

THE OLD QUILT

The old quilt had been up in the attic for a long, long time. Moths had come and had had banquets right on the quilt. That was really a disgrace for the quilt to suffer.

Tucked Under Their Chins.

quilt had been tucked up under the chins of children. This quilt was very old, oh, very, very old. But many a happy time, oh, many and many a happy time the quilt had had.

Alphabet Contest Winners

The winners on our Alphabet Contest Page for the letter "G", are: 1st Nellie Murphy 135 Frost Avenue; 2nd Mrs. N. Stutchburg, 454 Chill Avenue; 3rd Irene M. Wegman 105 Lozier Street; 4th Anna Kavanagh 145 Hobart Street.

MT. CARMEL'S LOOKING FOR GAME LABOR DAY

Joe DiNeri, manager of the Mt. Carmel baseball team, is anxious to book a game for his club with some fast out-to-town team for Labor Day. The Carmels have beaten the best teams in this section and are at present defending their city semi-pro title in the series with the Copleys.

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP

Sitting at the organ she had played for twelve years, in the Church of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Mrs. Mary J. Schuhart died Wednesday, September 1st while the instrument still vibrated with her last chords.

OBITUARY.

ANNA C. NAYLON.

Funeral services for Miss Anna C. Naylon, sister of Henry M. Naylon, Democratic leader of Buffalo, who died Thursday, August 25th, at St. Mary's Hospital, of burns she received three weeks ago, took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the home, No. 70 Alameda Street, and at 9:30 o'clock at the Church of the Sacred Heart.

WINIFRED M. CARROLL.

Funeral services for Miss Winifred M. Carroll took place Wednesday morning, September 1st at 9:30 o'clock at the home, No. 79 Glasgow Street and at 10 o'clock at the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Solemn mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Leo V. Smith, assisted by Rev. Joseph S. Cameron as deacon and Rev. Joseph Weis as subdeacon. In the sanctuary were Rev. Joseph Grady and Rev. William Doran.

The bearers were: Walter Phalen, Edward Lux, Richard O'Neill, John Norton, Frank G. Connor and Luke Norton. Interment was made in the family lot in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, where the final blessing was given by Rev. Leo V. Smith, assisted by Rev. John Hogan.

Noonan—Michael Noonan formerly of Auburn, N. Y., died at the home of his sister, Mrs. William O'Neill, 56 Morningside Park, Funeral from St. Mary's Church, September 4. Interment in the family lot at St. Joseph's cemetery, Auburn, N. Y.

Institute Founded By Pope Pius XI Opens In November

Rome, Aug.—The program of lectures and scientific exercises of the Pontifical Institute of Christian Archaeology, founded by Pope Pius XI last December, has just been published. The Institute will open in November, occupying temporary quarters until the completion of the building being erected through the munificence of His Holiness as its permanent home.

The complete course of study at the Institute will be three years. A partial list of the professors and the subjects of their lectures has been made public. During the first year, Msgr. J. P. Kirsch, formerly Professor at the University of Freiburg, will give lectures on "General Christian Archaeology," on the "Roman Catacombs" and on the "Ancient Roman Churches."

Msgr. Joseph Wilpert, the illustrious author of many works on Christian Art in archaeological monuments, and president of the Pontifical Institute of Archaeology, will give a course of lectures on "Christian Iconography." Professor Angelo Silvagni, of the University of Rome, a course on "Christian Epigraphy," and Father Henry Quentin, O. S. B., one of the most authoritative members of the Pontifical Commission for the Revision of the Vulgate, will lecture on "The History of the Roman Liturgy and Cult of the Saints." During the second year, Msgr. J. P. Kirsch will conduct two courses, one about the "Catacombs of St. Callistus, Domitilla, Protext and Commodilla" and the other about the "Ancient Titular Churches of Rome."

Msgr. J. Wilpert will direct the visits of students in the Museums and churches for the study of iconographic monuments. Prof. Silvagni will illustrate the Roman epigraphic songs before and after Damascus, and Father H. Quentin, O. S. B., will lecture on "Institution of Primitive Churches."

The third year is set apart for students who study a special subject and who, in relation to this, will visit the monuments and then discuss their works together with the professors.

Besides these courses the program of the Institute includes various special lectures which will be held by illustrious professors of Christian Archaeology. Amongst whom are Professor Horatius Marucchi, a favorite disciple of John Baptist de Rossi and professor of archaeology at the University of Rome. Professor Pio Franchi de Cavalieri, a learned writer of the Vatican Library, and Msgr. Peter Batifol, president of the Catholic Institute of Toulouse.

