By THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL

This Page Published Every Friday
HERE'S THE PLAN. Four substantial prizes will be offered each week during the run of this contest. The First Prize will be $4.00 in trade with the advertisers on this page; the Second Prize, $3.00; the Third Prize, $2.00 and the Fourth Prize, $1.00.
When you have satisfied yourself that you have answered the questions correctly send the answers to "Contest Editor," The Catholic Journal, so that it will reach this office not later than Tuesday noon. The FIRST FOUR correct answers will be awarded the prizes and announcement of prize winners will be made each week.
All answers must be mailed. DO NOT bring your answers in person to The Catholic Journal Office, as they will not be accepted. In the event of a tie, that is, if four or more contestants answer correctly, the letters bearing the earliest post marks will be awarded the prizes. Neatness will also be considered by the judges in making the awards.
Everybody is eligible to compete except employees of The Catholic Journal and their families, but must be a member of a family who subscribes for the Journal.
Answers to above questions will appear in this space next Friday. Look them over and see how near you came to answering all correctly.

ANSWERS SERIES NO. 28
1. Puritans wished to remain in the established Church of England, but bring about many reforms; the Pilgrims were Separatists, who wished to break away from the established church and found a new form. (a) They settled in America to have freedom of worship; (b) they went to Holland, but not being satisfied to bring up their children under the Dutch government, they secured ships and set out for the New World; (c) they landed at Plymouth in December, 1620, suffered from sickness and hunger, but founded a thriving colony.
2. In the New England towns, during the colonial period, laws were very strict and severe. Distinction in dress marked the higher and lower classes of society. People were strict in morals and everyone had to attend church on Sunday. The names of drunkards were posted on the ale-houses and the keepers forbidden to sell them liquor. All conduct was shaped according to the literal interpretation of the scripture.
3. In Virginia there were no villages, but large plantations where the proprietors lived, surrounded by numerous servants. The people lived like English lords, keeping their packs of hunting dogs and their stables of blooded horses. The slaves did all the work, while their masters spent their time in entertainment and pleasure.
4. The territory claimed by European powers early in the 17th century was, Spain, land south of the Atlantic river and the West Indies; English, the Atlantic coast; French, the region of the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence river; Dutch, New Netherland.
5. (a) James Oglethorpe settled a colony for oppressed debtors in 1733 and called it Georgia, after the King of England; (b) Lord Baltimore settled Maryland as a home for oppressed Catholics; (c) Roger Williams settled Rhode Island and welcomed men of all religions who fled from persecution.
6. Manufacturing and commerce were not carried on extensively in the colonies for the following reasons. 1. The resources were not developed enough to make it profitable. 2. Hostile Indians rendered trade dangerous. 3. Jealousies between the different colonies tended to discourage it.
7. (a) Diseases and attack from Indians nearly destroyed the colony of Jamestown. The colonists were mostly gentlemen who would not work. Not until they had a governor who divided up the land among them and forced them all to till the soil did they succeed; (b) the first winter at Plymouth was the scene of severe suffering owing to lack of proper food and shelter. Had they not been sturdy men willing to work, the colony would have failed.
8. The Huguenots were French Catholics, followers of Calvin. Politically all colonists of Plymouth were equal. Town meetings to elect officers were at first held. Later as their number increased, representatives were elected and sent to Plymouth.
9. Iowa, Missouri, Arkansas, Nebraska.
10. The Erie canal was completed in 1825, while DeWitt, Clinton was governor. It extends from Albany to Buffalo and cost $14,000 per mile.
On March 29, 1806, Congress authorized the President to appoint commissioners to lay out a road from Cumberland, on the Potomac, to the Ohio river, and $30,000 were appropriated for expense. In 1838 the road was completed as far as Illinois, after which date no more appropriations were made.
11. Old Ironsides was written by Oliver W. Holmes; Star Spangled Banner by Francis Scott Key; and Battle Hymn of the Republic by Julia Ward Howe.

Brussels, April 2.—The Belgian government has just named as Chevalier of the Order of Leopold a French priest, Father Teilhard de Chardin, who is a contributor to the Royal Museum of Natural History and was formerly president of the Geological Society of France. The award is made for "exceptional services rendered to the Museum and to paleontological accomplishment."
Formerly, Father Teilhard, accompanied by Father Licent, undertook a voyage for geological research in Mongolia. In this they were encouraged and aided by the Academician.
