E. J. Stubbs Made St. Gregory Knight
 (By N. C. W. C. News Service)
 Chicago, Oct. 12.—E. J. Stubbs, a grain dealer and member of the Chicago Board of Trade, has been made a Knight of St. Gregory by Pope Pius XI. It has been announced by the Chancery Office of the Archdiocese here. The title has been conferred by His Holiness at the request of Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, it was said.
 Mr. Stubbs has given two buildings to the great St. Mary of the Lake Seminary at Mundelein, Ill.

REGENT THEATER.
 Rochester's film public will get its first view next week at the Regent of the first graduating class of the Paramount School of Motion Pictures. Cabot, in Manistee, Mich. Founded a year ago by Jesse Lasky, for more than a year sixteen ambitious potential Gloria Swansons, Richard Dixes have been put through their paces at the Paramount Long Island studio and "Fascinating Youth" they make their first bid for screen fame that may set them on the high pedestal now occupied by the favorites of the hour. With the aid of Richard Dix, Adolphe Menjou and a host of other "real" stars it provides a story of rollicking comedy qualities and one replete with thrills.
 Chief Caulpolean, distinguished Indian baritone who created a sensation some years ago with his appearance with the Metropolitan Opera, will be the stage artist for the week. Other screen features on the same bill will include a comedy, "Hoboken to Hollywood," Aesop's Fables, Regent News Review and other topics of a popular nature.

PICCADILLY THEATER.
 Rex Ingram's dramatic screen triumph, "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," will make its return to a local screen Sunday at the Piccadilly where it begins a week's engagement. Perhaps no picture in the history of the motion picture industry has had the popular revival that followed the showing of "The Four Horsemen" at the Capitol Theatre in New York shortly after the death of Valentino. Upon its original appearance some years ago it was hailed as an expression of an advanced screen art and the outstanding film of its time and in the light of its recent amazing reception by the photoplay public it still looms as one of the lasting productions of all time.
 Alice Terry is seen as leading woman. Other players who have come into their own since their appearance in assisting roles in "The Four Horsemen" include Jean Hersholt, Alan Hale, Stuart Holmes, Wallace Berry, Edward Connelly and Arthur Hoyt.
 Owing to the length of the feature the supplementary program will be shortened to include an overture by the Piccadilly Orchestra, Arthur Newberry conducting, and the usual news events reels.
 Queen Marie's snobbish greeting by the untitled snobs of the United States, is nauseating even to Mr. Hearst's papers.