National Council Of Catholic Men Arranges Program

Washington, Aug. 27.—A general outline of the program for the fifth annual convention of the National Council of Catholic Men, which is to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, October 17, 18 and 19, was announced here today by Charles F. Dolle, Executive Secretary of the Council.

Arrangements for the meeting are being made by a local committee headed by the Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, Bishop of Cleveland and Episcopal Chairman, N.C.C.M., and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph F. Smith, Vicar General of the Diocese. Elaborate preparations already have been made and assurances are that the convention will be one of the most successful ever held. Mr. Dolle said, Bishop Schrembs will pontificate at the Solemn Mass in the Cathedral with which the convention is to be opened on Sunday morning. Other details of this ceremony have not yet been announced. That evening there will be a public mass meeting in the Masonic Auditorium, one of Cleveland's finest structures.

The business sessions of the Convention open Monday morning at the Hollenden Hotel, which will be the headquarters for the gathering. In addition to the general meetings there will be smaller, round-table conferences under chosen leaders, in special rooms provided at the hotel. In the evening there will be an informal dinner at the hotel.

What is expected to prove one of the most interesting and instructive features of the meeting will be the discussions of "The Organized Activities of the Diocese of Cleveland" at the dinner. The address will be brief and chosen speakers will set forth the technique of the splendid organization in the diocese, while the manner in which the National Council of Catholic Men can cooperate with and aid diocesan and local organizations also will be detailed.

Delegates to the convention will have the opportunity of observing at first hand the organization of the National Council of Catholic Men in Bishop Schrembs' jurisdiction. There the strongest parish society has been designated as the parochial unit of the National Council. The parochial society retains its original identity and full autonomy and freedom of action in its sphere, but furnishes a vigorous unit for the Council and acts as a Council unit in all affairs of general concern.

On Tuesday there will be two general meetings of the convention and the round-table discussions. In addition there will be a meeting of the Executive Board of the National Council. In the evening there will be a banquet at the hotel.

Stranded Bavarians To Get Back Home By N. C. W. C.'s Aid

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Philadelphia, Pa., August 30.—Working on behalf of 140 Bavarians stranded in this city when a restaurant featuring them at the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition went into bankruptcy, various Catholic societies here have united to alleviate the distress of these people and will enable them to return to their native land.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference's local bureau of immigration through its office in charge of Miss Mary McCorriston, Philadelphia representative, has worked out a plan whereby the cooperation of various other Catholic agencies could be obtained to assist the Bavarians, who are all Catholics. The Alliance of Catholic Women, the Catholic Verein, and the Catholic Women's Union sent representatives to a joint meeting with Miss McCorriston as chairman. The result of the meeting was that the Bavarians will go home next week with passage money and clothes supplied by these agencies.

When the restaurant feature closed down these musicians, writers and entertainers, who had been brought especially from Bavaria for the sole purpose of working at the exhibition, were thrown on their own resources. They were without funds and owed large sums for board. Local charitable organizations proved either indifferent or haphazard until the N. C. W. C. representative took up the matter.

More than $1,000 was collected by means of a musicale and more will be forthcoming. It was indicated that clergy who served on a special committee were the Revs. Francis J. Hertkorn, Henry J. Steinhagen, Joseph L. Mathis, and John M. Beterschmidt, C. S. S. R. Miss McCorriston, Miss Elizabeth Immel, Mrs. Gaghan and Mrs. H. O. Beiser, together with Anthony Zeits, of the Verein, formed the committee of aid.

Money due from the insolvent restaurateurs would be forwarded through the German Consul, it was stated. Admission to this country was allowed to the Bavarians only on condition that they were employed at the Sesqui and returned home after the exhibit.

German Priest Observes His Iron Jubilee

By Rev. Dr. Wilhelm Baron von Capitaine (Cologne Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service) Cologne, Aug. 18.—The Rev. Wilhelm Haas of the Diocese of Limburg has just observed his Iron Jubilee, the 65th anniversary of his ordination. The priest, who has been a pastor at Grosshollach for 40 years, is 89 years old and still hale and hearty.

As it is required that one be 24 years old when ordained, Father Haas has observed his extraordinary anniversary at the earliest possible age.

The Rev. Albert Eich of the Archdiocese of Cologne, who will be 90 years old on October 7, will observe his Iron Jubilee on September 1. On the same day the Rev. Gerhard Heinke at Alvia-Chapelle, who is 92 years old, enters upon his 69th year as a priest, while the Rev. Joseph Hinkelmann, who will be 92 on October 4, will enter upon the 63th year of his priesthood on August 29.

