CATHOLIC CLUB CHORUS GIVES ANNUAL CONCERT

Large Audience Enjoys Fifth Annual Program in Columbus Building Ballroom Thursday evening—Mrs. Joseph H. Eilers Chairman of the Chorus.

The fifth annual concert of the Catholic Women's Club Chorus was given in the ballroom of the Columbus Building at 8:30 o'clock last evening. The audience was a large and most appreciative one, and the concert was enjoyed to the fullest possible extent. The Chorus sang in splendid unison, and with a fine harmony that appealed to the audience. Every number was well rendered, and every number reflected credit upon the Chorus, its director and its officers.

A delightful feature of the program was the recitation of the words of Bendall's cantata, "The Lady of Shalott", previous to the rendition of the cantata by the Chorus, by Miss Mae G. Hughes of 414 Lexington Avenue. Miss Hughes is a talented elocutionist, and she rendered the words of the cantata in a way that brought out their full meaning and beauty. She was heartily applauded.

Another feature that won generous appreciation was the work of Miss Eileen Malone, harp soloist. She played beautifully, with perfect touch and real harmony, and the audience liked her numbers and gave them enthusiastic encores.

A Fine Program
The program was under the direction of Mr. Theodore Fitch, director of the Musical Clubs of the University of Rochester, and also on the faculty of the Eastman School of Music. The singing of the Chorus was a credit to the training given to the vocalists by Mr. Fitch for many weeks past. The program, as a fine one, was as follows:

"Daybreak".....Harris
"The Call of Home".....Ambrose
The Chorus

"Valse de Concert".....Hasselman
"Au Matin".....Tournier
Harp Solos, Eileen Malone

"Lullaby".....Drahms
"Peggy".....Cox
"The Years at the Spring".....Deach
The Chorus

Cantata—"The Lady of Shalott"
.....Bendall
Luella Brightman Davis and
The Chorus

Mrs. Joseph H. Eilers, chairman of the Chorus, received many warm compliments on the success of the concert. This is the second year Mrs. Eilers has been at the head of the Chorus, and her leadership has been proved to be of the right kind.

The accompanist of the evening was Miss Margaret Mary Drury, and her playing added greatly to the enjoyment of the audience, so excellent was it at all times. Mrs. Luella Davis-Brightman, soprano, was the soloist of the cantata, and her beautiful voice was heard to splendid advantage.

The hall was prettily decorated for the concert, and the event in all particulars was one that will be pleasantly remembered by all who were fortunate enough to be present. The Catholic Women's Club is to be congratulated upon having a Chorus well-trained and so efficient in the rendition of appealing numbers.

Catholic Chapel

Articles To Be Free Of Duty

New York, March 12.—A case of far reaching importance to Catholic hospitals and institutions having chapels was settled a few days ago by the United States Customs Court in this city. Heretofore collectors of customs in various parts of the country have assessed duty on articles imported for chapels on the assumption that these chapels were not strictly churches. It was taken for granted that these chapels were used for other events and not only for religious purposes.

The case which has just been decided in favor of institution chapels is that of the Diederich-Schaefer Company, church goods dealers of Milwaukee, Wis. The firm imported vestments for St. Alexis Hospital at Cleveland, Ohio, and when the vestments arrived in Milwaukee duty was assessed thereon at the rate of ninety per cent ad valorem under the tariff act of 1912. The collector assessed this duty in the belief that the said chapel was not a separate institution, like a church, but only a religious feature maintained in connection with St. Alexis Hospital.

The case was tried in Chicago early last fall, Judge Tilson presiding, and at the trial of this case, it was shown that the chapel was established solely for religious purposes, that although it was established primarily for the sisters and patients of the hospital, it was open to the public and that practically all of the Catholic ceremonies were celebrated in the said chapel. It was also shown that the importation in question had no other use than that of a vestment worn during the celebration of Mass.

It was made so clear the testimony that the chapel was established solely for religious purposes that the collector was overruled and the court decided that the vestments were properly entitled to entry free of duty under the provisions of the tariff act. The judges of the United States Customs Court who reviewed this case were Justice Waite, Young and Cline. Judge Young rendered the decision.

The star witness at the trial in Chicago last fall was the Rev. Maximus Poppy, O. F. M., associate editor of Franciscan Herald. His testimony was very impressive.

Four Motorists In Wrecked Car

Canandaigua, March 14. — Four motorists from Wilmington, Del., hid a narrow escape from death the other evening, when their automobile skidded at Spangle Street and the Geneva Turnpike, east of this place. The auto overturned and caught fire. It was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James Cullen and Mr. and Mrs. James Flynn. Mrs. Cullen suffered a dislocated right elbow, cuts on the head and painful burns. Mr. Flynn had his collar-bone broken. The others escaped with painful bruises.

The injured motorists were taken to the Memorial Hospital and cared for by Dr. C. C. Williamson of Gorham.

Eamonn De Valera Released From Jail

(By N. G. W. C. News-Service)
Belfast, March 14. — Eamonn De Valera was arrested at Newry, a border town, on February 5, when he crossed into Ulster from the Free State, en route to Belfast. Mr. De Valera was coming to Belfast to open a bazaar to raise funds for the Gaelic Movement here. The order under which he was arrested—one prohibiting him from entering Northern Ireland—was passed four years ago, and the political reasons which gave rise to it were thought to have passed away.

DIES IN SEXTON'S OFFICE
Cincinnati, Ohio, March 14.—Mr. Joseph Wolf went to the office of the sexton of St. Mary's Cemetery, to purchase a lot for the burial of his niece's infant daughter. He fell dead while in the office.
