

AT "FORTY HOURS" IN CHINA

PRAYING FOR THE BENEFACTOR

Whose GENEROSITY made this scene possible. The opportunity of gaining similar prayers is yours, for this is the ONLY CHAPEL in the whole future vicariate of Wuchow, Kwangsi, China, a district as large as New Jersey. Of its 2,000,000 people only 150 are Catholics.

A neighboring priest could not reserve the Blessed Sacrament for 25 years for lack of a decent chapel.

TWENTY AMERICAN PRIESTS will soon be laboring in this field and they need your help.

The cost of a CHAPEL with school attached is $2,000 to $5,000 part of the funds being used to support the catechist-teacher. Or you may contribute to one of the following: Lady of Lourdes, St. Anthony, St. Ann, St. Rita, St. Margaret Mary, Little Flower.

Payment may be in installments. Traveling largely on foot through this immense district, often going forty miles on a sick call, our priests must now stay in Chinese houses, which are like cellars, with scarcely a window. They sleep on planks laid on carpenters' horses.

The cost to FOUND A PARISH with church, school, and decent residence for the missionaries is $10,000.

Few works will have more momentous after effects, because these parishes will become CENTERS OF CATHOLIC LIFE, where today there may not be a single Catholic. It would be difficult to conceive of any other MEMORIAL for yourself or your loved ones, all of whom will be remembered at the Masses said in the church.

If you wish to give, but feel you NEED THE INCOME during life, ask about Maryknoll annuities.

Small amounts gratefully received; donor of $500 or more will receive certificate to frame.

V. Rev. Bernard F. Meyer, Vicar-General of Wuchow. (Present Address) Box M 474 MARYKNOLL, N. Y. P. S.—On the map, Wuchow (Wuchay) will be found located in Southern China near Latitude 24 North and Longitude 111 East.

Former Chancellor And Centrist Leader, Dr. Fehrenbach, Dead

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Freiburg, Germany, March 29.—Constantin Fehrenbach, former Chancellor of the German Republic and veteran leader of the Catholic Center party, died here Friday at the age of 74, of pneumonia. The Centerists thus lose one of their greatest parliamentarians and spokesmen.

Dr. Fehrenbach, a prominent figure in German politics since 1918, had rendered invaluable service to the German Republic in some of its most trying times. He also had held many of its highest posts of honor.

Born in 1852 in the Black Forest, first took up the study of theology with the intention of entering the priesthood, but later turned to law. He began his political life at Freiburg in 1882, identifying himself with the Center party, in which he took a keen interest. In 1885 he entered the Baden provincial assembly and in 1907 was chosen president of that body. In 1903 he was elected to the Reichstag and had been a member since that time.

In 1918 that he was chosen president of the Reichstag. Here and as ex-president of the National Assembly, he made a brilliant record as a parliamentarian in some of the most difficult times of the country. He particularly won the respect of all his impartiality.

In 1920 he became Chancellor of the public just at the time the conference was about to be held when Germany met her former enemies in council for the first time after the war. Later in the same year, however, the Allies presented their ultimatum at the London conference, and in the middle of 1921 Fehrenbach resigned, leaving the chancellorship to Dr. Wirth, also a Center leader. He continued an influential figure in the Reichstag, however, and when Dr. Marx became Chancellor in 1923, assumed the leadership of the Center party. In that capacity he had continued to render valuable service.

Memphis Dominican Sisters' Jubilee

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Memphis, April 1.—Sisters of St. Dominic will observe the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Agnes' Academy here on April 25, 26 and 27, it has been announced. In connection with the jubilee they have prepared a splendid history of the institution which links it with the growth of this city.

The six Dominican Sisters who established the school in St. Peter's Parish arrived in Memphis on January 1, 1851 and opened their school in the spring of that year. The next year it was chartered by the State of Tennessee. In the fall of 1861 the sisters of St. Agnes' took charge of the city hospital and when General W. T. Sherman took command of the city in 1862 he pitched his tents on the grounds of the school, just east of the convent.

French Protestant Found Catholics In America Liberal

Paris, March 22.—A French Protestant, M. Andre Seifried, has given at the Social Musee a series of conferences in which he dealt with observations he made while on a recent tour of studies in North America. He was led to remark, he said, certain distinctive characteristics of the two chief Christian groups in the United States. According to M. Seifried, Protestantism, in that country, is national, conservative and aristocratic, while Catholicism, professed chiefly by those who have come from Europe, in general is liberal, social and progressive. This is the impression registered upon an eminent Protestant.

Hostility To Aliens Protested At Hearing By N.C.W.C. Witness

Washington, April 2.—Subjecting aliens to "a summary procedure even more pronounced than that now in vogue", a tendency charged to the Holaday Bill, was protested by William F. Montavon of the N. C. W. C. at the hearing held on the measure by the House Immigration Committee. Mr. Montavon took occasion in his testimony to criticize the lack of "official sympathy" toward the alien.

"There seems to be growing up a spirit of hostility and antagonism to the alien, a purpose to harass the alien into citizenship, and not a desire to convert him from an alien into a real, useful American man", he asserted. "We need more of the missionary spirit and less of the police power in the administration of our alien problem. We are spending millions for deportation of undesirable. We are doing little to assist the alien who is not undesirable to accommodate himself and become adjusted among us."

Mr. Montavon declared that a solution of the alien problem is necessary not only in the interests of the alien, but in the interests of the country itself and that sympathy must be the attitude assumed. He informed the committee that the N. C. W. C. workers have found, as a result of the lack of this sympathy "an increasing consciousness among the aliens that their status in the United States is becoming less and less certain, a feeling that their security is menaced and in some instances this feeling has apparently reached or is about to reach, a condition of panic."

He quoted from a South American paper which asserted that "up to a certain point they are right who declare that, insofar as immigration is concerned, a reign of terror has been established in the United States." Specifically, Mr. Montavon pointed out that under the Holaday Bill aliens who have been residents of the United States for many years, who have acquired property and who may have married and acquired families, are subject to deportation for the commission of a crime for which a sentence of a year's imprisonment is imposed.

"The creditors and the dependents of these will suffer in the enforcement of this deportation provision," he said. "Moreover, the alien may have lost through long residence abroad his rights in his home land, his property, his family, his friends, his country, his very truth, a man without a country. Desirable as it is that every good alien become a citizen of the United States, we cannot feel that our zeal to convert him into a citizen can justify this subjecting of a desirable alien to a penalty so severe even for the offenses mentioned."

Mr. Montavon said that in outlining the scope of the deportations it is necessary since present provisions are sufficient to enforce the law abiding alien should be protected against a summary procedure of the hands of immigration agents, and that deportation as an additional penalty with application only to aliens is not in strict accord with fundamental American principles. He urged that should deportation be thought a divorce law and was not an institution, and imposed upon us, the world, and did not exist before the slightest resistance.

Catholics Of Uruguay Urge An Organization Similar To N. C. W. C.

Montevideo, March 24.—An annual meeting of representatives of all the Catholic elements of Uruguay as the best means of promoting Catholic interests and Catholic social action is being urged by the Catholic Social Union of Uruguay. The example of the N. C. W. C. in North America and the National Catholic Federation in France is cited as showing the value of such a society.

Explaining the necessity for such a society, the Catholic Social Union, which already has achieved notable results, and the holding of an annual meeting of representatives of all parishes and of the principal Catholic institutions are considered the best means of promoting Catholic social action.

J., author of the famous letter to M. Herriot: "If you drive us out we shall not leave." The pretext given by the mayor for his order is that the lecture might cause counter-manifestations and disorders.