N. C. W. C. Appoints Agent For Border Immigration Work

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Washington, August 27.—Cleofas Calleros of El Paso, Texas, has just been named the new Mexican border representative of the N. C. W. C. Bureau of Immigration. Mr. Calleros headquarters will be in El Paso.

Mr. Calleros, who is a naturalized American citizen, has been engaged in welfare work for Mexicans in El Paso for the past six years. During the World War, he served with Company E, 315th Supply Train, 90th Division, nine months in this country and a year in France and Germany. He participated in the St. Mihiel and Meuse Argonne offensives and in the Puenvelle and Villers-ou-Haye sectors. He was wounded by shrapnel fire at Dioncourt, France, September 15, 1918. He later spent seven months with the Army of Occupation in Germany.

Since 1921, Mr. Calleros has been engaged as deputy commissioner in charge of the El Paso Catholic Boy Scout Troop. He is also in charge of all Mexican troops, including one Methodist, and a Baptist troop which is now being formed. He has been engaged in Americanization work in Mexico for the past 14 years, even before he himself became a naturalized citizen. He is also Diocesan Counselor for the Boy Guidance Committee in the Diocese of El Paso and is very active in all social and welfare work for Mexican-born people.

He was born at Villa Coronado, Chih., Mexico, April 9, 1896 but has lived in El Paso since 1902. He attended Sacred Heart School conducted by the Sisters.

Eastman

Next week is Anniversary Week at the Eastman Theatre. In preparation for a fitting celebration of this fourth birthday of Rochester's world famous institution, General Manager Eric T. Clarke has arranged a gala program of screen and musical features of a sufficiently diversified nature to have something of appeal for all tastes.

Heading the screen part of the bill will be Gloria Swanson in her newest picture, "Fine Manners," a modern comedy drama that gives the gorgeous Gloria opportunity to rise from the antics of a slangy East Side burlesque actress to a lady of fashion.

There will be an elaborate birthday divertimento, specially arranged for the gala occasion. Stage and musical features will include a colorful dance specialty called "The Birthday Cake," presented by Thelma Biracree, Marion Teft, Jean Hurvitz and Phyllis Resseger, and the popular old musical comedy favorite, "Two Little Love Bees," presented in novel fashion by Brownie Peebles and Richard Halliley. Other screen topics will be a color film novelty called "Crystals;" a cartoon, "The Family Album;" Eastman News Events and several film novelties of a surprising nature.

The overture for the week will be Thomas' overture to "Mignon," with Victor Wagner and Guy Fraser Harrison conducting.

WEDDINGS.

KUNZMAN-CORRIGAN.

The wedding of Miss Hazel Kunzman, daughter of Mrs. A. E. Kunzman of Smith Street, to Francis R. Corrigan of Sterling Street, took place Tuesday, Aug. 24, at 9 o'clock in St. Peter and Paul's Church. The Rev. Arthur Florack performed the ceremony and celebrated a nuptial high mass. The church was decorated for the occasion with palms, gladiolus and snapdragons.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Kunzman, as maid of honor. Miss Lavina Corrigan of Chicago, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Christian Kunzman, brother of the bride was best man, and George Hetzler and Oscar Wegman were ushers.

After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate relatives, followed by a reception at 3 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan left for a western trip to include Chicago and Detroit.

CUNNINGHAM-HALPIN.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Halpin, of New York city, announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret, to Arthur J. Cunningham, of Rochester. The ceremony took place Saturday, August 21st, at 6 o'clock in the church of St. John the Evangelist, New York city. Rev. John B. Sullivan officiated. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cunningham, of Rochester.

LYONS-HENNER.

Miss Josephine E. Henner and John Edward Lyons of this city, were united in marriage August 28th at Corpus Christi Church. The Rev. William M. Hart officiated. Vocal selections during the ceremony were rendered by the Corpus Christi Church quartette. The attendants were George W. Henner, brother of the bride, and Frederick D. Lamb.

After a motor trip in the East, Mr. and Mrs. Lyons will be at home at 1117 Main Street East.

DEATHS OF THE WEEK

Funeral services were held from the respective churches on dates given. May their souls rest in peace.

Becker—Mary Trever Becker widow of John Becker, died August 28, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. George Lauth, No. 106 Flower Street, aged 72 years. Funeral from St. Michael's Church, September 1. Clair—James Clair died August 28, at the home of his son, D. E. Clair, No. 21 Lark Street. Funeral from Holy Rosary Church, August 31.

