

ST. ANTHONY AS A BUSINESS PARTNER

Among the thousands of testimonials to the efficacy of St. Anthony's intercession received by the Priests of the Atonement at Graymoor, New York, not a few witness to the Wonder-Worker of Padua as an admirable and most excellent Business Partner.

The Catholic Men and Women who invite St. Anthony to join them in a business partnership promise him a certain portion of their earnings either in the form of St. Anthony's Bread, or in support of some Missionary enterprise dear to the Saint's Heart.

Recent Testimonials which illustrate the foregoing Statement:

P. R. W., Des Moines, Ia.: "Herewith I am sending money order for fifteen dollars for St. Anthony's Bread in accordance with a promise made to him. It was if I sell a piece of property, which favor I had prayed for at his Graymoor Shrine. Good St. Anthony sold it for me in a very short time, although I had been trying to sell it for some six years. Many thanks to the dear Saint."

M. E. M.: "A short time ago I joined in the Novena promising publication and an offering if a certain business deal with which my husband was connected would be settled without trouble. Thanks to dear St. Anthony, my request has been granted."

M. A. J., Providence R. I.: "Enclosed find an offering for favor granted. My petition was that I would sell my business by August 15th and that to St. Anthony, on August 14th the business was sold and the money paid in full."

E. R.: "No words can express my gratitude to St. Anthony and to you, Fathers for your wonderful help through the Novena. I have found the error in my accounts, and my other great request was also answered."

Mrs. M. R., White Plains, N. Y.: "Enclosed you will find a check for St. Anthony's Bread. My husband took up a new business and I promised an offering if he succeeded. So far he has met with unexpected success."

T. A. F., Detroit, Mich.: "Enclosed find draft which represents commission due St. Anthony for business which he has helped me to obtain. Thanks to St. Anthony and also to the Little Flower."

Mrs. W. L. P., Louisiana: "In your Novena starting Nov. First I asked you to pray that my husband would become established in a paying business. All thanks to the Sacred Heart, our Blessed Mother and St. Anthony my request was granted and I am gratefully inclosing the promised offering."

A new Novena begins at Graymoor every Tuesday.

Prayers and directions for making the Novena will be sent upon request ten cents, postpaid. We also supply a short "Life of St. Anthony's twenty-five cents postpaid. Address all petitions to ST. ANTHONY'S GRAYMOOR SHRINE, Box 316, Peekskill, N. Y.

Slur By Anglican Bishop Compels Retort By Jesuit

Irish Priest Resents Statement By English Prelate And Work Of Proselytizing Agency Which Caused It To Be Made.

Dublin, April 2.—Rev. George Byrne, S. J., has written to the newspapers making some interesting comments on an attack made in The Liverpool Post by the Protestant Bishop of Warrington on the teachings of the Roman Church. The Bishop, in the course of an appeal on behalf of the Irish Church Mission, an organization popularly known in Ireland as the "Souperers," described it as a body whose task was to deal with the Catholic Church, "whose teaching and doctrine are in flagrant contradiction to the New Testament."

While such sectarian statements are usually kept out of the general newspapers, the publication of this report and its repetition in some of the Irish papers, has led Father Byrne to call attention to the class of institution dignified by the name of Irish Church Mission.

How "Souperers" Work

"We had thought," says Father Byrne, "that no Protestant in a responsible position would associate himself with the activities of such a discreditable organization as the Irish Church Mission." The learned Jesuit points out, what is well known to those in touch with charitable organizations here, that the method adopted by the Irish Church Mission for "freeing the Irish from the thralldom of Rome" is to find Catholic families in the most abject destitution, and to adopt their infant children in schools where they will be looked after materially and brought up outside the religion of their parents. The Chairman of the Committee of the Mission refers in the organ of the Mission, the Banner of Truth, to a school conducted by the Mission the master of which said that he could not say that all the children would be "converted," but he could say that "they would never make good Romanists."

The annual report of the Society sets out that during 1925, 37 converts were publicly received into the Reformed Church. These included a native Irish speaker, a member of Cumann na nGaedhael and an organizer of the Irish Language; (Cumann na nGaedhael is the Political Party supporting the Free State Government). As the members of this party are mostly Irish Nationalists, and as a Native Speaker is the favorite type of organizer of the Irish Language, it is probable that these three distinguished converts are all one and the same person. The occupations of the balance of the 37 converts are not considered sufficiently edifying for mention in the report. They show a shyness about their names contrasting strongly with the attitude of a Canadian Bishop's wife who joined the Roman Church last year. The 37 conversions for 1925 are the highest figure for 23 years.

Equipment For "Converting" Catholics

The report shows that the Society has at its disposal every item of the machinery necessary to capture the helpless and ignorant. Medical Missions, Children's Aid, Boarded-out (Irish) Branches, Irish Speaking Agents, besides the ordinary schools and churches.

What most people in the country are aware of such activities exist, few attach any importance to them, knowing the little success met with among Irish Catholics. The Catholic Rescue Society exists in Dublin to combat the underground workings of the Irish Church Mission. The Irish Catholic Bishops do not by any means take the apathetic view adopted by the laity, that because the Catholic losses are few, the danger is not real. The Bishops have published an appeal under their joint authority saying that the activities of the Irish Church Mission bring danger to the faith of thousands of people.

