

MONSTER CARD PARTY AT ST JOSEPH'S HALL

On Monday, May 2, a "Monster Card Party" will be held in St. Joseph's Hall, Franklin street, and Clinton avenue north. The games will begin at 8 P. M., sharp, and consist of the usual popular games, to wit: "Bridge, 500, Pedro and Pinochle". The number of prizes in store for both the lucky and scientific winners has already reached the superb number of seventy-five; in all probability, it will "go over the top" of the amazing total of one hundred. The prizes are of a practical and valuable nature and of such a diversified character as to suit and satisfy the most exquisite tastes of the most particular "Ladies and Gents".

The Party is being held under the auspices of the "Aides of the Catholic Deafmutes of Rochester". The proceeds of the same will be handed over to Rev. Father Burger, C.S.S.R., to aid and assist him in his noble and priestly work in behalf of the Catholic Deafmutes of the entire Rochester Diocese under his care and supervision the Deafmutes of the Diocese are receiving the blessed benefits of the Catholic Faith. He has now successfully grouped his small but scattered flock into so-called "Centres," which he visits once a month respectively. On the first Sunday of every month he can be seen at St. Joseph's Church, Rochester, where he preaches to the Deafmutes of the "Rochester Centre." This "Centre" is composed of his parishioners of Rochester, Sea Breeze, Irondequoit, Brighton, Gates, and Coldwater. On the second Sunday he will be found at St. Cecilia's Church, Elmira, preaching to the Deafmutes of the "Elmira Centre," composed of the cities and towns of Elmira, Horseheads, Corning and Waverly. On the third Sunday he visits the "Canandaigua Centre." There, at St. Mary's Church, he preaches to the Deafmutes of Canandaigua, Penn Yan, Phelps, Geneva, and Clifton Springs. A fourth Centre is just being formed, which will be visited on the fourth Sunday of every month.

It is with the sole purpose of helping Rev. Father Burger, C.S.S.R., to keep his "Centres" in the established order and to raise and maintain them to a high standard of an energetic and practical Catholicity that the coming "Monster Card Party" of May 2 will be held. It will be a "Monster" party in every sense of the word; a "Monster" in the size and number of the prizes; a "Monster" in the size of its attendance; and a "Monster" in the lowliness of its admission. Tickets are 35 cents a person and may be had at St. Joseph's Rectory. You are cordially invited.

SS. Peter and Paul's Church

The diagram of the new rent will be distributed on next Sunday.

Aquinas collection will be taken up at all the masses on Sunday.

The press chairman is Mrs. John D. Garin. Mrs. Frank Gores is in charge of the prizes; Mrs. Leonard A. Kelly, of the scores and cards; Mrs. George Bauer of five hundred; Mrs. George Baker of bridge; and Mrs. Frank Gardner, of Pedro. Miss Anna Carroll heads the Reception Committee, assisted by Mrs. Charles Maggio, and Mrs. John F. Pauly.

L. C. B. A. HOLD CLASS INITIATION AT HOTEL

At a dinner and class initiation held Thursday night in the Hotel Seneca ballroom conducted by the Central Council of Rochester, nearly eight hundred guests were present.

Father Cameron was the main speaker of the evening, and congratulated the women on their organization and their courage in weathering the financial storm which a few years ago wrecked the men's society. The clergy, Father Cameron said, are solidly behind the organization, because they recognize in it, besides its sound financial condition, a medium for the promotion of sociability and character building among the women of each parish.

About three hundred new members, including the St. Ambrose Church branch, newest of the Rochester organizations, were welcomed and obligated into the order by Miss Kate Mahoney, of Troy, supreme president of the association.

Others at the speakers' table were: Mrs. Cora A. McFarlin, of Rochester, a supreme trustee and general chairman; Miss Mary Curran, toastmistress; Rev. F. J. Hoesen, of Holy Trinity Church, of Webster; Mrs. Joanna A. Royer, of Erie, Pa., supreme recorder, and Mrs. Julia Ward Clingen, of Chicago.

Other members of the clergy present were: Rev. Alexander McCabe, Rev. M. C. Wall, Rev. Walter B. McCarthy, Rev. Charles J. Bruton, Rev. John B. Sullivan, Rev. Joseph H. Goffel, Rev. Francis X. Kunz, and Rev. George Kolb.

Aquinas Pupil Winner In Oratory Contest

On Wednesday night, at Monroe High School, Harry P. Rockwell, Aquinas Institute freshman, was judged winner of the Western New York finals of the oratorical contest, sponsored in this section by the Democrat and Chronicle.

His victory came as a complete surprise to Rockwell, who told friends after the contest he never had dared hope to win the finals. He said he had not considered a public speaking career, but that he hoped to enter Holy Cross College and study for a doctor's degree in chemistry.

Should he win the national semifinals next week, Rockwell will be one of the seven finalists to speak before justices of the Supreme Court in Memorial Continental Hall, in Washington. All finalists will be given a ten weeks' European tour next summer with all expenses paid. Besides becoming eligible to compete in the national semifinals in Kansas City, with all expenses for the trip paid, he received a gold medal and $100 awarded the Western New York winner by the Democrat and Chronicle, and a special prize of $25 offered by the Rochester Bar Association.

"WHAT! A LEAK?"

Even a small leak in a roof can cause great damage if it is not fixed in time. It is far better to fix it before it begins to leak than to wait until the water comes through and damages ceilings and walls. If your roof is weak in spots, let us supply the roofing materials you need to make it rain and weather proof.
