "Thanks to St. Anthony and Our Lady of the Atonement we have sold our property on favorable terms. So enclosed find ten dollars as an offering for this miracle rendered through his intercession."

The clients who have recourse to the Saint of Padua through this Shrine dwell in every part of the United States and Canada, and they number, thousands upon thousands. Hundreds upon hundreds of petitions are received from them every month concerning the favors they have obtained through the powerful intercession of St. Anthony. Those desiring to have their petitions entered in the Novena to St. Anthony beginning next Tuesday should address the same at once to:

ST. ANTHONY'S GRAYMOOR SHRINE
Box 310, Peekskill, N. Y.

Prominent St. Louis Priest Assigned To Webster Groves, Mo.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 13.—The Rev. Patrick J. Dooley, who for some years has been the pastor of the Church of the Sacred Heart, has been appointed by Archbishop Glennon to succeed the late Rev. P. J. Kane as the pastor of the Church of the Holy Redeemer at Webster Groves, a suburb of St. Louis. Mr. Dooley is manager of the Archdiocese's life insurance system, under which about $11,000,000 is being handled. Father Dooley was educated at Kenrick Seminary and at the American College in Rome, where he was ordained in 1907.

Historic Hall's Donor Is Honored At Campion

Prarie du Chien, Wis., Oct. 16.—Campion College here has just held ceremonies honoring John Lawler, its earliest benefactor. It was Mr. Lawler who in 1880 gave the Jesuit Fathers the building now known as Lawler Hall. It had been built in the late fifties as a hotel, and during the Civil War served as a hospital. It was in front of this structure that a procession of persons of all denominations was formed when news came of the assassination of President Lincoln and marched to St. Charles' Church, where Father Dooley presided. Today the building is the main activity of the home of the Campion Society. A Requiem Mass was said in the course of the ceremonies.

Schools To Combat Communism Opened By English Catholics

(By N. C. W. C. News Service). London, Oct. 12.—To combat the anti-Christian propaganda of the proletarian Sunday schools run by the communist party, evening classes for young men and women are being started at the Church of St. Thomas of Canterbury, Manchester.

In other northern cities similar action has been taken when communist activity begins to affect young Catholics, who are invited into anti-Christian meetings after attendance at harmless-looking dances and social gatherings.

Announcing the commencement of instructional classes in Christian doctrine, Father C. Diamond, of Manchester, condemned the attitude of present-day leaders of thought toward the basic truths of Christianity which resulted in the growing evil of birth-control and the weakening of the marriage tie.

Sterling High School To Be Dedicated By Bishops Next Sunday

Sterling, Ill., Oct. 14.—The new Community High School here, one of the most complete schools of its kind in a city of this size, erected at a cost of $150,000, will be dedicated on Sunday afternoon by the Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, D.D., Bishop of Rockford.

The principal address will be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Thomas J. Shahan, D.D., rector of the Catholic University of America and other prominent clergies and laymen will participate in the ceremonies. A banquet in the auditorium of the new building will follow.

Weekly Calendar Of Feast Days

Sunday, October 25.—Sts. Crispin and Crispinian, Martyrs, were missionaries who left Rome in the third century and went into Gaul to preach the Faith. After preaching at Soissons for many years and converting thousands by their words and example, the two missionaries were seized by the infidels and put to death after cruel torments about the year 287.

Monday, October 26.—St. Evaristus, Pope and Martyr, was elected to the Papal Throne to succeed St. Anacletus and governed the Church for nine years. It is to this Pope that some ascribe the institution of the order of Cardinal Priests because he first divided Rome into several titles or parishes, assigning a priest to each. He was buried near the Tomb of St. Peter.

Tuesday, October 27.—St. Frumentius, in his childhood while on a voyage to Ethiopia with his uncle was captured by barbarians who killed all the captives except the future saint and his brother, Frumentius was raised in the King's court and on the death of the monarch was given his freedom. At the request of the Queen, however, he remained at Court. He was ordained by St. Athanasius and later consecrated Bishop of the Ethiopians.

Wednesday, October 28.—Sts. Simon and Jude, Simon was a disciple of the Saviour and one of the pillars of the Church. St. Jude was a brother of St. James the Less; he preached in Mesopotamia and later he and St. Simon went together into Persia where they both received their crowns of martyrdom.

