Philippine Dioceses Hit By Storm Share Pope's Contribution

(By N. C. W. C. News Service) Manila, Dec. 31.—The gift of $50,000 for the relief of those who suffered as a result of the recent typhoons in the Philippines is being forwarded to the Bishops of the province where the losses were greatest, it was announced today by the Most Rev. Guillermo Plana, Apostolic Delegate in Manila. Calling attention to the fact that the Philippines is being visited by a series of typhoons, he said: "Our duty is to manifest our sympathy by deeds, by hearing and following obediently his exhortations, transmitted to us through the bishops and the ministers, exhortations that are for our spiritual welfare and our moral progress, for the benefit of order, peace and progress of our country. Pius XI proves to us that he is a true and loving father and it is the duty of the good son to repay his love with obedience and loving respect; this is what we should do, his sons in the Philippines."

Let Us Study Our Real Needs

Dependable MERCHANTS, like dependable MERCHANDISE are essential to all successful cities. In every growing progressive city of the type of Rochester there are MERCHANTS, and there are merchants. Did you ever hear of John Wanamaker? Of course you did, and you know that he was called the PRINCE OF MERCHANTS. WHY? Principally, for the reason that he ADVERTISED his wares to those who had the money to buy. So it is with the MERCHANTS WHOSE NAMES and places you find on THIS PAGE and the other pages of THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL in each issue. They are DEPENDABLE; you can rest ASSURED of HONEST VALUES. They APPEAL because they can BACK UP their appeal. And that is the first principle of SUCCESS in BUSINESS.

Service First The Policy Of New Undertaking Firm

Service first. That is the policy of The Funeral Service, Inc., successors to Vito Cimino & Sons, 31 Lake Avenue. This new funeral service is equipped to supply caskets and to perform embalming promptly and neatly. The officers are: President, Joseph J. Buckley. Vice-President, V. W. Cimino. Sec.-Treas., V. P. Cimino. Commencing January 1st, The Funeral Service put into effect a standard schedule of rates for caskets, etc., their special object being to appeal to all classes. The Ciminos have been noted for their excellence in service, their courtesy has always been appreciated by relatives of deceased. At no time in a person's life does sympathetic service appeal so intimately as it does at the departure of a near and dear one. Mr. Buckley and the Ciminos have had many years experience as morticians, and they have earned a creditable reputation for honesty, quality and service. The grief stricken mother who has lost her child, the weeping widow, the widower bowed down in sorrow, the sobbing children mourning the loss of mother or father, all moving in the shadow of sorrow, are encouraged and lifted to carry their grief by the sympathetic services of the new Rochester Funeral Service. Also, and most important, is that this Funeral Service quotes honest prices on caskets and the customary funeral accessories.

Bishop Gallagher Scores Life Term For Mother of 10

Detroit, Jan. 12.—The habitual criminal act of the State of Michigan should be amended, in the opinion of the Rt. Rev. Michael J. Gallagher, Bishop of Detroit. The telegram sent in reply to a request from the New York World for a statement from him relative to the life sentence pronounced against Mrs. Etta Miller, mother of ten children, convicted of violation of the prohibition law. "The law in the case of Mrs. Miller, making the punishment of a transgression (which by its trivial nature cannot justly by law be made more than a misdemeanor) the same as the penalty for murder, life imprisonment, destroys the principle of proportion between crime and its sanction, and is a reversion to the brutality and barbarism of former ages, when in England a boy or girl could be hanged for stealing a loaf of bread. "Not only is the law in conflict with article eight of the constitution, forbidding the infliction of cruel and unusual punishments, but it subverts the basic principle of all law which requires that it be a dictate of right reason. "Law is defined as an ordinance of right reason promulgated by the governing authority to promote the public welfare. A law which is not in conformity with right reason is no law, it is tyranny. But right reason dictates that there be a gradation in the severity of punishment in proportion to the gravity and malice of the crime. The punishment should fit the crime, otherwise injustice is committed. The Michigan law in this case outrages right reason and the conscience of the whole state is in revolt against it. There should be a return to sanity. "The legislature, guided by right reason, and in accordance with progressive ideas, undaunted by outside intimidations, should modify the law, and the governor should pardon Mrs. Miller, who has suffered enough."

New Sect Enlists Followers In China (By N. C. W. C. News Service) Saigon, Cochinchina, Dec. 28.—Protestantism, introduced into Cochinchina by American workers, has been losing ground of late. On the other hand, a new sect by the name of Coadalism (from two Annamite words "cao" great, and "dai" palace) has been gaining many adepts. Though this sect was established only a year ago, it already has more than one hundred thousand followers. Coadalism proclaims itself as a synthesis of Buddhism, Confucianism, Christianity and spirit worship. Its main temple, near Tay Ninh in the north of Cochinchina, resembles a church. The altar is covered with lights and surrounded by incense. On the highest shelf of the altar is Buddha, on a lower level the Genius of Art and Industry, and, on the third level, a statue of the Sacred Heart, having on either side of it images of Lao-Tzu and Confucius. Coadalism was at first authorized by the Government of Cochinchina, but high officials of the country now fear that its propagandists have political motives.

Report Author Faces Trial For His Denial Of Calvary Refuted

Vienna, Dec. 31.—Reports from Berlin that the author of a book which denies the guilt of the Jews in the death of Christ on the cross would be forced to face trial for blasphemy have no foundation in fact. The author, a philosopher and member of the Evangelical Church, has faced no court action and none is believed probable. German law provides no punishment for those who publish false interpretations of history. There was no prosecution when, recently, a Protestant minister denied the divinity of Christ. It is believed here that the reports, which seem to have spread chiefly through the Jewish quarters, were designed as propaganda for a book which accuses the Jews of any guilt and denies that the Crucifixion occurred.
