Fourth Degree Dinner Party

Auburn, March 28.—The annual St. Patrick's dinner dance of the Fourth Degree, K. of C., will be held April 3, in the Pompeian Room of the Osborne Hotel in this city.

Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock and will be followed by dancing. Leo Kroker's Maroon Collegians will furnish music.

Frederick Welch is chairman of the Arrangement Committee. His aides are John F. Ring, Joseph Heleck, Louis Schmitt, Joseph Schwartzwalder, John J. Leo, Martin A. Crehan, Philip F. Lyons, Louis Wesley.

Tickets for the affair may be obtained from any of the above committee or at Dowd-Luo's store, Osborne House Pharmacy, Egbert Clothing or Weld's Drugs.

In Memoriam.

(The first anniversary of the death of Rev. A. A. Notebaert, March 29, 1928.)

- A flower of remembrance
- On his anniversary day.
- A silent prayer offered.
- As we go our way.
- Let a candle light glow
- On God's altar where,
- Often he kneelt
- In reverent prayer
- For the erring world.
- And for those he loved best.
- The heart of our Pastor.
- Of trust to the test.
- Was never found wanting
- Adown the long years.
- When stern duties called him
- Through smiles or through tears.
- In the twilight of his life.
- Until its last faint gleam.
- He was busy scattering flowers
- Down life's troubled stream.
- The parting hour came.
- The last words were spoken.
- And though he has left us
- The ties are not broken.
- With flowers of remembrance
- And ties stronger grown.
- Memory recalls
- Happy days we have known.

Bridgeport N. C. C. W. Membership Drive

Bridgeport, Conn., March 21.—The annual membership drive of the Bridgeport Council of Catholic Women, now numbering 3,200 women, was launched this week. The campaign is expected to bring the membership up to 4,000.

More than 500 members attended the opening meeting, which was addressed by the Rt. Rev. Maurice F. McAuliffe, Auxiliary Bishop of Hartford, the Rev. Peter H. McCrean, the Rev. Thomas B. Gloster and Miss Agnes G. Regan.

Miss Regan, who is executive secretary of the National Council of Catholic Women, told in detail of the work of the national organization and how its activities had spread since the close of the war when it was mustered into a peacetime organization for the spread of true Christian principles in connection with Catholic charitable and social welfare work.

Knights of Columbus Carnival April 8 to 13

Mammoth Event, With Hundreds of Prizes and Classy Entertainment Will be Held in Columbus Building Auditorium for One Week

Grass isn't growing yet, but even if it was it couldn't grow under the feet of the Rochester Knights of Columbus. Last Sunday night the Knights closed one of the largest and most successful membership campaigns ever held in the city of Rochester. One week from Monday night, on April 8th, they will open in the Columbus Building Auditorium one of the biggest and best carnivals or fun fests ever held in the city.

De. Walter D. O'Neill is chairman of this event. "Doc" has the experience, the pep and the push to put it over the top, and along with that he has gathered around him an energetic staff of co-workers, men who will put a lot of enthusiasm into their efforts and who will help make the fun fest a credit to the entire organization.

The fun festival will open Monday evening, April 8th and will close Saturday evening, May 13—one week of solid fun every night, with different features and different entertainment every night, including dancing, music, vaudeville, comedy, novelties, and other specialties that will draw and delight every crowd.

Prizes—well, there will be so many that it would take one's breath away to make an inventory of them. There will be six automobiles, to begin with, and everybody who attends or buys tickets for the fun festival will have an opportunity of taking one of these big prizes, or something else desirable, home from the auditorium.

There will be a big variety of booths, well stocked with novelty or useful articles, side shows and lots of other things. Chairman of the various features include the following:

Frederick J. Weider, finance; W. E. Andrews, purchasing agent; Lep Fleming, booth workers; George W. Henner, publicity; Louis J. Knapp, tickets; Elmer Lavenbruck, Fourth Degree; Herman G. Hetzler, Alhambra; C. J. Statt, Fourth Degree booth; R. Frank Quinn, automobiles; Charles W. Hawken, entertainment; Fred Magill, Joe Statt and N. J. Devereux, floor; Fred J. Mix, advisory; William Stichel, printing; Carl Lowenguth, prizes; Harold R. Sours, advertising; Daniel F. Fitzgerald, reception.