Thursday, October 29.—St. Narcissus, Bishop, became Bishop of Jerusalem in the latter part of the second century. One miracle ascribed to him is that of changing water into oil on Holy Saturday when the supply of oil had run out. Three enemies of the Saint accused him falsely and he withdrew into the desert. However, the enemies suffered the terrible penalties which they had called down upon themselves should their accusation prove untrue and Narcissus was called back to Jerusalem to resume his office.

Friday, October 30.—St. Marcellus, the Centurion, Martyr, was a captain in the Legion of Trajan who was imprisoned because he refused to take part in the impious celebration of the birthday of the Emperor Maximian Hercules. He was beheaded in the year 298.

Saturday, October 31.—St. Quintin, Martyr, was a descendant of a Roman Senatorial family. Inspired by zeal for the Faith he and St. Lucian of Beauvais went into Gaul where they preached the faith together until they reached Amiens. There they parted and Lucian went on to Beauvais. Quintin remained at Amiens seeking by his prayers to make the country Christian. He was seized by the pagans and after the most unusual and cruel tortures was beheaded in the year 287.

Eucharistic Congress Plans To Be Unfolded At N.C.C.W. Meeting

Washington, Oct. 16.—It was announced this week that there has been added to the program of the convention of the National Council of Catholic Women, to be held here November 15-18, an address on the coming Eucharistic Congress in Chicago, a subject in which the Council is intensely interested.

The Rt. Rev. Magr. Thomas V. Shannon of the Chicago Archdiocese has been specially delegated by Cardinal Mundelein and his organization to Washington and tell the Catholic women who will gather here from all parts of the country of the vast plans Chicago is making for his great event. He will speak at the Tuesday session of the convention.

Two considerations have especially intensified the interest of the N.C.C.W. in the Chicago congress. The first is the fact that the main theme selected for it, "The Christian Family," touches a fundamental point in the Council's program—preserving the ideals of the Catholic home. Since its inception the Council has centered much of its labors in this field. It was only in the last few weeks that it compiled for the N. C. W. C. a study club outline on "The Christian Family." The other consideration is the announcement, just made, that Chicago for the first time in the history of Eucharistic Congresses has arranged a special day of events for women.

Magr. Barry-Doyle Praises President's Address On Tolerance

Newark, N. J., Oct. 13.—Monsignor Barry-Doyle, famous war chaplain in the course of his Sunday sermon in St. Casimir's Catholic Church, here, referred to President Coolidge's remark on tolerance at the American Legion Convention in Omaha last week, as a message that should be read before Chamber of Commerce and in schools and by mothers to their children in the homes.

Why Should I Take You Back?

The Penitent
Gayety with all her thrills,
And the dance hall's whirling lure,
Far, far I've left behind,
They're sounding taps I'm sure.
The music it sounds different,
My friends are a scattered few.
Compared to spendthrift days,
When vamping me from you,
To chase the rainbow of pleasure,
Over the hills of delight,
Through the valley of sin,
Duty lost in the flight,
Blind to the follies of youth,
I never saw my way,
Oh, please take me back,
Amends to you I'll pay.

His Wife
Now you are old and broken,
Your mission in life is done,
No more will shine for you,
The gaudy butterfly who won,
From me your fickle love,
E're our honeymoon was o'er,
I'll not replace the Baby's smile,
The troubles brunt that bore,
When skies were not so blue,
I climbed the hill of care,
Without your helping hand,
To shield me from despair,
Why should I take you back,
Your son to manhood's grown,
Go reap the Dead Sea Harvest,
From the wild, wild oats sown.

Michael Woulfe O'Scanlan
Copyright, 1925.

Dean Thinks Anglican Delegates At Malines Incompetent To Speak

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) London, Oct. 13.—The Dean of Durham (Dr. Hensley Henson) declares that if the Anglican representatives at Malines are prepared to negotiate for reunion on the basis of the principles of the Council of Trent they are "totally incompetent to speak for the Church of England."

His protest follows the publication here of a statement attributed to Abbe Portal to the effect that the parties engaged in the Malines conferences had reached an agreement on the principles of the Council of Trent.

Bishop Henson, in a letter to the Times, says: "If it be the case that the representatives of the Church of England are prepared to negotiate with the Church of Rome on the basis of the principles of the Council of Trent, and that they agree to reduce the whole issue between the Churches to the single question how far the admitted supremacy of the Pope extends, then I submit that they are totally incompetent to speak for the Church of England, and are giving a wholly false impression of the Anglican position to those with whom they are conversing."

