

500 Rooms Enlarged For U. S. Pilgrims To Sydney Congress

San Francisco, April 16.—Five hundred rooms in Sydney hotels have been reserved for the accommodation of American pilgrims to the Twenty-ninth International Eucharistic Congress...

Officials Of Klan Sponsored Riots, Lynching, Charge

Member of Pennsylvania Branch of Order Admits Part in Attempt To Kill Man. Pittsburgh, Pa., April 16.—Attempted lynchings and riots were sponsored by officials of the Ku Klux Klan in Pennsylvania and urged by its national officers...

Coercion Will Fail. To Unite Ireland, Blythe Declares

Dublin, April 10.—Answering John Lemass, a member of the Fianna Fail party, Ernest Blythe, Vice-President of the Irish Free State, declared in the Dail, a few days ago, that the union of North and South Ireland "can only come by consent..."

N. C. W. C. Lay Bodies To Be Represented At Paris Congress

Washington, April 12.—The Department of Lay Organizations of the National Catholic Welfare Conference—the National Council of Catholic Men and the National Council of Catholic Women—is participating in the International Congress on Family Life to be held in Paris next June...

Business Review Page

Blessed Sacrament and St. Mary's Parish Section

CRAMER DRUG STORES EAST AVE. at Chestnut St. DEWEY AVE. at Magee

Sacred Heart Parish Section

DE VISSER BROS. HARDWARE "DUCCO PAINTS" HOWELL'S BAKERY

E. KIRBY & SON Meats Fish Fresh Vegetables

MOVING—When and as You want it—STORAGE

Fresh Home Meats ANDREWS MARKET 78 FRONT ST.

J. C. CLANCY CARTING CO. Furniture Moved, Packed, Stored

RADIO: AT WATER-KENT Just the Best! WE ARE SPECIALISTS!

McGarvey Coal Co., Inc. Anthracite and Bituminous

Pasteurized Milk, Cream and Churned Buttermilk

Trusses and Abdominal Belts Expert Fitting—Satisfaction Guaranteed

Good Friday Open Air Service In London

French Cardinals Send Sympathy To Mexican Bishops

Santa Barbara Boys' Band Reorganized

New York Cathedral Librarian Is Dead

Priests And Nuns Freed By Bandits

Missioners Answer Call From Faithful

Retreats For Irish Free State Troops In Passion Week

English Magistrate Won't Let Witness Use Catholic Bible

Mgr. Duane G. Hunt Salt Lake Diocese Vicar-General

Salt Lake City, April 12.—The Very Rev. Mgr. Duane G. Hunt, Vicar-General of the Cathedral of the Madeleine, has been appointed by the Rt. Rev. John J. Mitty, Bishop of Salt Lake, to be Vicar-General of the Diocese...

Wore Dragon's Robe Burelay Told Freely he Attempted and Asserted that he was clothed in the Grand Dragon's purple robe for the affair...

He also told of juggling of membership lists so as to avoid payment of dues at the national headquarters. Sixty thousand members were "bootlegged" into the Pittsburgh Klan, he declared, and the national office had no record of them.

Armed Men Attack Bus On Outskirts Of Mexican Capital

Mexico City, April 16.—For the second time in a fortnight, a large band of men boldly appeared on the outskirts of Mexico City itself Sunday and, at the points of guns, conducted a wholesale levy of tribute on motorists.

Catholic Industrial Problems Conference To Be In Cincinnati

Washington, April 13.—The sixth annual meeting of the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems, will be held in Cincinnati, June 30 and 31, it has just been announced by the office of the secretary here.

Bengalese Mothers Cared For By Nuns

Bengal, India, April 9.—About 500,000 children under the age of five die annually in the Bengal district, about 200,000 before reaching the age of one year. From 50,000 to 75,000 mothers die in childbirth. This is due mainly to the reluctance of Hindus or Mussulmans to permit government doctors to enter their homes.

French Cardinals Send Sympathy To Mexican Bishops

Paris, April 10.—French cardinals and archbishops at their annual assembly urged all the bishops to sign an expression of sympathy to the Mexican episcopate, and have requested priests to subscribe at least five francs each towards the relief of Mexican Catholics. The address to the Mexican hierarchy follows:

Santa Barbara Boys' Band Reorganized

Santa Barbara, Calif., April 10.—Forty new instruments have been purchased for the Knights of Columbus boys' band to replace those which were destroyed under falling masonry at the time of the earthquake there, two years ago.

