Laymen's Retreat Association, Michael Williams, president of the Calvert Associates and editor of The Commonwealth, said:
 "We believe the question of religious intolerance, which has become manifest during the present campaign, far transcends in importance any other issue. In effect, it is an ignominious admission that the founders of our Republic erred when they incorporated into the Constitution the right of every citizen to hold office regardless of religious affiliations."
 A special committee formed by the Calvert Associates to direct the fight nationally consists of: Ralph Adams Cram, Michael Williams, Col. William J. Donovan, Major-General Robert Lee Bullard, George Gordon Battle, Prof. Carlton J. E. Hayes of Columbia, Owen Johnson, Prof. Daniel Sargent of Harvard, Prof. David A. McCabe of Princeton and other leaders of all faiths.

Calvert Associates War On Intolerance

San Francisco, Oct. 23. — More than fifty thousand booklets denouncing religious bigotry and setting forth the teaching of the Roman Catholic Church on the allegiance of Catholics to the State, will be broadcast in California in a campaign against intolerance sponsored by the Calvert Associates of New York.
 In a statement sent to Philip J. Fitzgerald, secretary of the Catholic
