Don't Let That Cold Get The Better Of You

Take Father John's Medicine Promptly

If that persistent cough or cold is fastened on you at this season of the year it may lead to serious results. Your doctor would tell you that the soothing, healing elements in Father John's Medicine are exactly what he would prescribe for such a condition.

The value of Father John's Medicine has been proven by more than seventy years of success. It soothes and heals the breathing passages and, because of the nourishing food elements it contains, helps to rebuild wasted tissue and gives new strength with which to rebuild health. Get rid of that cold or cough now, before it is too late.

Your Druggist can get Father John's Medicine for you if he does not have it in stock, or we will send a large size bottle by express prepaid if you send your order with $1.20 to Father John's Medicine, Lowell, Mass.

Bookkeeping And Accounting—Evening Classes
Tuesday, Oct. 27, is the day we start a special group of Evening Classes to meet the ever increasing demand for training in business which the Darrow School of Business offers. Educators and business men recognize the superiority of Darrow training. These additional classes are organized to provide the same careful personal attention which is one of the outstanding, recognized features of our school, 218 East Ave. Stone 1974.—Adv.

Bishop Urges Payment Of Aquinas Pledges

The following pastoral letter was read in all the churches of the county last Sunday:

Two years ago an appeal was made to the Catholics of Monroe county in this diocese in the cause of Catholic higher education and response that was given established a memorable record of zeal and loyalty on the part of priests and people. The number of subscribers who participated in that notable event was well into the thousands, and the spirit of interest and good will that was manifested on all sides helped to make the big undertaking pleasant and successful.

It was definitely stated then that a period of two years would be allowed for payment of pledges, and to the end that the list of subscribers might be as large as possible. We are now within a few weeks of the expiration of this term of two years and it is our plan to bring this big movement to a fitting termination in a way that will reflect the dignity of the cause, and regard for the school that stands as an evidence of deep faith and generous loyalty. Many people have already seen the Aquinas Institute in Dewey avenue, but we wish all our people to see it and to witness the application of the funds given by them to Catholic higher education. It is indeed a reason for deep joy and gratitude that we have in this new building a structure that challenges admiration in its appointments, and that in the very first month of its first year 846 boys are receiving a training under a well organized faculty of 40 teachers. This institution is young but the spirit that permeates its work promises well for the future.

Asks Fulfillment.
And now that the school is well under way, it is reasonable to ask for a fulfillment of the pledges made for the cause. We promised an institution that would provide properly and well for our boys; that promise has been kept; may we not ask that all who promised to aid in the work will now fulfill their part? We have never doubted the sincerity of the subscriptions to the Aquinas Institute and we plan now to bring together the organization of parishes that made so splendid a record individually and collectively two years ago, and by a well directed course of action to close up the campaign by a final payment of pledges so cheerfully made to the Aquinas Institute.

To this end we request first of all that the pastors and members of the Executive committee of the parishes in this county meet the bishop at the Aquinas Institute next Monday, evening, Oct. 26, at 8 o'clock. At that meeting plans will be discussed and drawn up for the period of payment which will begin on Friday evening, Nov. 13, and close on Monday evening, Nov. 23d. One month remains for reaching the desired goal and while there is ample time for doing the work well, it will be necessary for every parish to take up the work earnestly and thoroughly that we may close the Aquinas Institute campaign with honor, and also obtain the desired result. And it is well to note here that while a widespread canvass was made two years ago there is no doubt but that the parish committees will find today in the respective parishes many who had not subscribed and who would be glad to do so at this time. Some perhaps were not seen or felt that they could not afford to take part while in other instances families and individuals will be found who during the past two years have moved into the country.

