St. Anthony's Bread

For centuries St. Anthony of Padua has proven himself the Friend of the Poor the world over. We often hear it said that "God helps those that help themselves". To a certain degree this is true but oftentimes the saying is used as a cloak for selfishness and as an excuse for not helping those who really are not in a position to help themselves.

St. Anthony, as the champion and friend of the needy, serves notice up on his Clients that if they would employ him as their heavenly advocate they must pay him a fee in the form of Bread for his poor. In a word St. Anthony helps those who help the poor.

The Friars of the Atonement gave lodging and food to an average of forty poor men every day during 1924, or a grand total of forty-three thousand meals during the course of the year. It was St. Anthony who sold every cent of the huge cost by the fees he induced his Clients to pay in the form of thank offerings for favors they received through the medium of the Perpetual Novena to St. Anthony conducted by the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement at Graymoor. Moreover the Graymoor Friars set aside ten percent of what is given to them as St. Anthony's Bread to feed the poor and needy beyond the boundaries of Graymoor.

That St. Anthony helps those who promise to help him feed and lodge his Graymoor dependents witness the following testimonials:

J. K. O'B. Los Angeles, Calif.: "Herewith find check for recent success in some ventures."

C. A. F., Bronx, N. Y. C.: "I wish to advise you that I have received an increase in my salary, and as my promise to St. Anthony, I herewith enclose my offering."

M. O. D., New York: "Please find enclosed offering promised to St. Anthony for getting my husband the position he wanted."

E. M. K., Hackensack, N. J.: "I wish to acknowledge with gratitude my answer to petition made to St. Anthony in the last Novena. For a number of years money invested returned nothing but uncertainty and new expenses. I prayed that through the intercession of St. Anthony we would be cleared of debt by May 1, and although the prospects were not at all certain, still, on the evening of May 1 papers were signed that cleared us of all debt and put a few dollars in the bank."

Mrs. A. H. K., Tulsa, Okla.: "Am sending an offering for Bread as a thank offering to St. Anthony for finding lost articles."

Miss D. K., Cin., Ohio: "One night I went out and I lost my door key. I had no place to go and if it was not found I expected I would have to stay on the back porch of the house until morning. I looked everywhere and I could not find the key. Coming home I discovered I had lost the key. I went into a drug store and in a few minutes a passer-by brought in a key which had just been found on the sidewalk and it was my missing key. I send offering for St. Anthony's Bread."

Mrs. J. U. U., New York City: "I recently lost my muff at a railway station and promised St. Anthony an offering if it was found. I am glad to say that I got it back again and enclose my check herewith."

Address all petitions to St. Anthony's Novena, Friars of the Atonement, Graymoor, Garrison, N. Y.—Adv.

Weekly Calendar Of Feast Days

Sunday, November 1.—All Saints. Day by day the Church pays special veneration to some of the holy men and women who have helped to spread the Faith by their labors and sufferings. But in addition to those whom the Church honors by special designation or has inscribed on her calendar there are many other martyrs, holy virgins, anchorites and penitents besides innumerable young children snatched away from the world in their innocence. To honor all these the Feast of All Saints has been designated.

Monday, November 2.—All Souls. St. Odillo, Abbot of Cluny, toward the end of the tenth century, was inspired by the Saviour to establish in his Order a general commemoration for all of the faithful departed. This was soon adopted by the whole of the Western Church and has been continued unceasingly up to the present day.

Tuesday, November 3.—St. Hubert, Bishop. The early life of this Saint is obscured by popular tradition. It is said that at one time he was passionately devoted to hunting and was entirely taken up with worldly pursuits. Moved by divine grace, however, he renounced the world and was ordained by St. Lambert, Bishop of Maestricht. He succeeded the latter in his See when St. Lambert was murdered in 681.

Wednesday, November 4.—St. Charles Borromeo, was created a Cardinal in the year 1560 when he was only twenty-two years old. He assisted his uncle Pope Pius IV in the administration of the affairs of the Holy See. He was responsible to a considerable extent for the success of the Council of Trent and for the effective administration of that Council's Decrees. When Archbishop of Milan he remained in that city throughout a great plague constantly risking his own life to attend the sick and the dying.

Thursday, November 5.—St. Berthille, Abbot. When a young girl learned to despise the world and sought to give it up. Entering a convent at Jouarre she became noted for her extreme humility and was chosen prioress. Later she became first abbess of the Abbey of Chelles which she governed for forty-six years with vigor and discretion. She died in 692.

Friday, November 6.—St. Leonard, was one of the officials at the Court of Clovis, King of the Franks. Leonard, moved by the example of St. Remigius, relinquished his honors in order to lead a more perfect life. He sought to spread Christianity among those of the Franks who were still pagans and lived in solitude to avoid being called to Court because of his reputation for sanctity. He died about 550.

Saturday, November 7.—St. Willibrod, was a native of Northumbria, born in 657. When he was twenty years old he went to Ireland to study under St. Egbert and twelve years later, after going to Rome and receiving the Papal Blessing, he went to Utrecht and began to preach to the pagan tribes. At the request of Pepin Heristal he was consecrated Bishop of Utrecht and as a Bishop he labored for fifty years, converting thousands, building many churches and exercising the gift of miracles.
