Rochester Theatre

"Harold Teen", the drug store cowboy with Oxford bags and a weakness for Shebas, whose antics on comic pages throughout the country have entertained millions, has turned to the screen and comes in that form to The Refrigerated Rochester Theatre, beginning Sunday, August 26th. The title role of Harold Teen is played by Arthur Lake, the juvenile comedian who has been scoring repeatedly of late. Mary Brian plays his sweetie, "Lilium" and Alice White is the high school vamp, "Giggles".

Trixie Friganza, the internationally known comedienne will headline the vaudeville portion of the program for the week in an entirely new vehicle, "My Bag of Tricks", written especially for the star by Neville Flesoon. Miss Friganza will sing some new songs in her own characteristic manner. Theodore Beked and Company, The Broadway Limited Dancers, billed as the fastest things afoot, comprise six talented steppers, should add plenty of pep to the program. The company brings its own elaborate stage settings and also boasts their own musical director.

Dan Garrett & Company of three artists will offer a merry little skit, "Just a Pal", as their contribution to the program. Farrell and Chadwick, two chumby entertainers from below the Mason Dixie line, will entertain with songs, comedy, steps and piano selections. The act is billed, "Songs from Melodyland." Bordner and Boyer will open the vaudeville revue with a sensational acrobatic novelty.

Manager Thomas D. Soriero announces the "Street Angel", starring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell as the first complete Movietone picture to be presented in Rochester. The picture has been the reigning hit of New York theatre-goers for the past six months, playing the Globe Theatre for that time at three dollars and thirty cent admission prices and recently completing a world-breaking record at the famous Roxy Theatre, New York, of four weeks. There will be positively no increase in the popular price policy of the Rochester for the engagement of "Street Angel".

Better Ironing in Less Time

You can do quicker and better ironing with the Rainbow Automatic Ironer than by hand or with any other machine.

The Finger-Tip Control Bar is conveniently placed the entire length of the feed table. A slight pressure of the finger tip anywhere on the bar operates the mechanism which moves the ironing shoe to and from the padded roll. Your hands are always free to guide the work smoothly.

Let us explain the machine and the special payment plan and then do your next ironing for you.