But let us all remember that no matter how well we may plan or how hard we may work we must look to God whose in honor the school has been built, to bless and aid our efforts. For this reason we are asking our people to join in prayer during the next four weeks for this special intention, and we are recommending a practice in the devotion to Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, to Our Blessed Lady in the recitation of the rosary, and of prayers for the souls in purgatory. We leave the arrangements for these devotions to the pastors who will plan to provide in the respective parishes for bringing the matter to the notice of their people and to afford facilities for the presence of them. Let us all do a generous part in prayer by offering up or assisting at the holy mass, receiving holy communion, visits to the Blessed Sacrament, recitations of at least a part of the rosary, and by prayers for the dead. The undertaking before us is important and although of some magnitude, it can be performed successfully by God's blessing and with united efforts on the part of all the parishes.

I can understand that every parish will wish to report at the close that its subscribers have met their obligations. Indeed, it would be a reflection that we could well afford to meet it in any instance there was a failure to this worthy cause. I do not expect this to happen and to strengthen us keep faith with what has been pledged against such a condition we are to seek God's help and on our part to present a solid front enthusiastically to the end. We have provided for one of the urgent needs of our day: we want the people to come and see the school and to know that what is done for our boys at the Aquinas Institute is worthy of their best support.

From time to time we will make an announcement of interest, but our appeal today is to bring into action the representatives of the parishes that we may formulate without delay the plans which will be required to carry to a close the campaign for Catholic education as reflected in the Aquinas Institute of Rochester.

In conclusion I beg to announce that the new building will be open for inspection on the first three Sundays of November—the 1st, 8th and 15th, from 1 o'clock to 9 o'clock p. m., and that we cordially invite our people to come and see the institution that is now a part of the Catholic education system in Rochester.

You will, dear Reverend Father, read this letter to your congregation on Sunday, October 25th, and announce your program for participation in the final part of the campaign.

With deepest gratitude to God, and with warmest thanks to priests and people.

Bishop Hickey Dedicates New Church Of St. Theodore

The Rt. Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, bishop of Rochester diocese, officiated Sunday morning at the blessing of the new St. Theodore's Church, parochial school and rectory in Lyell road.

Bishop Hickey was assisted by the Rev. William M. Hart, master of ceremonies; the Rev. David Balser, who celebrated mass; the Rev. Joseph Balser, subdeacon. The Rev. John M. Petter of St. Bernard's Seminary directed the singing. In the sanctuary were the Rev. E. J. Wirth, D. D., the Rev. George Weismann and the Rev. Peter Erras. After the ceremonies the Rev. John Balser, rector of the new parish, entertained Bishop Hickey and other members of the clergy at dinner in the new rectory.

The parish was formed about a year ago and mass was celebrated in an old dwelling house. Early in July the cornerstone of the building was laid and the work progressed rapidly until the building is now ready for immediate use.

The structure which was designed by Frank Frey, architect, was erected at a cost of approximately $30,000, on a five-acre plot of ground. It is a new type of plan combining chapel and school. This is the youngest Roman Catholic church in the diocese.

Editor To Give Lecture

Under the patronage of a group of prominent Catholic women, Michael Williams, editor of The Common Weal, will speak at the Powers Hotel, at 8 o'clock Friday evening, November 6th, on "The Intellectual Expression of Catholicism."

Mr. Williams is known in literary circles as the author of a number of books and essays as well as the editor of the leading Catholic weekly, devoted to a survey of art, science and letters and current events, he is also chairman of the Calverts Association, an organization to perpetuate interest in the work of the Catholic and Episcopal settlers in Maryland in the idea of promoting the practice of religious liberty in America.

Among the patronesses for the lecture are: Mrs. Richard T. Ford, Miss Cecilia Yawman, Miss Corinne Mahon, Mrs. John J. McInerney, Mrs. James M. El-O'Grady, Mrs. Beekman Little, Mrs. Mary O'Hare, Mrs. William Dake, Mrs. Bernard Dunn, Mrs. Eugene Dwyer, Mrs. Charles Ward, Mrs. J. A. St. Ambrose Bazaar Now In Progress

The fourth annual bazaar of St. Ambrose Church opened Wednesday night by Mayor C. D. VanZandt, who was accompanied to the hall by Comptroller Joseph C. Wilson, District Attorney William F. Love and other Republican candidates. Leroy E. Snyder, Democratic nominee for mayor, accompanied by other candidates, also visited the fair and made addresses.