New York Cathedral Librarian Is Dead

New York, April 10.—Funeral services for Miss Mary C. O'Meara, an active worker in St. Patrick's cathedral parish for more than thirty years, were held in the cathedral today. She died Sunday morning. The Rt. Rev. Mgr. Michael J. Lavelle, rector, was the celebrant of the Mass of requiem.

Priests And Nuns Freed By Bandits

Techy, Ill., April 16.—Word has been received by the Divine Word Fathers that their Mission Procure here that the missionary priests and Sisters seized and held prisoner by Chinese bandits when the Catholic mission at Puoli, China, in charge of Divine Word missionaries, was overwhelmed and looted have now been freed. No details of their rescue have been received as yet, however.

Missioners Answer Call From Faithful

Lanchow, Kansu, China.—At the request of several German Catholics living in the neighborhood of Atchou, in the province of Szechuan, that a priest be sent to minister to them at least once a year, Father Thomas Stanhan, a Catholic missionary, has determined to do so.

Retreats For Irish Free State Troops In Passion Week

Dublin, April 13.—Retreats for the troops of the Free State were held in all the military barracks during Passion week. The opening services of the retreats included the reading of the Act of Consecration of Ireland to the Sacred Heart. The opening service at Arthur's Hill barracks, Dublin, was attended by Major General Brennan, Adjutant-General.

English Magistrate Won't Let Witness Use Catholic Bible

London, April 16.—A controversy over religious procedure in the civil courts has arisen from the refusal of the West Ham police magistrate, Mr. St. John Morrow, to allow a Catholic witness to take the oath on the Gospels. Augustine J. Harris, an investigation officer of the West Ham Guardians, asked permission to swear on the Gospels. He produced a copy from his pocket, but the magistrate would not allow its use. Eventually Mr. Harris was made to affirm, a procedure followed in the case of atheists.

Missioners Answer Call From Faithful

Lanchow, Kansu, China.—At the request of several German Catholics living in the neighborhood of Atchou, in the province of Szechuan, that a priest be sent to minister to them at least once a year, Father Thomas Stanhan, a Catholic missionary, has determined to do so.

Retreats For Irish Free State Troops In Passion Week

Dublin, April 13.—Retreats for the troops of the Free State were held in all the military barracks during Passion week. The opening services of the retreats included the reading of the Act of Consecration of Ireland to the Sacred Heart. The opening service at Arthur's Hill barracks, Dublin, was attended by Major General Brennan, Adjutant-General.

English Magistrate Won't Let Witness Use Catholic Bible

London, April 16.—A controversy over religious procedure in the civil courts has arisen from the refusal of the West Ham police magistrate, Mr. St. John Morrow, to allow a Catholic witness to take the oath on the Gospels. Augustine J. Harris, an investigation officer of the West Ham Guardians, asked permission to swear on the Gospels. He produced a copy from his pocket, but the magistrate would not allow its use. Eventually Mr. Harris was made to affirm, a procedure followed in the case of atheists.

English Magistrate Won't Let Witness Use Catholic Bible

London, April 16.—A controversy over religious procedure in the civil courts has arisen from the refusal of the West Ham police magistrate, Mr. St. John Morrow, to allow a Catholic witness to take the oath on the Gospels. Augustine J. Harris, an investigation officer of the West Ham Guardians, asked permission to swear on the Gospels. He produced a copy from his pocket, but the magistrate would not allow its use. Eventually Mr. Harris was made to affirm, a procedure followed in the case of atheists.

Catholic Charities Benefit Under Will

Los Angeles, April 10.—Two Catholic charities and a Protestant children's home are to share in an estate of $250,000 disposed of in the will of Mrs. Eugene Thompson Maguire, Hills, who died on March 22.

Catholic Charities Benefit Under Will

Los Angeles, April 10.—Two Catholic charities and a Protestant children's home are to share in an estate of $250,000 disposed of in the will of Mrs. Eugene Thompson Maguire, Hills, who died on March 22.