Prayer for Vocations Is Urged in October

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 26.—October will be a month of prayer and work for the encouragement of priestly and religious vocations, the devotion to be carried on in honor of the Blessed Virgin as Patroness of Vocations, it has been announced here by the Rev. Edward F. Garesche, S. J. This nation-wide crusade has now been conducted for several years. While prayers are requested throughout the year, the months of May and October, being especially dedicated to the Blessed Virgin, are urged as months of special effort.

"The need of more vocations to the priesthood and to the religious life of Sisters and Brothers is being more and more felt as Catholic activities multiply in the country," said Father Garesche. "It is the purpose of the crusade to obtain grace and help for all who are called to the religious life, that they may respond generously to this appeal. Our schools, hospitals and other institutions, and the home and foreign missions are all benefited."

Exercises of the crusade consist in daily prayers in religious houses, schools and parishes. Father Garesche has written a booklet called "A Month of Devotions to Mary, Patroness of Vocations," which contains a prayer for vocations to be said every day of the month.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—A check for $10,000 to defray the cost of the altar of St. Brigid of Ireland, recently erected in the crypt of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at the Catholic University of America here, was presented to the Rt. Rev. Bishop Thomas J. Shahan, Rector of the University, by Mrs. Mary Horan, national president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, on behalf of the organization, at the dedication ceremonies here Saturday.

Bishop Shahan responded with an address in which he thanked the donors and commended them for their educational and patriotic work, particularly during the World War. Bishop Shahan also was the principal speaker at a dinner given at the Raleigh Hotel Saturday night, at which representatives of the order from all sections of the United States were present. Foregoes Brilliant Operatic Prospects To Enter Priesthood

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)

Boston, Sept. 27.—Declining an assured contract as baritone with the Metropolitan Opera Company and all that such an opportunity implies, Arthur Hagan, one of the most promising young singers in America, has entered the St. John's Ecclesiastical Seminary, Brighton, to prepare for the priesthood.

Protégé of Otto Kahn, president of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York, and of Joseph C. Lannon, former owner of the Boston American League Baseball club, Mr. Hagan will sing henceforth only in the service of the Church.

Mr. Lannon was the first man of influence to hear the young man's splendid baritone voice. It was at Lannon's summer hotel, "The Balmams," in New Hampshire, and so impressed was he that he contrived to have Otto Kahn hear Hagan.

Opportunity for study and then advance study was opened for the boy, but while he availed himself of the opportunity, he kept steadfastly along the way he had mapped out, and entered Boston College.

Callahan-Murphy Film Is Criticized By English Paper

London, Sept. 19.—"The Callahans and the Murphys" was shown to the trade here this week, and the Universal film critic condemns it as likely to give offense to every Irishman and every Catholic who sees it. He thinks, however, that if the British distributors are prepared to introduce an introductory title, counteracting the insinuations of the picture, and to cut out the more offensive scenes, its exhibition might pass without protest.

The film has received a "universal certificate" from the British Board of Film Censors, which means that it may be shown without restriction. The Right Hon. T. P. O'Connor is the chairman of the Board.

May, next year, is the date of the general release of the picture. The Universal critic objects to the offensive characterization of two Irish families, and the use of the sign of the Cross as a means of provoking laughter.

"It would take a Dooley," he says, "to put the producers of this picture in their place. Without his consent anyone who did not know the Irish would conclude from 'The Callahans and the Murphys' that they were hard drinking, quarrelsome, senseless, dirty race."