The fun show will be open to the entire community, ladies and gentlemen, and it will be conducted on a high plane, in good keeping with the excellent reputation of the Rochester Knights of Columbus in matters of entertainment. Everybody is asked to keep the dates in mind, and to be at the front entrance of the Auditorium on Monday evening, April 8th, that the Fun Show may get a fine start.

Easter Vacation For All Schools.

All schools of the city, public and parochial, are closed for the Easter vacation. They will re-open on Monday, April 8th.

It is the hope of the Catholic Courier and Journal that the vacation will be as pleasant one for pupils and teachers, and that the good Sisters will enjoy a pleasant rest from their labors of love in the schools where they are doing God's work for the children of the Church.

Catholic Women Charity Party

Geneva, March 28.—The week following Easter opens with the charity dance of the Catholic Daughters of America, an annual event and which judging from the reported advance sale of tickets will attract as large a crowd as ever. Tuesday evening, April 9 the Knights of Columbus will hold an old fashioned dance at the Armony. A big crowd is expected.

Sacred Heart Feast Raised To Double Rite With Octave

Washington, March 28.—The last issue of the Acta Apostolica Sedis, publishes the decree of the Sacred Congregation of Rites raising the feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to the double rite of first class with privileged octave of the Third Order, as previously announced in the Pope's Encyclical Misericordiamus Redemptor. The same issue contains the text of the Mass and the office of the feast with its octave. Both the Mass and the office are new.

Every day during the octave, when another feast does not conflict, the office of the feast of the Sacred Heart will be recited with lessons proper to the second and third nocturne. The lessons of the second nocturne during the octave, except on the octave itself are taken from the encyclicals of Pius XI. The Sunday after Pentecost will have in part its own office. Thus the feast and octave of the Sacred Heart is placed on the same scale as that of the feast and octave of the Ascension.

The new Mass and office will be inserted in the missal and the breviary at the proper place after the octave of Corpus Christi and will be obligatory from this year.

St. Patrick Statue Is Given To Church

Binghamton, March 18.—A handsome marble statue of St. Patrick was presented to St. Patrick's Church here, yesterday, by the Rev. Ambrose M. Dwyer, pastor. The sermon of the day was delivered by the Rev. William M. Dwyer, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Oswego, and editor-director of The Catholic Sun, of Syracuse, N. Y.

Nazarath Girls Annual Retreat

President of Canisius College in Charge—Communion Breakfast Held

The annual retreat for the students of Nazareth Academy was held this week, opening on Sunday morning and closing Wednesday morning. Very Rev. Peter Cusick, S. J., president of Canisius College, Buffalo, was in charge. His instructions and talks were very edifying and helpful, and were greatly appreciated by the students and Sisters.

The retreat was made by about 820 students. All of them attended Mass at 8:30 each morning, and on Wednesday morning the entire student body received Holy Communion. A Communion Breakfast was held at the close of the retreat, and it was a happy conclusion to one of the best retreats ever held in Nazareth.

French Students Win Rome Trip

Paris, March 21.—Announcement has just been made of the winners in the contests conducted by La Vie Catholique in connection with the silver jubilee celebration of His Holiness Pope Pius XI. The prizes are trips to Rome as part of the pilgrimage of French youth.

Guy d'Almeidaux of Rennes was the winner among several hundred students of the large Catholic institutes, ages 18 to 25 years. The question discussed by this group was: "What are the remedies indicated by the Papacy during the last fifty years for the three greatest evils endured by modern society—the disorganization of the family, social disorders, international conflicts?"

In the second group, limited to students 14 to 18 years of age attending the higher classes of lycées and colleges, Hubert Lienart of the Stanislas College in Paris gave the best analysis of the Pope as father, chief and doctor, and pointed out the respect due him from all Catholicity. There were 840 papers submitted by this group.

The last contest was for members of the laboring class and farmers. The question put to them was, "Who is the Pope? What is his role? Why should we obey him?" A young laborer of Paris, Maurice Couly, won out over 795 other contestants.