The accuracy of the summary of Abbe Portal's remarks reported by the press here is open to question. The Abbe, speaking at a congress in Brussels on "Union of the Churches," and referring to the Malines discussions is reported to have said: "The Anglicans recognized that the rights of the Pope were superior to those of Bishops, but they affirmed that the rights of the latter were of a divine nature."

Georgetown Foreign Service School Host To Many Statesmen

Washington, Oct. 18.—The Foreign Service School of Georgetown University, historic Jesuit institution here, had the honor of being host to many of the most prominent legislators of the world while the Interparliamentary Union was in session here. In turn the School attracted the intense interest of the delegates, who expressed themselves as astounded that in five years it has attained to such an international estate as to have eight foreign countries represented on its faculty and 22 countries among its student body, with graduates in 44 countries throughout the world.

Among the distinguished visitors at the Georgetown School were: Dr. Josef Karl Wirth, former Chancellor of Germany; Dr. Fernand Merin, president of the French delegation; Vladimir Nolloff, president of the Bulgarian group; Dr. Walter Schuecking, president of the German group; Carl Lindhagen, Mayor of Stockholm, Sweden; Gustav Gratz, former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Hungary; Antonius Pilp, Minister from Estonia; H. J. Procope, former Minister of Foreign Affairs of Finland; Luis Churion, president of the Venezuelan Chamber of Deputies; and Dr. Bronislas Dembinski, former Secretary of State of Poland.

The School was host at a formal luncheon at the Cosmos Club here in honor of the visiting statesmen and legislators, at which the Rev. Edmund A. Walsh, S.J., Regent; Dr. William F. Notz, Dean; Dr. Thomas H. Healy, Assistant Dean, and Dr. James Brown Scott, of the faculty, received the guests. Among the speakers were former Chancellor Wirth; Senator Thomas J. Walsh, of Montana; Dr. Merin; Dr. Pilp, former Minister Procope and members of the Georgetown faculty.

WEDDINGS

INCAVO—HERMAN.
The marriage of Miss Lillian E. Herman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Herman, and Philip A. Incavo, son of Samuel Incavo, took place Tuesday morning, October 18th, at 9 o'clock in Holy Redeemer Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. William Stauder, who also celebrated the nuptial high mass.

Miss Phoebe Incavo, sister of the bridegroom was bridesmaid and Maynard Herman, brother of the bride, was best man. The ushers were Dr. Joseph Incavo, brother of the bridegroom, and Francis Herman, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony a reception took place at the home of the bride, covers being laid for forty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Incavo will live at No. 3 St. Jacob street after a motor trip through the east.

WEGMAN—PFEFFER.
A pretty wedding took place on Tuesday morning, October 6th at Holy Rosary Church, when Miss Rosalia Pfeffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pfeffer, of Santee St., was united in marriage to Oscar B. Wegman, of Summerville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Arthur A. Hughes. The double ring service being used, after which a nuptial high mass was solemnized. Breakfast was served to the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Raymond VanDerbrook, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Oliver Wegman, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Walter Pfeffer, brother of the bride, and Albert Wegman, brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Wegman left on an extended motor trip to Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and New York, after which they will be at home, at No. 96 Kingsbury street.

HARVEY—WELCH.
The marriage of Miss Florence Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welch, and Walter H. Harvey, son of Walter J. Harvey, took place Monday, October 12th, at Immaculate Conception Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Joseph Cameron, who also celebrated a nuptial mass. The mass was sung by a trio composed of Dr. J. Dumont Stone, Charles Hawkins and Robert Hall.

Mrs. George Dodson, was matron of honor and Charles Gerstner was best man. The ushers were Arlington Doyle and James Welch, brother of the bride.

After the ceremony breakfast was served at Teal's.

After a western trip, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey will live in Monroe avenue, Brighton.

TAYLOR—CULLIGAN.
The marriage of Miss Gertrude Culligan, daughter of Mrs. Mary Culligan, of Centennial street, and Robert J. Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, of Lark street, took place Thursday morning, October 1st, at 9 o'clock in Holy Family Church. Rev. Joseph Gefell performed the ceremony. Miss Agnes Ritzenthaler and Miss Mildred Staub sang "Ave Maria."

The matron of honor was Mrs. James Cody, sister of the bride, and Miss Evelyn Taylor, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Ralph Oliver was best man. The ushers were James Cody and Patrick Farrell.

