

Carry a full line of Radios and Radio Accessories

Our Honor Roll

Our Honor Roll

SPARTON

MAJESTIC

ATWATER KENT

KOLSTER

REILCO

Open an account with us. No interest charge and our repair a Guaranteed Service.

THE HOFFMAN MUSIC SHOP

TWO STORES:

327 Joseph Ave.

472 N. Goodman

Phone 6084

Culver 1016

Open Evenings

When It's Time

To Move

Gottry will move you speedily, but not hurriedly. There's a difference! When you move the Gottry way, each detail is efficiently carried through to completion by men with years of moving experience. Call Main 1618 for more details.

Sam Gottry Carting Co. Phone Main 1612 Stables & Parking

COMPLIMENTS OF The Old Homestead

IRONDEQUOIT BAY, N. Y.

Mahogany—Walnut

and Japanning

PAINTS IN IMITATION

WORKING ON METAL

PAINT CORP.

Cleveland Business Men Asked To Suspend Work 3 Hours On Good Friday

Clergymen At Meeting Presided Over By Priest Address Letter To Commercial Interests Asking Complete Cessation Of Industry In Observing Anniversary of The Crucifixion.

Cleveland, March 14.—For the first time in the history of the city Cleveland businessmen generally will be asked to observe a period of three hours of prayer and meditation on Good Friday by a cessation of all business activities from noon until 3 o'clock.

The movement was given definite force at a recent meeting of representatives of the Catholic and Protestant churches, which was attended by the Rev. S. J. Kremer, diocesan director of the Holy Name Society and pastor of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel; the Rev. A. J. Wright, committee secretary of the Federated Protestant churches of Cleveland; the Rev. Dan F. Bradley, pastor of Pilgrim Congregational church; the Rev. C. J. McCombe, pastor of the Methodist Church of The Savior; the Rev. E. G. Napes, pastor of the Episcopal church of The Savior; the Rev. J. H. L. Trout, pastor of Bethany English Lutheran church; J. W. Buttrick, of the Brooklyn Y.M.C.A., and the following members of the Holy Name Society: F. W. Kilbaker, William McLaughlin, Edward Martens, Herman J. Fox and John Murphy.

Father Kremer was chairman of the meeting and the Rev. A. J. Wright was secretary.

Father Kremer's opening remarks embodied a reference to the solemnity with which the church had always observed the anniversary of the crucifixion.

The movement for a more general observance also had received the endorsement of the Rt. Rev. Joseph Schrems, Bishop of Cleveland, in a letter sent to the priests and the people of the Cleveland diocese, Father Kremer said.

Brief talks were made by the several non-Catholic clergymen and the Holy Name men, all of whom gave assurance of cooperation in the program.

A letter signed by Father Kremer and the Rev. Mr. Wright is being sent to the Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber of Industry, the Real Estate board and other commercial and civic organizations urging them to join in the observance.

"For some years there has been a growing conviction in the minds of the leaders of the Christian forces throughout our country that Good Friday ought to and could be used to great advantage in the inculcation to great advantage in the inculcation of the example of Jesus Christ.

"So deep is this conviction in the minds of these leaders and so universal, that representatives of the Executive committee of the Diocesan Unit of the Holy Name Society of Cleveland and the representatives of the Federated Churches of Cleveland met in a dinner conference and organized themselves into one committee whose one purpose is to work for a cessation of business from noon until three o'clock on Good Friday in order that employers and employees may be at liberty to attend some service of worship appropriate to this memorial.

"The Rev. Father S. J. Kremer, pastor of the Catholic Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, and director of the Holy Name Society of the Cleveland diocese was elected chairman of the committee and the Rev. A. J. Wright, committee secretary of the Federated Churches, was elected secretary.

"At this conference it was decided to make a unanimous appeal to the Chamber of Commerce, the Chamber of Industry, the Social Service clubs and other similar organizations to cooperate in observing, for three hours, this we pledge ourselves to do.

"We are sure that after such a period of rest and refreshment, of prayer and meditation, of listening to inspiring music and addresses the people will return to resume business with greater faith in God and man, with a keener sense of the necessity of walking before God in deeper humility and of living with their fellowmen in honesty and sincerity."

Pope's Jubilee Is Celebrated

By Rev. J. Van der Heyden, (Louvain Correspondent, N. C. W. C. News Service).