Bishop Essen, Noted Dominican Scholar, Dies; Widely Mourned

By Rev. Dr. Wilhelm Baron von Capitaine, (Cologne Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service)

Cologne, April 3.—Papers of every political and religious stripe in this and other countries have united to eulogize the Rt. Rev. Dr. Thomas Essen, O. P., titular Bishop of Sinde and a widely known student, who died recently in Rome.

Bishop Essen was born at Aix-la-Chapelle in 1850. He was ordained in Rome in 1873 and returned to Germany, where he was vicar at Euskirchen. His love of study caused him to return to Rome, however, and there, some time later, he entered the Dominican order. In 1895 Pope Leo XIII made him the consultor of some congregations, and Pope Benedict XV elevated him to the episcopal dignity in 1917.

Bishop Essen had established a reputation as a scholar and a teacher through his work in Germany, Austria, Holland, Ireland and Switzerland. He celebrated the golden jubilee of his ordination in Rome in 1923.

FUNERAL OF MISS RECHE

The funeral of Miss Eugenie M. Reche, of No. 31 Howell street, who died Monday morning in her 96th year, took place Thursday morning, in St. Mary's Church. Identified with one of Rochester's oldest families, Miss Reche and her younger sister, Miss Helene, held in memory events that to most other residents of the city are matters of history before their time. Miss Eugenie had lived here for more than ninety years.

Miss Reche was a friend of the Rochester family, and when the last Miss Rochester, died she was among the relatives as a mourner. Connections of the Reche family go back for 300 years on this side of the water, through their ancestors in Canada, and still earlier to Louis XV of France. Members of the Rochambeau families were among friends of the Reche sisters. Miss Helene still corresponds with them.

Miss Eugenie was born in Quebec, and came to Rochester with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vital Reche, when a small child. The father lived to be 99 years old. His mother signed a deed for the transfer of property when she was 103 years old. Mr. Reche was at one time one of Rochester's best known business men, first a grocer, and later head of a coal business. At his death, he was referred to as "the oldest citizen of Rochester and probably, of Western New York."

Gaelic University For Galway Again Burning Question

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, April 2.—The appointment of the new Governing Body for University College, Galway, for the period 1926-1929, has again raised the question whether the activities of the College should be carried on entirely in Irish, and the policy of this new assembly is eagerly awaited by the world of higher education. The governing body of the College is partly elected and partly nominated by the Minister for Education. Dr. Gilmartin, Catholic Archbishop of Tuam, heads the list, while the Catholic Bishop of Galway, the Most Rev. Thomas O'Doherty is nominated by the Minister.

The proposal to create an out and out Gaelic University in Galway is not by any means beyond the bounds of possibility, since about 40 per cent of the inhabitants of the town do their business through the medium of the Irish language. The customers who support the traders in the town come from districts where Irish is a living language, and so the commerce of the town is carried on more than half in Gaelic. Besides, many of the cases in the Circuit Court for the Counties of Galway and Mayo are heard in Irish by Judge Wyo Power, who speaks Irish fluently.

English Pilgrimages Net Charity $10,000

(N. C. W. C. News Service) London, April 5.—A sum of $10,000, representing the profits made, largely through the favorable rates of exchange, on last year's pilgrimages organized by the Catholic Association, has been handed over to Catholic charities.

Each of the seventeen Diocesan Bishops receives $50 for such charitable objects as they deem suitable, and the Superior Council of the S. V. P. Society receives $1,000.

In recognition of the help and kindness accorded to Jubilee pilgrims by the authorities and students of the English College, $500 has been sent to the Rector of the Venerable.

The Catholic Association has for many years organized national pilgrimages to places of Catholic interest at home and abroad and is this year conducting the English delegation to Chicago.

Heir To Belgian Throne Talks To Mission Workers

By Rev. J. Van der Heyden, (Louvain Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service)

Louvain, April 2.—The Faculty of Medicine of the Louvain Catholic University, impelled thereto by a movement among the students, is erecting a branch establishment of the school in the Congo, at Kisumu on the railroad line between Matadi and Leopoldville. Construction work on a school for negro medical helpers, nurses and midwives, and of a hospital and laboratories for medical research has been carried on for the past two months.

Prince Leopold the heir to the throne, recently returned from a voyage of study through the African colony, in order to encourage the young men who have organized the AUCAM Association of Catholic University Aid to the Missions, assisted here yesterday at one of their public meetings in favor of the Louvain Medical Foundation in the Congo, the FOMULAC. He was accompanied by the Minister of Colonies M. Carton and by several generals who distinguished themselves during the War after first having won laurels in the antislavery expeditions carried out in Africa by King Leopold II.

The Rector of the University, Msr. P. Ladueze, concluded an address of welcome with these words addressed to the Prince:

"The presence of Your Royal Highness here tonight proves once more that since your return from Africa it has been your aim to take the lead of the colonial movement which just now so much enthuses our Belgian youth. Through you that movement is bound to succeed, for the old poet's saying remains ever true: 'Compositur orbis regis ad exemplum, nec sine infectore sensus humanos edicta valent, ut vita regentis'—It is after the image of its king that a people is fashioned. To stir the hearts of men and to prompt action a ruler's example is more powerful than speeches and laws, however many."

Irish Playwright Scores In London

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Dublin, April 3.—A favorable reception was given at the "Q" Theatre, London, last night to Mr. T. C. Murray's play, "Autumn Fire." There were calls for the author, but it was explained that Mr. Murray had not crossed from Ireland for the production.

Mr. Murray, who is a prominent Catholic, has met with many successes in Dublin, and his success in London was considered by prominent Irish critics as merely a matter of time.
