E. W. EDWARDS & SON

JOSEPH W. HOWE.

Joseph W. Howe, prominent civil engineer and inspector in charge of the Barge Canal harbor, died late Saturday night at his home, No. 792 North street, aged 58 years. For the last forty years he has been a civil engineer. Much of the time he was connected with the Barge Canal harbor. The beautiful bridges over the canal in Genesee Valley Park and a number of state roads in this part of the state were designed by Mr. Howe.

Mr. Howe received engineering training at the Troy Institute of Technology. He also attended the University of Rochester. He was a life-long Republican and a personal friend of the late George W. Aldridge, for many years Republican county leader. He was a member of the Rochester Engineering Society, Rochester Lodge of Elks, and the Holy Name Society of the Holy Redeemer Church.

He leaves his wife, Catherine Joeger Howe; two sisters, Mrs. Charles E. Howe and Mrs. Victor Lang, and three brothers, John M. Thomas E. and Charles J. P. Howe. Funeral services took place on Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the family home, and at nine o'clock at Holy Redeemer Church. Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Eckert—Mrs Magdalena Schiller Eckert, aged 65 years, wife of Joseph W. Eckert, of No. 1340 Clinton avenue north, died July 9, at the Lee Hospital. Funeral from Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, July 13th.

Hendricks—Jane Collins Hendricks, wife of Samuel P. Hendricks, died in Detroit, July 8. Funeral from St. John the Evangelist Church, July 12th. Interment in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Haskins—Daniel E. Haskins, aged 62 years, of East Henrietta, died July 10, at Batavia, N. Y. Funeral from the Church of Good Shepherd East Henrietta, July 12. Burial at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Ordon—Ignatius Ordon, aged 66 years, of No. 140 Weddaway, died July 8, at the Strong Memorial Hospital. Funeral from St. Casimir Church, July 11. Interment in the family lot in St. Casimir cemetery.

Gillen—Mary Gillen, aged 65 years, died July 11. Funeral from St. Bridget's Church, July 14th. Interment at Fairport, N. Y.

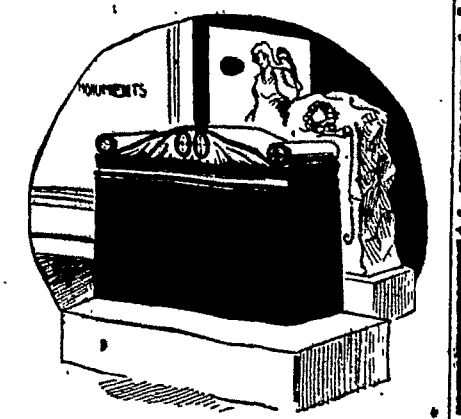

Schmidt—Mrs Barbara Schmidt, aged 71 years, widow of Frank S. Schmidt, died July 14, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Schteker, 22 High street. Funeral from St. Francis Xavier Church, July 18th.

To be or not to be is the frame of mind in which the politicians and near politicians await the decision of the Court of Appeals in the City Manager Charter case.

CATHOLIC SUMMER SCHOOL

(By F. P. Kilcoyne)
Cliff Haven, N. Y., July 12.—The second week of the 1927 session of the Catholic Summer School opened with the regular "Family Gathering" in the auditorium on Sunday evening. Rt. Rev. M. J. Lavelle, LL. D., presided, and gave an interesting address, in which he urged every person to know that the Summer School was for him, and in which he compared the efforts of universities to get support, and the success they have achieved, with the work being done at Cliff Haven. Rev. A. A. Traika of Plainfield, N. J. gave his impressions of the Summer School. Miss Sarah Keaveny entertained with violin solos, Hubert McVeigh, well-known vocalist, with vocal solos, and the final numbers were by a female chorus, which comprised the Misses Mildred L'Ange, Mary and Eileen Ryan, Sarah and Alice Keaveny, Ida and Bertha Abratys, and Cecelia McMahon.

The trip for two persons to Cliff Haven, for ten weeks, all expenses paid, was awarded to M. A. Morrissey, 15 Glendale Ave., Mt. Vernon, N. Y. This award is given in connection with the recent bazaar held in the interests of the School.