Louvain, Belgium, March 12.—Owing to the settlement of the "Roman Question," the anniversary of the coronation of the Holy Father, which was made to coincide with the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of his priesthood, has taken on a special significance this year in Belgium.

In the magnificent temple of St. Gudula, Brussels, a Mass of Thanksgiving was offered up in the presence of the Royal Family, of His Eminence the Cardinal Archbishop of Mechlin and of the Papal Nuncio, all seated upon thrones in the Sanctuary. All the ambassadors accredited to the Belgian court, the members of the cabinet, and of both legislative assemblies assisted at the Mass.

The famed schola cantorum of the Metropolitan Church of Mechlin sang under the direction of its leader, Canon Van Nuffel.

After the ecclesiastical celebration, the Nuncio, Msgr. Micara, entertained at luncheon His Eminence the Cardinal Primate of Belgium, the members of the cabinet and many members of the aristocracy and of the clergy of the capital.

In the evening the elite of the Brussels Catholics were again congregated in the "Catholic Association's Hall," to listen to music and to orations from the Minister of State Segers and from the Minister of Industry and Labor Heyman.

Brother of Archbishop Dies San Francisco, March 14.—Plus Leo Montgomery, brother of the late Archbishop Montgomery, who died in San Jose was recently buried from St. John's Church. Mr. Montgomery was 76 years of age. His brother, the Most Rev. Archbishop George Montgomery, was the founder of the League of the Cross Cadets.

English Catholic Publisher Dies

London, March 12.—A severe blow has fallen upon the newly reconstructed Catholic publishing house of Burns, Oates and Washbourne with the sudden death of the managing director, Mr. Charles Hope Terry, at the early age of 48.

It was announced only last month that the firm, which is known throughout the world and enjoys the privilege of being "publishers to the Holy See," had been turned into a public company, with a capital, already subscribed, of $1,125,000. Mr. Terry was the new chairman and managing director. His colleagues on the board were Mr. T. Washbourne and Mr. Percy Briggs, both for long associated with the business.

Mr. Terry was also a director of various companies associated with the firm of Hutchinson, publishers. He was received into the Church ten years ago.

A few days ago he presided at a meeting of the Reading circle of the Catenian association, a Catholic organization. Two days later he was operated upon for an internal complaint from which he had previously suffered with less severity, and on the following day he died, fortified with the rites of the Church.

British Churchmen Oppose Communion With The Holy See

London, March 14.—A few Protestants of the old type do not like the settlement of the Roman Question, and the recognition of the Pope as a sovereign. The Council of the Church Association has just passed a resolution calling upon the British government "to give heed to the provisions of the constitution, which forbid the ruling powers in this country to hold communion with the See or Church of Rome."

This is, of course, a demand for the withdrawal of Britain's diplomatic representative at the Vatican.

Italian Rail Rates Reduced For Pope's Jubilee Pilgrims

New York, 14.—Important reductions in rates have been granted by the Italian State Railways for the jubilee of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, this year. It has been announced here by Compagnia Italiano Turismo, official agent of the Railways. A reduction of 30 per cent on the regular rate will be allowed for parties of from 25 to 50, and of 50 per cent for larger groups, on trips from any part of Italy to Rome and return.

Travelers coming from foreign countries will be given the privilege of following a different route on their return from Rome, thus being able to visit more of the important Italian cities. In addition to the first reduction, there also will be a lowering of the rates for visits to the sanctuary of the Holy See.

CROSBY'S FURS

We Repair and Remodel Fur Garments. Have Your Fur Coat Made To Order. We carry at all times a complete line of skins, linings, etc. to choose from.

Free Storage On All Garments Repaired During the Summer Months.

Automatic Cold Storage on the Premises

DEAL WITH THE MANUFACTURER

THE CROSBY FRISIAN FUR CO.

571 Lyell Avenue

Rochester, New York

Compliments of

CHARLES R. BARNES

Commissioner of Railway's

Compliments

The Valley Sand and Gravel Corp.

1402 Lincoln-Alliance Bank Bldg.

Rochester, New York

HUTHER BROS. Saw Manufacturing Co.

MONROE 5916

1190 UNIVERSITY AVENUE

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

HERBERT KIRCHER

FRESH, SALT AND SMOKED MEATS

1388 Culver Road

ROCHESTER, N. Y.