Custer's Last Fight.

Where the Rosebud greets the Yellowstone.
And the thundering Bison pounds.
An endless green of Prairie,
The tune of vanished sounds.
There fighting for the Civic,
'Gainst a cruel relentless foe.
He and his cherished band,
Traced the Little Big Horn's afterglow.

Custer Leader not in Name,
Rank and station swept aside,
Intrepid Child of Progress,
With Thee who hasn't died.

Note:—

The Little Big Horn's Afterglow means Custer's Earthly Sun having set when he and his entire command were wiped out by hostile Indians, his glow came afterwards when Congress ignored the Sentimentalists who defeated Custer's importunities for more men to protect the settlers. Washington got busy making the middle West safe. Development was rapid.

Custer's name with fame on every tongue,
