Sending of Catholic Services By Radio Urged In Ireland
Dublin, April 17.—The Irish Catholic papers have initiated a campaign for the broad-casting of Catholic religious services and one such service has been broadcast. This was a Benediction service from Waterford. Father Edward O'Connor, who is taking the lead in the movement, gives credit to the British Broadcasting Company for according to religion "a fair share of their program."
The religious matter sent out by the British Broadcasting Company is exclusively Anglican. This is the only religious program broadcast in England or Ireland.

That there is a demand for the relaying of such lectures is evident from the fact that the churches were unable to accommodate all who sought admission to the lectures.
The Broadcasting network of the United States in New York and of Notre Dame University in Belgium, are cited as examples that should be followed in Ireland.

Catholic Welfare Work Is Pressed
Los Angeles, April 14.—An aspect of Catholic social service work here has been emphasized in a letter sent by the principal of a Los Angeles public school to the Rev. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, director of the Catholic Welfare Union. "The Father Billers."
"I cannot tell you how deeply I appreciate the splendid work for welfare organization is doing in the community. Your organization has done much for the school and for the welfare of your workers. It was a pleasure to have you all here."

During Lent many churches, notably the Church of the Jesuit Fathers here, provided lectures for the Catholic population. These lectures were regarded as suitable for broadcasting. Nevertheless, the Dublin or Cork radio stations failed to arrange for having them relayed to the station.
