Catholics Bound By Official Oaths; Gov. Smith Meant

Msgr. Childwick, former chaplain of Battleship Maine, Tells Holy Name Men Obligation On Public Officers.
New York, Jan. 2.—Any Catholic who takes an oath as a public official to administer the affairs of a community, State or Nation, is bound in conscience to fulfill that oath, no matter what interest, party or friend may seek to swerve him from it, Msgr. John P. Childwick, pastor of St. Agnes' Church, declared yesterday from the pulpit of St. Patrick's Cathedral, in the course of a sermon to more than 5000 members of the Holy Name Society. Msgr. Childwick was chaplain of the battleship Maine, when she was sunk in Havana harbor in February, 1898.
Since Gov. Alfred E. Smith removed his legal residence from his home in Oliver street to the Biltmore hotel, he has been a member of Msgr. Childwick's parish.
"Even if it could be supposed that a churchman should approach him for favor," said Msgr. Childwick on the subject of a public official's obligations under his oath of office, "he would be compelled to stand by his oath and deny the favor."
Gov. Smith in mind.
Msgr. Childwick, asked after the Mass if he had Governor Smith in mind when he preached the sermon, replied:
"That is exactly whom I did mean."
What Msgr. Childwick said on the subject of a public official's fealty to his oath of office was this:
"Your Church teaches you that the man who swears to safeguard, protect, and properly administer the affairs of a community, State or Nation, is bound by his oath, no matter what interest, party or friend may try to swerve him from it.
"The violation of an oath is a serious sin for which repentance and amendment are required before forgiveness can be obtained. It matters not who or what may be the person or object to be favored. The oath to fulfill the office comes first and before all other considerations.
"Breach of Oath Sin.
"You Catholic men of public trust know this obligation. Your Church will hold you responsible for every breach of trust against the people. She can not and will not ask you to sin against the God she serves and bring contempt upon the name of Him you invoked to witness your fidelity to the oath. Your sworn duty to the people must be fulfilled. The Church herself can not and will not be an influence which would in any way cause such a breach of faith."

Secondary Intention Given Apostleship Of Prayer By Pope

New York, Jan. 3.—The Rev. Charles J. Mullaly, S. J., national director of the Apostleship of Prayer for the United States, announces that the Holy See directs that the 30,000-000 Associates of the Apostleship of Prayer throughout the world hereafter add to the special intention, a second which will look to the particular needs of foreign missions. This second intention also is to be explained in the official organs of the League.
Father Mullaly, as national director of the Apostleship of Prayer in the United States, is sending out to all the diocesan directors of the league a copy of a letter from the Director General Delegate in Rome, in which the urgent desire of the Holy Father for prayers for the missions is set forth. Hereafter the national director of the league will furnish, from the national office here, explanations of these secondary intentions at the same time that the monthly "League Leaflets" are issued.
For the month of January there is no distinct secondary intention recommended, as the primary intention is "The Church in China." For February, when the league is asked to pray for "Love of Our Enemies," the secondary intention is "For the Missions of the Holy Land and the Conversion of the Jews."

Catholics Are Jews "Full-Blown", Priest Says in Lecture

New York, Jan. 3.—In the first of a series of six lectures on "The Papacy and Modern Man," the Rev. Cornelius Clifford, pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Mercy, Whippany, N. J., and lecturer in philosophy in the Post-Graduate Department of Columbia University, speaking at the residence of Clarence H. Mackay here yesterday, declared his chief aim was the intelligent study of "this strange prejudice which leads men to still look upon the Papacy as some power not in sympathy with modern progress."
Referring to the contribution of the Jews to the Christian religion, Father Clifford said Jesus and his Mother Mary were Jews, and asserted that a Catholic was a "full-blown Jew."
"We would have been impossible as a religious factor," he said, "if the Jews had not come first."
At the fifth conference, which will be held February 6 at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Walker of this city, Father Clifford will discuss the Vatican decrees and civil allegiance, and will speak on Bismarck, Gladstone and Governor Alfred E. Smith.

Dr. Walsh Regards C. P. A. Awards Plan As Aid To Writers

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Chicago, Jan. 2.—The proposed Catholic Literary Awards Foundation to be created by the Catholic Press Association would be a much needed encouragement to young Catholic writers, says Dr. James J. Walsh of New York, himself a writer of note, in a letter accompanying his check for a life membership in the C. P. A. The life membership fees are to be used to establish the Foundation.
"I am sending you my check for my life membership fee in the Catholic Press Association in connection with the Catholic Literary Awards Foundation," Dr. Walsh writes.
"I know how much encouragement the Catholic writer needs. I know that he has a hard row to hoe, and that it is rather discouraging. I am very glad, then, that a movement of this kind is being initiated and I hope sincerely that it be brought successfully to a close.
"A foundation of this kind in perpetuity may very well prove an incentive for the beginning of literary work early in life, and that is the only way to get them going properly.
"All good wishes, then, for the success of your efforts."

Pan-American Union Planning $4,000,000 Columbus Memorial

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 3.—A monster light, flashing a 100-mile beam at intervals of a few seconds from the top of a $4,000,000 memorial to Christopher Columbus at the harbor entrance of Santo Domingo City, is the plan just disclosed by the Pan-American Union in furtherance of a movement started 75 years ago fittingly to honor the discoverer of America. The great light also would mark the location of an aviation field.
According to the plan, the bones of Columbus by some authorities held to be reposing in the ancient cathedral of Santo Domingo City, will be removed to the new memorial, which is expected to be completed within two years.
The Dominican government already has appropriated $300,000 to start the work, and has donated 2,500 acres for a Pan-American park on which the memorial lighthouse will be erected. Not alone will the powerful beacon guide ships at sea in memory of Columbus, but also ships of the air carrying on constant and growing communication between the North and South American continents.
Officials of the Pan-American Union envisage no difficulty in raising some $4,000,000 needed to develop the project.

St. Louis U. Graduate Given High Honors

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
St. Louis, Jan. 2.—Word has been received at St. Louis University here from Rome that the Rev. Father Michael J. Grunthamer, S. J., a graduate of St. Louis University Divinity School, successfully passed an examination before the Biblical Commission at Rome with high honors.
The examination taken several weeks ago in Rome consisted of first a criticism of the Book of Ecclesiastes and of the second book of Ecclesiastics, in Hebrew; a criticism of St. Paul's epistle to the Romans, in Greek; an examination in the Assyrian language and selected questions on scriptural topics in general. Subsequently Father Grunthamer appeared before Cardinal Van Rossum, president of the Biblical Commission, and read and defended his thesis on "The Authority and Date of Daniel."

Dr. Chas. C. Conroy Made Papal Knight

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Word has been received here that knighthood in the Sacred Pontifical and Military Order of the Holy Sepulchre has been conferred on Dr. Chas. C. Conroy, formerly editor of The Tidings, published here.
When the Rt. Rev. John J. Cantwell, Bishop of Los Angeles, opened the Los Angeles Catholic Girls' High school, five years ago, he appointed Dr. Conroy to head the history department both for the high school and the summer school for teachers. Subsequently he was appointed to the faculty of the new junior seminary, for the training of young men for the priesthood.
Dr. Conroy has been a Fellow of the Royal Astronomical Society of London for fifteen years and has done original research in the secular variation of the light of stars as well as in history of astronomy.

What's the Difference between a truss that holds your rupture perfectly and one that does not?
—Just This—
With a truss that holds perfectly you are enjoying life—the original Ring is gradually getting smaller and while we never promise a cure your condition will improve under our treatment. With a truss that does not hold you are in danger of strangulation. The rupture is constantly getting larger because the Ring is breaking down.
