Catholic Register, Denver, to Occupy Fine New Building

Denver, Colo., July 14.—Contracts have just been awarded by the Rt. Rev. J. Henry Thien, D. D., Bishop of Denver, and work has been started on a new building to house The Catholic Register, official organ of the Church in Colorado. The structure will have 3,000 square feet of floor space and will be devoted entirely to the work of the paper, said to be the only semi-weekly Catholic publication in the English language. The Rev. Matthew Smith is editor, Hubert A. Smith is associate editor.

As soon as the building is ready, a large web press, just purchased, capable of turning out 30,000 thirty-two page papers an hour, will be installed, with full stereotype equipment. The linotype equipment of the paper has also recently been enlarged.

The Diocese of Denver sponsored a benefit affair at which a considerable sum of money was recently raised for the development of the paper.

"The Catholic press is entering a new era," declared Father Smith, editor of the paper, in a series of addresses given at that time. "The day when it is possible to make the grade with no better equipment than that of a good-sized country weekly is passing. Our papers all over the country must have the equipment of the large daily press. We have hindered the development of the Catholic press by not putting enough capital into the work and by asking editors to make bricks with out the straw.

Our papers are always judged by the dailies although our equipment is far inferior to theirs inasmuch as a Catholic paper is a definite cog in the machinery of the Church, it should get the same measure of support as any other Catholic work. While we can sell stock and get plenty of capital, experience has proved that this method sacrifices independence. Hence we appeal to the Catholic public for assistance, as we would if we were building a church or school."

The Colorado Catholic public saw logic in the argument, and within the next few months, The Register will have an equipment second to none in America, its editors say.

It is explained, that, while some debt will be carried, the material assets will amount to considerably more than the debt and these assets all represent the work of only five years. It was not quite five years ago that the paper put in its own printing plant.

Extraordinary assistance was given by the daily papers of Denver, particularly the St. Joseph Herald, organs, to The Register in its campaign.

Public Prayers Said In Chicago Diocese For Bishop Muldoon

Chicago, July 15.—Prayers for the recovery or the happy death of the Rt. Rev. P. J. Muldoon, Bishop of Rockford, have been offered in all the churches of the Chicago archdiocese.

The last Sacraments were administered to Bishop Muldoon last Saturday. His death has been expected momentarily by attending physicians, but his remarkable vitality has kept him alive. He is suffering from arteriosclerosis and also from a weakened condition of the heart caused by the strain of his long illness.

A few days after attending the Eucharistic Congress in Chicago, last year, Bishop Muldoon was stricken with appendicitis in St. Louis where he went to be present at the consecration of the new Cathedral. He underwent an operation there and was not able to return to Rockford until last Spring. The silver jubilee of his consecration as bishop was to have been celebrated July 28, 1926.

At the bishop's home in Rockford are his brother, Dr. John J. Muldoon of Chicago; four sisters, Mother M. Irene, a Sister of Mercy of St. Patrick's Academy, Chicago, and Misses Elen and Mary Muldoon, and Mrs. Felix O'Rourke, all of Providence, R. I.

Diplomats of Six Nations at Mass For Kevin O'Higgins

Washington, July 14.—Representatives of the United States and five other nations attended the Requiem Mass for Kevin O'Higgins, assassinated Vice President of the Irish Free State, which was celebrated in St. Patrick's Church here yesterday by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. C. F. Thomas, rector.

Among those attending the Mass were: Sir Esme Howard, British Ambassador to the United States; Arthur Stopford, British Naval Attaché; Count de Serignes, Counselor of the French Embassy; Robert Silvercrans, Counselor of the Belgian Embassy; H. H. Wrong, M. M. Mahoney and T. A. Stone, secretaries of the Canadian Legation; William R. Castle, jr., assistant Secretary of State, and the staff of the Irish Free State legation.

Monument Raised To Priest-Soldier Unveiled August 22

San Francisco, July 16.—The unveiling of the monument to Father William D. McKinnon, Chaplain of the First California Volunteer Infantry in the Spanish-American war, and hero of the battle of Manila, will take place Sunday afternoon, August 21. The statue stands in Golden Gate park. It is the work of John McQuarrie.

In addition to the army and navy contingents, 10,000 Knights of Columbus from the Bay Cities; the Y. M. I., the Y. L. I., the Catholic Union, the Catholic Ladies' Aid, the Native Sons, the Native Daughters, and many civic organizations in the Bay region will send large numbers. The United Labor Council has notified affiliated bodies to send the largest representation possible. The mayor and city council of Rio Vista, the last parish served by Father McKinnon, will attend in a body. Frank L. Storry, program chairman, has acceptances in his hands indicating that 80,000 people will participate in the parade.

The Very Rev. R. A. Gleeson, S. J., will deliver the invocation; Miss Isabel McKinnon, grand-niece of the war-hero, will pull the cord unveiling the statue. Music will be furnished by the Spanish War Veterans' Band, Major Charles L. Tilden has been named orator of the day; Captain Harold will make the presentation address and Mayor James Rolph, Jr., will accept the statue for the city.

Benediction by the Rev. F. S. Feix, veteran of the Indian wars, will conclude the ceremonies.

Dormitory-Dining Hall for Trinity College Started

Washington, July 16.—Excavation work for the new Trinity College dormitory and dining-hall building, the cost of which has been estimated as approximately $300,000, has been completed, and the cornerstones will probably be laid in the fall. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in September 1928.

On the first floor, which will be equal to a story and a half in height, there will be two dining-rooms ordinarily separated by a lobby but capable of being thrown together. Each dining-room will accommodate 250 students. There will be the most modern of kitchen and storage equipment. The two floors above the dining rooms will contain fifty or sixty single rooms for students, which will take care of a portion of Trinity's waiting list.

When the excavations were being made, walls of masonry were struck and it is recalled that on this site, which for several years has been used for archery and tennis courts, the building of a chapel was begun in 1900 but subsequently discontinued.

Emile Male Chosen To French Academy

Paris, July 11.—The French Academy elected on its initial ballot, M. Emile Male, a student of religious art, to replace the poet Jean Richpin.

M. Male, aged 65 years, is director of the French School of Rome, in which office he succeeded Msgr. Duchesne. As professor of the history of art, he interested himself especially in religious art, traveling all over France, studying each of the cathedrals, making numerous sketches and photographs of statues, capitals, cloisters, etc. He has published several treatises on religious architecture, but his chief work is a magnificent history of "Religious Art in France in the Middle Ages". One critic wrote as follows of this work: "Artists will find in it all that should be known in order to comprehend, in its essence, the art richer in thought than any other that has ever existed."

Rosalie Levy, Jewish Convert, Writes New Book to Reach Jews

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
New York, July 12.—Rosalie Marie Levy, a convert from Judaism to Catholicism who has written a number of religious books, has prepared another book entitled "Judaism and Catholicism" which will be ready for distribution about the middle of August.

The book, it is said, is intended principally for Jews to enable them to see that "the Messiah promised in the Old Law has come in the Person of Our Lord Jesus Christ, and that He founded a Church—the Catholic Church—to which all should belong". Some of the chapters of the book are entitled "God and the Soul", "Religion", "The Chosen People", "The Messiah", "The Church of Christ", "Opposition to the Church" and "Sacraments of the Church."