The funds to cover the expenses of the trip for these three young men have been acquired through a subscription conducted by La Vie Catholique. It is estimated that 3,000 will take part in the Easter Week pilgrimage.

'Columbia' Reviews Catholic Colleges

Omaha, Neb., March 21.—Columbia, national organ of the Knights of Columbus, has inaugurated a series of articles on Catholic colleges and universities. An illustrated article on Creighton University, prepared by Frank P. Fogarty, will appear in the May number of Columbia.

Nazareth Unit Mission Crusade

Officers Elected and Work Planned By Students Interested in Missions

A unit of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade has been organized at Nazareth Academy, and it has been joined by a large number of the students. Rev. Leo C. Mooney, Diocesan Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, organized the unit, explained its purpose and outlined its plan of action. He was heard with interest by the students, and the ready response by large numbers of applicants showed the good fruits of Father Mooney's task.

Officers of the society have been elected as follows: President, Eleanor Russor; vice president, Mary Peters; secretary, Marie Cartenuto; treasurer, Josephine Kook. A counselor has been chosen from each home room, and there is great enthusiasm for the society among the Nazareth girls.

The chief purpose of the society is to help the mission activities of the Church, both in spiritual and material ways. Canceled stamps are being collected in large numbers, bandages made, books donated, and kindergarten equipment for little tots in mission countries. It is expected the society will accomplish worthwhile work, in keeping with the excellent way the Nazareth girls accomplish results in every cause in which they take an active part.

Weekly Calendar

Sunday, March 31.—St. Benjamin, deacon and martyr, suffered in Persia, during persecution under Varanes, grandson of Sapor III. He was thrust into prison for a year and then released and commanded not to speak again of religion. When he disregarded this command, he was subjected to horrible tortures and executed in the year 424.

Monday, April 1.—St. Hugh, Bishop of Grenoble, from the cradle appeared to be a child of benediction. He resigned his bishopric and entered an austere abbey but was never able to obtain permission from the Holy See to leave the night in solitude. He died April 1, 1137.

Tuesday, April 2.—St. Francis of Paula, left his home in Calabria to live as a hermit. He founded the "Minims," so called to indicate that they were the least of monastic orders. Their members observed a perpetual Lenten fast. St. Francis worked many miracles and died at the age of 91 on Good Friday in 1507.

Wednesday, April 3.—St. Richard of Chichester, refused wealth and a brilliant marriage to study for the priesthood at Oxford. Later he became Chancellor of the University of Oxford and was also Chancellor of the diocese of Canterbury. Elected Bishop of Chichester in spite of the King's opposition, the Saint governed his see with great wisdom and brought about reforms. He died in 1253 while preaching a Crusade against the Saracens.

Thursday, April 4.—St. Isidore, Archbishop, was born of a ducal family at Carthagena in Spain. He succeeded his brother Leander as Archbishop of Seville and successfully fought against the Arian heresy. He died at Seville April 4, 636, and was declared a Doctor of the Catholic Church within sixteen years of his death.

Friday, April 5.—St. Vincent Ferrer, the "Angel of Judgment." At the point of death because of grief over the schism that was afflicting the Church, he was miraculously recalled and told to go forth and convert sinners. For twenty-one years he preached throughout Europe and converted thousands. He died at Vannes in Brittany in 1419.

Saturday, April 6.—St. Celestine, Pope, succeeded Pope Boniface in 422. He excommunicated Nestorius and deposed him and also combated the Pelagian heresy. Many authors of the life of St. Patrick say that that apostle received his commission to preach to the Irish from Pope Celestine in 431. The Pope died in 432.

St. Elizabeth's Circle Meeting

A well-attended meeting of the St. Elizabeth's Social Circle was held on Monday afternoon at the Catholic Women's Club. The following hostesses were present: Mrs. C. Halloran, Mrs. E. C. Helein, Mrs. Fred H. Hall, Mrs. J. Hannah, Mrs. Judge Harmon, Miss Katherine Harper, Mrs. Margaret Heveron, Mrs. Joseph Hobson, Mrs. E. Hoefen, Mrs. J. W. Myland, Mrs. John Herlihy, Mrs. Frank Henricus and Mrs. Mark Hancock.
