Administrative Committee Of N.C.W.C. Meets

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 2 - The Administrative Committee of the National Catholic Welfare Conference met here at the residence of His Grace the Most Rew. Austin Dowling, Archbishop of St. Paul, and at Nazareth Hall, the preparatory seminary, Juy 28 and 29.

Ordinarily, the Administrative Committee meets in September Just before the General Meeting of the Cardinals, Archbishops and Bishops at the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C. This year, however, the General meeting was postponed to November because some of the Archbishops and Bishops will attend the Eucharistic Congress at Sydney in September.

HOLY FATHER ONCE LEANED SERIOUSLY TOWARD ART CAREER Rome, July 30. - During a visit to an exhibition of drawings and paintings produced by the pupils at the Oratorio di Pietro, the institution established and supported here by the Knights of Columbus for the Holy See, Pope Plus XI reverted that in his youth he displayed a decided leaning toward art, and seriously pursued it's study for some years

The Holy Father was standing before a group of exhibit pictures when he recalled this early inclination. His taste for art, he said, manifested fixelf in his youth and his study was serious. During his early adolescence, boxes of paints, brushes and other materials for drawing and painting were his favorite presents, he added.
