Four Irish Jesuits 50 Years In Order

Dublin, Oct. 1.—Four Irish Jesuits have just celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their entry into the Order. A fifth, who entered on the same day, has gone to his reward. The four, who met at Gardiner Street presbytery to rejoice in their jubilee, are Father Nicholas Tomkin, Father C. Farley, Father Michael Browne and Father Thomas Murphy.

Three are well known missionaries, while Father Tomkin is best known as having been successively Rector of Belvedere, Mungret and Clongowes Wood Colleges. He is now secretary to the provincial of the Irish Province, Father John Fahy.

Many in the United States will remember Father Thomas Murphy, who has made many missionary tours there.

The four jubiliarians received many messages of congratulation from all over Ireland, as well as from England and parts of the continent.

K. of C. Aid To Unemployed
Los Angeles, Sept. 3.—The Southern California chapter of the Knights of Columbus instituted an employment bureau recently that is now in active operation obtaining work for the unemployed. Since it was started, the employment has been found for 45, many have been materially aided and 350 applications have been filed. The chapter also endorsed the program of Brother Barnabas and agreed to sponsor a boyology course this fall.

Abbey, Closed After 600 Years, To Reopen

Paris, Oct. 1.—The restoration of the ancient Abbey of Nonenque which was founded in 1145 by Gaurand, Abbot of Sylvane, is now being actively carried on. On its completion the historic building will be opened for the return of the Char treuse nuns who were exiled to Belgium after the passage of the French laws expelling religious congregations.

The Abbey of Nonenque, which is in the Department of Aveyron, in Southern France, was closed in 1760, but during its six hundred years of life it counted among its abbesses the daughters of some of the greatest families of the Auvergne, notably one of the de Castelnau. The last Abbess of Nonenque was the Reverend Mother Felicie de Pardailhon.

African Missioners Assigned
Dublin, Sept. 26.—The Very Rev. Father Slattery, Provincial of the Society of the African Missions, has made the following appointments: The Rev. T. J. Donoghue, Diocese of Killaloe, the Rev. T. Hughes, and the Rev. P. Hurst, Diocese of Tuam, and the Rev. A. O'Haire, Diocese of Clonfert, all to Lagos; the Rev. J. Deryn Clonfert, the Rev. T. Green, Tuam, the Rev. W. Keary, Achonry, and the Rev. D. O'Connell, all to Nigeria; and the Rev. R. O'Leary, Cork, and the Rev. L. Nevin, Tuam, to Liberia.

Union Of Holy Name To Foster Vocations

Sacramento, Calif., October 7.—At the quarterly conference of the Holy Name Society of the Sacramento diocese, resolutions were adopted pledging the support of members of the society to foster vocations for the priesthood among Catholic boys and young men; to encourage any inclination toward the priesthood that may appear in their own families; to deliberate on ways and means of obtaining candidates for the priesthood in their several parishes, and to cooperate with the bishop and the clergy in obtaining a greater number of students for the priesthood.

Southern Catholic Woman, A Member Of Old Klan, Dead

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 6.—Mrs. Bridgett Agnes Friel, 87 years old, a devout Catholic and during the dark days of the Southern reconstruction one of the few Tennessee women who took the oath of allegiance to the original Ku Klux Klan, died here lately.

Born in Leesburg, Va., in 1840, Mrs. Friel came to Tennessee with her parents, Bartholomew and Bridgett O'Brien Rooney, who settled in Maury county. On her mother's side she was a descendant of Michael O'Brien, a revolutionary soldier.

Her first husband, Charles MacCormac, died in a Confederate camp in the first years of the Civil War. In the late sixties she was married to Captain James Friel, who had served in the First Texas Cavalry of the Confederate army. After the war, when the first Klan was formed by a group of young Southerners at Pulaski, Mrs. Friel, an ardent sympathizer, joined her aid to that of other women of the section in protecting their homes.

The Klan of post-civil war days, it will be remembered, was distinct from the present-day ignorant and bigoted body which has appropriated the older organization's name. In the original Klan there was no religious intolerance.