After the ceremony dinner was served to forty guests at the home of the bride.

After a motor trip through Canada and New York, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will live at No. 706 Maple street.

Loretto Circle Meets

The first fall meeting of Loretto Circle took place Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the Girls' Orphanage. The president, Mrs. W. F. Predmore, was hostess and assisting her were Mrs. N. J. Devereaux, Mrs. Charles Lockwood, Mrs. Arthur L. Maurer, Mrs. D. Byrne, Mrs. D. McCarthy, Mrs. E. D. Keenan and Mrs. P. J. Burke.

St. Xavier College Alumni May Join National Federation

Cincinnati, Oct. 16.—Members of the St. Xavier College Alumni Association are contemplating affiliation with the National Catholic Alumni Federation organized for the advancement of the ideals for which Catholic colleges are founded. Albert Wesselman has been delegated as the St. Xavier representative to investigate details of the national body.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK

Funeral services were held from the respective churches on dates given. May their souls rest in peace.

Fitzgerald—Mrs. Catherine T. Fitzgerald, wife of John J. Fitzgerald, died October 20, at St. Mary's Hospital. Funeral from St. Augustine's Church, October 23.

Kennedy—Daniel Kennedy of No. 150 State street, died October 20, at the Rochester General Hospital, aged 52 years. Funeral from Lady Chapel, St. Patrick's Cathedral, October 22.

Bach—Mrs. Ellen Bach, of No. 27 Peck street, died suddenly in this city, October 17. Funeral from Corpus Christi Church, October 20th.

Hoston—William H. Hoston died October 19, at his home, No. 645 Culver road. Funeral from Corpus Christi Church, October 22.

Kane—Jennie Kane died at her late home, No. 31 Braddock street, October 19. Funeral from Holy Cross Church, October 22.

Amo—Napoleon Amo died October 19, in this city. Funeral from Lady Chapel, St. Patrick's Cathedral, October 21.

Vetter—Oscar Frederick Vetter died October 19, at the home, No. 10 Thomas street, aged 55 years. Funeral from Holy Redeemer Church October 22.

Handwerker—Jacob Handwerker died October 18, aged 37 years. Funeral from St. Boniface Church, October 20.

Hochreiter—Mary Reichenberger Hochreiter, widow of John Hochreiter, died October 21 at the family residence, 197 Raeburn avenue, aged 68 years. Funeral from St. Peter and Paul's Church, October 24.

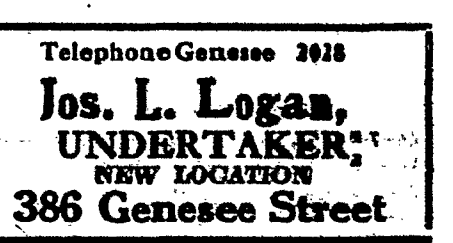

McGraw—Mrs. Mary McGraw, widow of Thomas McGraw, died October 21 at the family home, No. 426 Birt street. Funeral from Lady Chapel, St. Patrick's Cathedral, October 24.

Reichardt—Mrs. Otilie Lang Reichardt, who formerly made her home, with Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Melville, No. 42 Lansdale street, died October 22, at the Rochester General Hospital. Funeral from the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, October 24th.

Ryan & McIntee

R. LEO, MASTERS
Funeral Directors
New Location 207 Chestnut St.
Near Monroe Ave.
Store 1464

Our New Cunningham Limousine Casket Coach

THOMAS B. MOONEY'S SONS Funeral Directors 93 EDINBURGH ST.

Telephone Genesee 2018 Jos. L. Logan, UNDERTAKER, NEW LOCATION, 386 Genesee Street

Harry C. Hermance UNDERTAKER Phone Stone 1524 683 Main Street East Rochester, N. Y.

ESTABLISHED 1870 L. W. Maier's Sons UNDERTAKERS 870 Clinton Avenue N. Phone 461

C. F. SCHEUERMAN Funeral Director 820 BROWN STREET Genesee 423 Opposite Allen St. Genesee 4843 Residence, 159 Rugby Ave.

WE DO Book and Job Printing OF EVERY DESCRIPTION Catholic Journal Co. WHEN SELECTING A MONUMENT you should consult a concern in whom you have confidence. Just the same as you would an architect to supervise the building of your home. We feel that we are deserving of your confidence having built a great number of monuments during the years we have been in business here.

T. H. MARRION & CO. 476 State St. Main 7522