Richmond Dean Now St. Gregory Knight

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Fort Myers, Fla., Jan. 21.—Richmond Dean, vice-president of the Pullman Company and the first president of the National Council of Catholic Men, has been made a Knight of St. Gregory by Pope Pius XI. Although Mr. Dean's office is in Chicago he is a winter resident of Florida and is held to be the first Floridian thus honored by the Holy Father.
Simultaneously with the disclosure of this honor for Mr. Dean it was announced that the Rt. Rev. Patrick Barry, Bishop of St. Augustine, would preside at the investiture of the new Knight here, and that the Rev. R. P. Brennan, pastor of St. Francis Xavier Church, would assist.
In addition to other distinctions, Mr. Dean was a founder and is a member of the executive board of the Catholic Church Extension Society of the United States and an active member of the executive committee of the Associated Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago.

Irish Free State Figures on Marriage

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Dublin, Jan. 17.—The Registrar General of the Irish Free State has published his detailed analysis of the figures for births, deaths and marriages for the year 1925. The figures show a reduction in the number of births, deaths and marriages as compared with the figures for 1924.
Catholic marriages for 1925 totaled 12,409, as against 900 for all other denominations. The Catholic marriages were at the rate of 4.32 to the Catholic population, and the others at the rate of 2.37 of the population of all other denominations.
Emigration from Ireland during 1925 numbered 30,000 of whom 10,000 sailed in the United States and 1,000 in Canada. The next largest number was 1,000 to Australia.
The number of emigrants in 1925 was 13,000, of whom 10,000 sailed in the United States.

Fr. A. J. Burrowes, Jesuit 54 Years And Educator, Dies

Cincinnati, Jan. 19.—The Rev. Alexander J. Burrowes, S. J., for fifty-four years a member of the Society of Jesus, and noted educator, died here today of pneumonia at the age of 73 years. Funeral services will be held Friday and burial will be in the Jesuit plot at Florissant, Mo.
Formerly of the Missouri province of the Society of Jesus, Father Burrowes, at different times, had served as president of four Catholic institutions of learning, and was one of the best known instructors in the Middle West. In recent years he had been a member of the faculty of Berchman's Hall, a training school for Jesuit priests.
Born in St. Louis, October 14, 1853, Father Burrowes was educated at the Christian Brothers College of that city, where he spent seven years, later going to Niagara University, N. Y., for a one-year course. He pursued his higher studies at Woodstock, Md., where he specialized in mental and moral theology, science and mathematics. He was ordained a priest in Chicago in 1886 and in 1889-1890 was vice-president of Detroit College, now the University of Detroit. From 1893 to 1897 he was president of St. Francis Xavier's College, here, and from 1900 to 1908 he served as head of Marquette College, which was chartered as a university during his term of office. From 1908 to 1912 he was president of St. Ignace College, Chicago, an institution which in 1909 was raised to the rank of university, with departments of law and medicine and colleges of arts and sciences.
Father Burrowes was president of St. Louis University in 1912-1913.

Fr. Cyril Walmsley, English Priest, Ill

London, Jan. 17.—Seized with sudden illness while working in his office, Father Cyril Walmsley, secretary to Bishop Amigo of Southwark, is lying in a serious condition in a hospital here.
Father Walmsley is the youngest priest in the diocese. He was ordained last May, and has been secretary to the Bishop only a few weeks.

Story of Attack On Spanish Sisters' Foochow Orphanage

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Peking, January 19.—Despatches reaching here from Foochow tell of widespread raiding and looting of churches by fanatical mobs. Among the places looted was the French Catholic mission. Authorities in the city seem either unable or disinclined to halt this form of lawlessness.
Wild stories of atrocities by foreign missionaries are circulated periodically to keep the hot feeling against foreigners at the boiling point. It was after one of these tales that the Spanish Sisters' orphanage was sacked. The religious, with some of their charges, were forced to flee in disguise.
One report says that all Catholic churches and schools in the city were attacked, in addition to institutions of other denominations.
Students petitioned the authorities that all church property belonging to foreigners be confiscated and the foreigners driven out.
According to refuse religious, when the Catholic orphanage was sacked Chinese orphan girls were abducted, and notices were posted on the orphanage doors offering girls as wives at $3 each.
When religious boarded a vessel to flee and took with them some of their orphan charges, raiders came aboard, caused the crew to strike and forced the missionaries to surrender the orphans before the boat was permitted to proceed.