Birth Control So Far A Breeder of Sorrow, Says Kathleen Norris

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Washington, D. C., October 8.—"Motherhood, the mothering of the race, solves all the problems of the sex; a world full of good mothers would be a world full of harmony, goodness, peace, and delight," writes Kathleen Norris, in an article entitled "The Fun of Being a Mother," appearing in the September issue of the Pictorial Review.

Mrs. Norris confesses that ever since she began to think at all, everything that has to do with mothers, such as children, nurseries, babyhood, training and teaching, have seemed the supremely fundamental and important things of life.

The most important things in the world are those that go on at home, Mrs. Norris believes. The most thrilling responsibilities, enterprises and events are those the mother of young children experiences. Nothing else in the world compares in importance with the mother's particular job, which is the bearing and rearing of children. Mrs. Norris concedes that women usually do not see it that way, for the reason that for hundreds of years the world has been lying to them about what is vital to their happiness.

"I disagree with the advocates of birth control," Mrs. Norris continues, "because motherhood, rightly taken, is so much the most exquisite, the most satisfying, the most important part of any woman's life; because children are so infinitely dear and valuable; because the occupation of bearing them, raising and training and studying them, is the real business of the nation; because when they are pushed aside for the stupid material things we fight so hard for nowadays their baffled fathers and mothers grow hard and dull, discontented and miserable."

"It is my own profound conviction that more sorrow, illness, loneliness, frustration, have come, case for case, to the women of the world, through denying motherhood, already in these very first years of birth control, than the sum total of the different trials that have come to the distracted and overburdened mothers of large and unregulated families.

"No, control everything else first! Control passions if you can, control rents and food prices, control amusements and luxuries, come down to life in one or two rooms, to plainer fare and fewer dissipation. But let every woman appreciate, in her very childhood, that life is the crown of life, and that it is her amazing privilege to give it."

G. A. R. Convention Grets Bro. Dutton, Apostle To Lepers

Grand Rapids, Mich., October 8.—Fulfilling a tradition of many years' standing, the Grand Army of the Republic, at the closing session of its national encampment here recently, officially despatched a message of greeting to a comrade Brother Joseph Dutton, Catholic worker in the famous leper colony at Molokai, H. I., who is often called the successor of Father Damien. Along with the greetings, a large supply of tobacco and pipes was sent.

Brother Dutton, despite his many years among the unfortunates of the island, retains an active interest in the affairs of the G. A. R. and the annual message from his old comrades in arms never fails to enthrall him in his far-away home.

No character in American history is more colorful than that of this Catholic servant of Christ. After serving in the Union army and receiving an honorable discharge with the rank of captain, Joseph Dutton returned to his home in Janesville, Wis. Here he engaged in business with success. One day, however, after reading about the work of Father Damien among the lepers, he wrote the famous leper missionary and offered his services. The offer was accepted, and for nearly fifty years now, Brother Dutton has devoted his life to the lepers. His work has been praised by Presidents, doctors and noted writers throughout the world.

Cardinal Hayes Will Attend Men's Council Meeting at Detroit

Dolle, executive secretary, announced here today. The mass meeting is to be held in Orchestra Hall, the evening of October 17. John W. Smith, Mayor of Detroit will deliver an address of welcome.

The Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, Bishop of Detroit and host of the convention, will preside at this meeting. The Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrembs, Bishop of Cleveland and Episcopal Chairman of the Department of Lay Organizations, N. C. W. C., will attend the meeting.

Strasbourg Congress Postponed

Paris, October.—Because of serious and unavoidable difficulties which developed at the last moment, the first International Congress of Catholic Charitable Organizations which was to have been held at Strasbourg from September 20 to 24, had to be postponed. The date on which the congress will now be held has not yet been fixed.

The Directing Committee has announced that it will return their subscriptions to those who express a desire to have them returned, but adds that since considerable expense has been incurred in preparations it will be grateful to those who find it possible to forfeit their subscrip-

The Committee also asks the reporters to leave their manuscripts temporarily at its disposal. Expressions of gratitude have been sent to the local committee at Strasbourg, which "accomplished a really model" work of preparation, as well as to the International Secretariat of Lucerne. Thanks also are extended to all collaborators.
