Polancic Dispels Alsace-Lorraine Catholic Fears

By N. C. W. C. News Service

Paris, Nov. 12.—M. Poincare, in a circular issued immediately following a speech of several days ago to the workers in Alsace-Lorraine, has dispelled the fears of the population of the region regarding the political development. He has stated that the Federal Government was contending the advantage of the separation of Church and State, and that the Alsace-Lorraine region would continue to be a part of France. He has appealed to the loyalty of the people to the national cause, and has thus removed the doubts entertained by many.""

Socialism Worst Apostasy, Bishop Tells Hungarian

By N. C. W. C. News Service

Budapest, Nov. 12.—Several missionary societies are being established in Hungary to aid the Catholic Chinese Missions in their work of winning souls for Christ. The missions are being supported by the government, and are under the direction of the Bishop of Shanghai. The missionaries are being sent to the villages, where they are to teach the children to read and write, and to instruct them in the religious teachings of the Church.

Reformation Failure, Protestant Writer Declares in Review

By N. C. W. C. News Service

North, Nov. 12.—The Protestant writer, Dr. Peter W. Hill, has declared that the Protestant Reformation was a failure. He has stated that the Church of England and the Church of Scotland have both failed to make the necessary changes in the religious teachings of the Church. He has further stated that the Church of England is still a schism, and that the Church of Scotland is still a separation of the Church of England.

Altar Boys Died In Tornado With Hands Clapsed

By N. C. W. C. News Service

Enfield, Conn., Nov. 12.—Two altar boys, aged 15 and 16, were killed in a tornado that struck the town yesterday. The boys were known as George and John, and were members of the altar party of the Catholic Church. The tornado hit the town at 3 p.m., and the boys were found dead in their hands clasped in prayer.

Catholic Social Service Congress Outlines Program

By J. V. S. News Service

Bremen, Nov. 12.—The outlines of the second annual Catholic Social Service Congress were presented yesterday morning. The congress will be held in Bremen, and will be attended by delegates from all parts of the world. The congress will discuss the social and religious problems of the times, and will make plans for the future work of the Catholic Social Service.

Pope Contributed $100,000 To Irish College in Rome

By N. C. W. C. News Service

Rome, Nov. 12.—The Pope has contributed $100,000 to the Irish College in Rome. The money was presented by the Pope to the Bishop of Rome, who in turn presented it to the Bishop of Ireland. The Pope has stated that the money will be used for the education of the Irish students in Rome, and that it will be used for the support of the Irish College in Rome.

Modern Indian Vote to Alleviate Moosonee

By N. C. W. C. News Service

Moosonee, Nov. 12.—The modern Indian vote to alleviate Moosonee has been introduced by the Federal Government. The vote will be held in Moosonee, and will be attended by delegates from all parts of the world. The vote will be held to discuss the social and religious problems of the times, and will make plans for the future work of the Catholic Social Service.