Friday evening, Justice Isaac Burch, accompanied by the Town Board of Irondequoit, held court on the steps in the hall, and any person suspected of either refusing or neglecting to participate in the various booths was "arrested."

Saturday night is Everybody's night, when the main feature will be the awarding of a trip to Paris and return.

The bazaar is under the general direction of Rev. W. B. McCarthy and E. Stauder as general chairman, assisted by Anthony Macneil, Thomas Sercu, Harvey Holmes, Leonard A. Kelly, George N. Sisk, Thomas Heberle, Frank I. Gores, Frank L. Hemple, H. Bradley Carroll, Mrs. Walter L. Taylor, Dr. Charles I. Maggie, Arthur Heffner, Frank Gardner and Fred Eichner.

Chairman of various booths are: J. Emmett O'Brien, Mrs. J. S. McHugh, Mrs. Francis Clary, Carl Walker, Mrs. John Gysel, Mrs. Rhodes, John Kane, Frank Winter, Fred Eichner.

Mt. Carmel Church Bazaar Opened By Mayor

The Mt. Carmel Church Bazaar opened Monday evening in the school hall, 53 Ontario street. The bazaar was formally opened by Mayor Clarence D. VanZandt. Following the opening address by the Mayor, District Attorney William F. Love and Comptroller Joseph C. Wilson made short addresses. Rev. Walter A. Fogarty, pastor of the church, introduced the speakers.

The candy and doll booths as well as the fish pond, were in charge of the Young Ladies' Sodality, while the blankets, variety and refreshment booths were in charge of the Young Men's Club.

Charles M. Dispenza was general chairman of the bazaar.

SS. Peter and Paul

A letter from Bishop Thomas F. Hickey was read at the masses on last Sunday by Rev. John Bohmwith, announcing the campaign for the close of subscriptions for the Aquinas Institute made two years ago.

At the request of the Holy Name Society a requiem mass was said on Monday morning for Bernard McCaverty.

School collection will be taken up at all the masses Sunday. The monthly meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 44, Knights of St. John will take place on Monday evening. This will be a very important meeting as the nomination of officers for 1926 will be held. Lunch will be served after the meeting.

Thursday evening, November 5th will be the date for the meeting of Branch 62, L. C. B. A. The October assessment will expire on that evening, so kindly take notice and attend.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Reichenberger Hochreiter who died at the family residence, No. 197 Rarberburn avenue, on Wednesday, took place, Saturday morning at 9:30 from the home and at 9 o'clock from the church. Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. T. E. Gelfell with Rev. Arthur Florack acting as deacon, and Rev. John Bohmwith as subdeacon. The children's choir sang the mass under the direction of Professor Weber. Burial was made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery. Rev. John Hogan gave the final blessing at the grave. Mrs. Hochreiter was a member of Branch 62, L. C. B. A., and the Rosary Society of this church.

The funeral of Charles Gilbert who died on last Friday at the family home, No. 216 Silver street, was held on Monday morning at 9:30 from the home and at 9 o'clock from the church. Burial was made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Church Will Hold First Card Party Friday, November 6

The first card party of the season for members of St. Patrick's Cathedral, will be held in Cathedral Hall in Frank street, Friday evening, November 6. Arrangements are in the charge of Rev. Charles F. Shanahan, pastor of the church, and a special committee. Present plans are for an elaborate entertainment program. Pedro, 500, and pinocchle will be played, with special prizes for each game. The parties, which are conducted each year during the winter months by the congregation, have proved exceptionally popular in the past and it is planned to make them even more attractive this year.
