Vicar-General Dies In Palestine Mishap

By Dr. Alexander Mombelli
(Jerusalem Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service)
Jerusalem, Aug. 27.—After two days of suffering, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Antonio Faragalli, Vicar-General to the Latin Patriarch of Jerusalem for the missions in Transjordan, died here, Aug. 11. Msgr. Faragalli was a victim of a motor accident while traveling from Amman, his residency, to the Latin parish church of Hossan in the desert.
The death of this zealous priest, only 39 years old, is for the Latin Patriarchate a very grave loss, because in his capacity of Vicar-General he was able to gain the entire confidence of the clergy, the civil authorities and the faithful.
Msgr. Faragalli went to Palestine when a boy and performed his study in the Seminary of the Latin Patriarchate, where he was working as a priest until the Great War brought him as a prisoner to Turkey. After the War he was secretary to the Apostolic Delegate in Persia. Last year he came back from Rome to work for several weeks and has Jerusalem, and after some months of Rectorship at the new Sanctuary, "Queen of Palestine," at Rafat, he was appointed Vicar-General.

Non-Catholic City Official Heads Fete For Catholic Parish

(By N. C. W. C. News Service)
San Francisco, Sept. 6. — Doctor Thomas E. Shumate, Police Commissioner and prominent civic leader, who is a non-Catholic, has accepted the general chairmanship of the civic Autumn Festival, to be held here October 30 to November 3 to assist in reducing the indebtedness on the new St. Dominic's Church which has been acclaimed by one art expert as the handsomest parish church in the world.
Dr. Shumate has added the Dominican Fathers in numerous activities in the past, and has been identified with scores of Catholic charitable, welfare and building activities. He will be assisted in the coming Fall Festival by a citizen's committee of several hundred men and women of all creeds and walks of life, from all sections of San Francisco.

Dr. Sheen Sails For U. S.

London, Sept. 3.—Dr. Fulton J. Sheen, of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D. C., is sailing for the United States tomorrow. He has been engaged here in literary work for several weeks and has preached two courses of sermons, one at Westminster Cathedral and the other at the historic Church of St. Patrick, Soho square.