First Traveling Library Van For Irish Free State

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Dublin, Jan. 17.—The Library Committee of the Dublin County Council has put its first library van on the road, with a collection of 1,500 volumes. The committee has a total stock of 5,000 books, which will soon be augmented to 20,000.
This is the first traveling library in Ireland. The books will be lent to schools and village halls, from which the teachers and other officials will lend them out for short terms of home reading.
A week ago Bishop Naughton decided on the town of Castellar as the home of the first Carnegie library for Mayo County. The Catholic library, Hawkins street, Dublin, is becoming very well known to the general public for the extraordinary number of donations received from all over the world.

Praising Dead Priest

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 21.—A splendid example of Christian spirit was demonstrated at Corinth, N. Y., following the death, recently, of the Rev. John E. Dignan, for eleven years pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Palmer Falls, who died in an Albany hospital after an illness extending a week.
Hardly had death closed the eyes of the beloved priest, who spent twenty-one years of his life in the vineyard, than citizens of Corinth, mostly business men and Protestants, headed by the Rev. George W. Burke, minister of the First Methodist Episcopal Church, gathered to devise a proper tribute to their esteemed friend and benefactor.
As a result of the conference, a full page advertisement, under the caption, "Requiescat in Pace", subscribed to by fifty representatives of the leading business houses of Corinth, in behalf of the community, was inserted in The Saratogian, a secular paper, of Saratoga Springs, with a notice that during the hour of Father Dignan's funeral all business in the town would be suspended.
In the center of the page was the following eulogy, written by the Rev. Mr. Burke:
"To know Father Dignan was to love and admire the man. He was always sending forth sunshine and hope. As one talked with him, he gained three impressions: First that he was a true disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ. It was evident that he sat at the feet of the Great Teacher. Second, was his eagerness to express God's great goodness to him and to speak of His love. Third, one was impressed with the sweetness and the fidelity of his friendship.
"Corinth will miss Father Dignan. The town will be poor spiritually without him. To this man of God, the citizens of Corinth, Roman Catholic and Protestant alike, say: Farewell till the day doth break and the shadows flee away."
Born in Gloversville, N. Y., Father Dignan was graduated from the Gloversville high school, and later from Holy Cross College. After completing a theological course in St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, in 1905, he was ordained to the priesthood in December, 1905, by the Rt. Rev. T.

A Burke, Bishop of Albany from 1905 to 1915, he was assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church in Troy. In the latter year he was given the pastorate of the Church of the Immaculate Conception at Palmer Falls, where he immediately set to work to clear the church from debt.
Funeral services for Father Dignan were held at Palmer Falls on January 19, with a Solemn Mass of Requiem by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. DeLaney, vicar-general of Albany. Many distinguished clergy of northern New York attended, and great crowds followed the casket to the train when it was taken to Gloversville.

Meeting Of C. P. A., In May Next, First In Southern City

Washington, Jan. 21.—When the Catholic Press Association of the United States and Canada convenes in Savannah, Georgia, May 19 to 21, it will be the first meeting of the Association ever held south of the Mason-Dixon line. It will also be the first meeting held outside of one of the larger cities of the United States.
The 1927 meeting was awarded to Savannah after the board of directors of the Association, which met in Chicago last Saturday, had received petitions for the meeting from Mayor Hull of Savannah, the Savannah Board of Trade, several Catholic organizations, including the Catholic Laymen's Association of Georgia, the Bulletin, official organ of the Catholic Laymen's Association; Col. John G. Butler, president of the Savannah branch of the Catholic Laymen's Association of Georgia; State Deputy William H. Mitchell of the Knights of Columbus, and Supreme Director P. H. Rice.
Although details of the convention have not yet been announced, it is known that the first day of the meeting will be devoted to a conference of members representing Catholic magazines in the two countries. The second and third days will see the representatives of newspapers and magazines meeting together. The meeting will open on Thursday, May 19, and end with a lunch on Saturday, May 21.
Georgians already are making preparations for the entertainment of their guests at the convention. It has been promised that the delegates will be made acquainted with other sports of the state than the Sea City.
