Communications solicited from all Catholics accompanied in every instance by the name of the author.

Remittances may be made at our risk either by draft, express or registered letter addressed to J. Ryan, Business Manager.

Discontinuance—The JOURNAL will be sent to every subscriber until ordered stopped and all arrearages are paid up.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1928.

TELEPHONE, MAIN 1567.

Registered as second class mail matter.

Religion Not 1928 Issue

One may not always agree with Mark Sullivan's premises or conclusions but it cannot be gainsaid that he is a forceful writer who selects plausible plots for his political articles.

Tobacco A Weed.

Once in a while the "Democrat Chronicle" lets loose as the old Post Express used to do on inconsequential but none the less interesting topics.

"Alienism".

The New York "World" in this wise disposes of the latest charge of "alienism" brought against the Catholic Church by the Ku Klux Klan.

Weekly Calendar Of Feast Days

Sunday, January 8.—St. Apollinaris, the Apologist, was Bishop of Hierapolis in Phrygia and was one of the most illustrious prelates of the second age.

Senatorial Disgrace

The average radical does not want to be crossed, but he insists upon crossing every one else.

Mr. Nier and Mr. Cuff Honored.

It is a real pleasure to chronicle the appointments of George J. Nier as commissioner of public safety and of Mr. Cuff as city attorney.

UNION TRUST COMPANY

Statement of Condition December 31, 1927

Table with columns for RESOURCES and LIABILITIES. Resources include U.S. Government Bonds, Bonds and Mortgages, Loans, Cash on Hand and in Banks, Bank Buildings, Furniture and Fixtures, Other Assets. Liabilities include Capital Stock, Surplus and Undivided Profits, Deposits, Dividends Payable, Reserved for Interest, etc.

---from President's Message to Stockholders

DURING the year 1927 we have focused our efforts mainly along two fundamental lines: to make of Union Trust Company an even sounder bank, and to render it also a still more serviceable institution.

At the beginning of the year 1928 I feel that we go forward, in a better position than we ever have been, to serve the personal and business money needs of Rochester and vicinity—not just as a bank but as a corps of qualified financial experts.