Ritter—George J. Ritter, Sr., died at the family home, No. 75 Centennial Street, aged 67 years. Funeral from Holy Family Church, August 31.

Mulhern—Mrs. Anna King Mulhern, died at her home in Brookport, August 28. Funeral from the Church of the Nativity, Brookport, August 31. Interment in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

McMullen—James H. McMullen died in this city, August 28. Funeral from the Immaculate Conception Church, September 1.

Carroll—Miss Winifred M. Carroll died at St. Mary's Hospital, August 30. Funeral from the Immaculate Conception Church, September 1.

Houlihan—Mary Bernice Houlihan died August 30, aged 3 years. Funeral September 1. Interment in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Coughlin—Thomas Coughlin died August 30. Funeral from the Immaculate Conception Church, September 2.

Inkpen—Mrs. Mary Gale Inkpen died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Smith, No. 312 Ridge Way Avenue. Funeral from the Sacred Heart Church, September 2.

Sheerin—Mary Sheerin, widow of John H. Sheerin, of No. 522 Tremont Street, died in this city, August 29, aged 62 years. Funeral from the Immaculate Conception Church, September 1st. Interment in the family lot at Calvary cemetery, Dansville, N. Y.

Lally—Matthew J. Lally died at his home, 131 Magnolia Street, August 25. Funeral from St. Monica's Church, August 30.

Naylon—Anna Cecelia Naylon of No. 70 Alameda Street, died August 26. Funeral from Sacred Heart Church August 30.

Gallipeau—Alice C. Gallipeau died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Gallipeau, 128 Glenwood Avenue, aged 18 years. Funeral from Holy Rosary Church, August 30.

Schmidt—Peter J. Schmidt of 26 Arlington Street, died in this city, August 27, in his 58th year. Funeral from St. Joseph's Church, August 30.

Schreiver—Mrs. Barbara Eberle Schreiver, died at the residence of her son, John C. Schreiver, No. 292 Troup Street, September 1. Funeral from St. Peter and Paul's Church, September 4th.

Schuhart—Mary J. Orheiser Schuhart, formerly of Auburn, N. Y. and widow of Dr. Q. C. Schuhart, died suddenly September 1, aged 65 years. Funeral from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, September 4.

Hearing—Frank S. Hearing died September 1st at the home, 388 Colvin Street, aged 30 years. Funeral from Holy Family Church, September 4th.

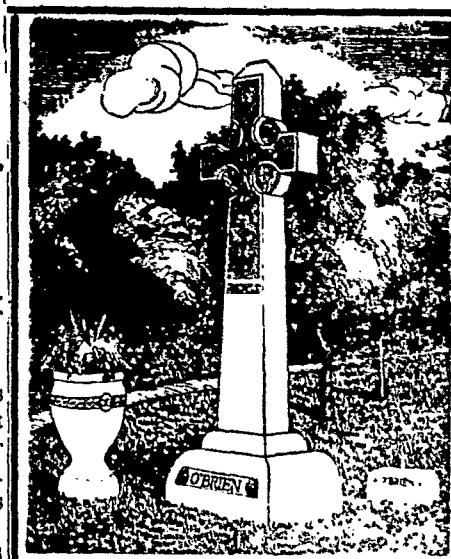

Ryan & McIntee S. LEO MCINTEE Funeral Directors New Location 207 Chestnut St. Near Monroe Ave. Store 1464

THOMAS B. MOONEY'S SONS Funeral Directors 93 EDINBURGH ST.

Harry C. Hermance UNDERTAKER Phone Stone 1524 663 MAIN STREET EAST Rochester, N. Y.

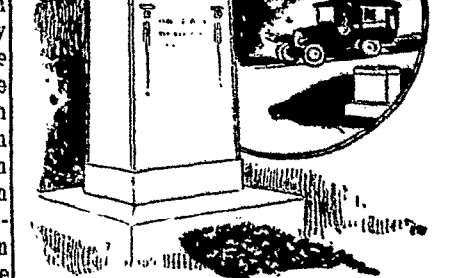

L. W. Maier's Sons UNDERTAKERS 870 Clinton Avenue N. Phone 699

C. F. SCHEUERMAN Funeral Director 880 BROWN STREET Opposite Allen St. Genesee 428 Genesee 4043 Residence, 159 Rugby Ave.

MISS SADIE L. O'BRIEN is the owner of the above distinctive memorial which we built and carved in our own work shop and erected with the artistic flower vase in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Trott Bros. Co. Inc. 1120 MT. HOPE AVE. Stone 3723

Monuments Mausoleums Statuary T. H. MARRION & CO. 478 State St. Main 7523